The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2207—Melany Yanis was widely regarded as the most beautiful woman in Kineallen City, not to mention the most kind-hearted. She would never throw tantrums, and she acted with kindness toward everyone, no matter their status or wealth. She saved James because she did not want him to die in the wilderness.

“I don’t know who you are nor where you came from. In any case, I won’t be able to take care of you. Before I leave, I’ll make the necessary arrangements.”

Melany had constructed a shelter in Kineallen City where she would bring the people she saved after their injuries had healed.

Just as Melany was murmuring to herself, James suddenly asked, “Was it you who saved my life?”

She was stunned.

“Y-You can speak?”

“Of course.” James said, “I only couldn’t speak sooner because my injuries were too grave. By the way, where is this place?”

Over the past month, James had been slipping in and out of consciousness. He had no idea where he landed after leaving Earth.

“This is the Yanis’ household in Kineallen City. While I was out looking for ingredients for elixir refinement a month ago, I found you lying on the ground. Your life was hanging by a thread, so I brought you back here and healed you.”

“Thank you.”

James thanked her. Although he would not die from his injuries due to his extraordinary body, he thanked her nonetheless.

“By the way, where’s Kineallen City? What world is this?” James asked.

“Huh?” Melany was stunned. Was the man before her not from the Ancient Realm?

However, she did not ask any questions and simply replied, “Kineallen City is located in Doncaster of the Ancient Realm.”

“The Ancient Realm?”

Hearing this, James’ blood ran cold.

It was only because of the Ancient Realm's Divinity Sect's Sect Elder that he could not return home to his family. He needed to gain sufficient strength to fight against the Divinity Sect before he could return home. Otherwise, there was no point in going back

Upon seeing James' ghastly expression, Melany asked, "What's wrong?"

"It's nothing" James took a deep breath. There was no point in dwelling over the events that had occurred. Now, he needed to cultivate and increase his strength in the shortest amount of time possible. Then, he would return to Earth and annihilate the Divinity Sect

Now that he had fled Earth, he was worried about Thea and Winnie. What should he do if the Divinity Sect targeted them? Although Sophie told him that resurrection was possible once he reached the pinnacle of cultivation, he doubted he could ever reach such heights.

"Rest well. I'll be taking my leave."

Then, Melany turned to leave.

For the next few days, she did not appear. James, on the other hand, remained bedridden, allowing his body to slowly recover.

Though he still could not move about as he pleased, he no longer lost consciousness.

Three days later, he was taken onto a carriage. Then, he arrived somewhere else.

"Sir." After being placed on a bed at a new location, a voice came, "This is Angel's Haven Sanctuary, a shelter sponsored by Ms. Melany. For the time being, rest here and treat your injuries."

James could see that a woman with fine features was speaking to him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2208—Back when he was still gravely injured, he could not even turn his head. As such, he was not able to take a glimpse of his savior.

"Miss, may I know who your lady is? By the way, where did she go?"

"She's called Melany Yanis, and she has gone to Doncaster City, the core city of Doncaster since the Welkin Academy is currently admitting new disciples. Ms. Melany wants to join the academy," the woman answered.

Hearing this, James furrowed his eyebrows.

The Welkin Academy? What the hell was that?

He asked, "What's the Welkin Academy?"

The woman suppressed a snicker and said, "You aren't a cultivator I guess, or you would have heard about the Welkin Academy."

James simply smiled and said nothing.

The woman explained, "There are a few influential forces in the Ancient Realm, primarily the Sect, the Academy, and the Clan."

James asked puzzledly, "What do you mean?"

The woman said, "The Sect refers to the Divinity Sect.

Hearing this, James took a deep breath. Though he knew that the Divinity Sect belonged to the Ancient Realm, he had no idea that it enjoyed such a lofty status.

"The Academy refers to the Welkin Academy.

"Meanwhile, the Clan refers to the Ancient Clan."

Upon hearing the explanation, James now had a rough idea of the distribution of power within the Ancient Realm.

He was also intrigued by the Welkin Academy. Since he had nowhere to go in the Ancient Realm, he could join the Welkin Academy and become a disciple there. Once he cultivated enough, he would return to Earth and have his revenge.

James had nothing to worry about when it came to Earth's affairs. After all, Earth still had Mount Springcastle to turn to. The powerful figures of Mount Springcastle would not sit by the sidelines if anyone dared make a move against Earth.

As for the seal, he had nothing to be worried about too because the four keys were in his hands. As long as he remained here, the seal on Earth would never be undone, and the Three Thousand Worlds would not merge with Earth.

He stopped worrying about the looming Calamities and providences that would soon appear on Earth. Now, the only thing he needed to do was to stay hidden in the Ancient Realm and cultivate in earnest before returning to Earth. He would have to reach at least the Mage Rank by then. Otherwise, he would not stand a chance against Yuvaan Zymir in a fight

When he remembered Yuvaan's despicable acts, the desire to grow stronger grew more intense in his heart.

“Rest well, Sir. I’ll be taking my leave.”

Then, the woman turned to leave.

For the next few days, James concentrated on healing his injuries. As his body slowly recovered and his Demonic Energy increased, his body gradually recovered. On the third day since he was transferred to the shelter, he was able to walk. By the fifth day, he had practically regained his physical strength, but he needed time to restore his cultivation base.

However, James could not wait. If he delayed any longer, he would miss the deadline for the Welkin Academy’s admission process. So, he chose to leave without saying goodbye.

After leaving Angel’s Haven Sanctuary, he left Kineallen City and embarked on a journey to Doncaster City.

Once he left the city, he found a secluded spot and entered the Celestial Abode. There, he plucked the Empyrean Berries and consumed them before healing his injuries in the Time Chamber.

Soon, his injuries were healed, and his strength returned to its peak form.

On a mountain the Ancient Realm, James was fighting against a ferocious beast. The beast was a huge python several hundreds of meters in length.

As James struck with his fist, the python immediately exploded.

With a delighted look on his face, he murmured, “I suffered grave injuries from the lightning strikes and almost succumbed to them, but my body is made out of the Demonic Lotus. The lightning was able to nourish my body as well. Now that my injuries have healed, my physical strength should be equivalent to the First Stair of Immortal Ascension.”

Though James almost lost his life, he nonetheless gained enormous benefits.

His physical strength had increased to such an extent that he was now able to fight against some at the Immortal Ascension’s First Stair.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2209—Though his physical strength was at the Immortal Ascension’s First Stair, his rank had not increased. In fact, he was only at the Herculean Fifth Layer.

After fighting against the beast to evaluate his current strength, James hurriedly made his way over to Doncaster City.

For the next three days, James was on the move.

Three days later, he arrived at his destination.

As he left the mountain range, a huge city a thousand years old appeared before him. Its walls were hundreds of meters high, and they were constructed from grey granite. Outside the walls, there were many armor-clad guards armed with swords garrisoned.

The words 'Doncaster City' were carved onto the city gate.

As James gazed at the city before him, he murmured, "This should be Doncaster City, the core city of Doncaster. I wonder if the Welkin Academy is still admitting disciples. I hope I can make it."

James had nowhere to go in this foreign land. Since the Welkin Academy was the strongest in the Ancient Realm, he might be able to receive its protection in the future by becoming its disciple.

Besides, he also learned that the Welkin Academy had bad blood with the Divinity Sect. This was the reason Melany came here.

James walked through the busy streets teeming with people. On both sides of the street, many cultivators were selling weapons, elixirs, and cultivation methods.

After entering the city, James grabbed a random person and asked, "Excuse me, I heard that the Welkin Academy is admitting new disciples in Doncaster City. May I know where should I go?"

The person glanced at James. When he saw his travel-weary look, he immediately knew James came from a foreign land. Pointing in a direction, he said, "They're currently registering at the City Lord's Mansion. Make haste! Today's the last day of registration. If you miss this, you'll have to wait for another ten years."

"Thanks!"

Then, James immediately made haste.

Soon, he arrived at the City Lord's Mansion. Many people were gathered outside.

In front of James were a few tables, and many youngsters were registering their names on a piece of paper. Meanwhile, there was a long queue at the back. Everyone came here from afar to become a disciple of the Welkin Academy.

James moved to the back of the queue. After three hours of waiting, it was finally his turn.

“Name, age, and address.”

There was a woman wearing a white dress, on which the words ‘Welkin Academy’ were written. She did not even lift her head to glance at James.

“James, thirty-six, rogue cultivator, no established residence,” James answered truthfully.

The woman noted down everything.

After the registration was done, she said coolly, “Alright, you are now registered. Gather outside the city gate tomorrow morning.”

Then, James turned to leave.

For the time being, he planned to stay in an inn temporarily. However, when he arrived at the inn, he realized that spiritual crystals were the only means of currency in the Ancient Realm. Meanwhile, he had zero spiritual crystals on him.

Unwillingly, he left the city and headed into a forest before entering the Celestial Abode.

In the Celestial Abode’s courtyard, James and Henry met up.

Henry knew of James’ current circumstances. As they drank, Henry asked, “James, what do you plan to do next?”

James took a sip of his wine and said, “What else can I do? With my current strength, I won’t be able to return to Earth. For now, I plan to remain hidden in the Ancient Realm. Once I gain enough strength, I’ll return to Earth.”

“What about Thea and Winnie?” Henry asked.

Upon hearing this, James’ expression turned grim.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2210–The only people he was worried about were his family. If he knew this was going to happen, he would have brought them into the Celestial Abode and cultivated in there.

“I know that they will be fine,” James said anxiously.

Before his trial, Cody had promised he would protect Thea. Not only that, but he also had Marcello's assistance. As a member of the Demon Race, not to mention that James had a close relationship with her, Marcello would not sit idly by as Yuvaan slaughtered his family.

Thinking about this, James took a deep breath.

He changed the topic and asked, "By the way, what rank are you at now?"

Henry smiled smugly and said, "I've been cultivating in the Time Chamber all this while, so I've already reached the Eighth Inner Gate of the Supernatural rank. Soon, I'll be a Herculean!"

"Mhm." James nodded.

With the Time Chamber, Henry and the others should be able to increase their strength drastically in a short period of time.

"What about the four-hundred-thousand-strong Black Dragon Army? What rank are they at now?"

Henry replied, "Under Sophie's arrangement, the Black Dragon Army has been taking turns cultivating inside the Time Chamber. With the countless Empyrean Berries available there, they have also crossed into the ninth rank. Though most remained at the first shackle, the strongest has broken free of the third shackle."

Hearing this, James was delighted.

With the Celestial Abode and the Time Chamber, their strength would be able to increase drastically in a short amount of time. By the time they returned to Earth, they would have acquired unbelievable strength. In addition to the battle formation of the Black Dragon Army, the Divinity Sect would be reduced to nothingness.

Henry continued, "Among the leaders, Delainey's cultivation speed is the fastest. Now, she has reached the Herculean rank. She possesses enormous potential. Even Sophie is impressed"

"Mhm."

James nodded.

The two discussed many things from when they were enlisted to the Southern Plains to their arrival at Cansington.

"To think that this would happen in just twenty years I guess our time in Cansington back then was the happiest and the most relaxing." Henry sighed

“Indeed,” James said, “I miss those leisurely days as well. However, times have changed. We have to become stronger to survive.”

“What are you guys talking about?” came a voice.

Turning his head, James noticed Sophie approaching them.

Immediately, they stood up and greeted her, “Sophie.”

Sophie waved her hand slightly and said, “Alright now, no need for formalities.”

Then, she sat down, grabbed a bottle of wine, and swallowed a gulp.

After that, she looked at James and said, “James, although I didn’t help you much, I did help out in your escape from Earth. I guess you owe me your life, so shouldn’t you show some gratitude?”

James was on full alert, asking, “Wh-What else do you need?”

Sophie snickered. “Look at you getting all defensive... It’s not like I make demands every now and then.”

Saying that, she changed the subject, “Actually, I was hoping I could have a glimpse of the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts.”

Hearing this, James asked, “What is that?”

At that moment, the Spirit Tool walked over to them and said, “The Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts is a scripture left behind by Emperor Jabari.”
