The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2211—James had no idea what the Three-Thousand Cultivations Arts were. Regardless, since Sophie wanted to have a glimpse at them, James did not stop her.

“Sure thing,” James said nonchalantly.

Hearing this, the Spirit Tool furrowed his eyebrows. “James, are you playing dumb or what? Do you have any idea how powerful the Three Thousand Cultivation Arts are? Do you know that the late Emperor Jabari went to great lengths to acquire them?”

James said nonchalantly, “Well, taking a look at them won’t hurt, right?”

“I love you so much, James!”

Wearing a bright smile, Sophie turned and left.

James could not care less. He would not lose anything by allowing her to have a look at them

The Spirit Tool said nothing and left.

James remained inside the Celestial Abode for the whole day.

The next morning, he left the Celestial Abode, walked out of the forest, and headed toward Doncaster City. By the time he arrived, there was already a crowd gathered by the city gate. They were all geniuses from all over the world who wished to join the Welkin Academy.

Though the admission process was extremely strict, the prerequisites for registration were simple. As long as you were not over the age of fifty, you were eligible to register.

James arrived at the city gate and scanned his surroundings. Based on conservative estimates, there were at least 100 thousand people.

He tried looking for Melany. However, although he stayed at the Yanis’ household for a month, he had never seen Melany’s appearance. Thus, he was unable to find her in the crowd.

“I guess I’ll have to join the Welkin Academy before repaying my debts to her,” James murmured.

Then, he waited patiently. More and more people gradually appeared.

Soon, a group of people appeared on the city wall. They were wearing the same attire, on which the words 'Welkin Academy' were written. It was evident they were disciples of the Welkin Academy.

Meanwhile, an elderly man stood in the middle.

When he appeared, the crowd fell silent. Everyone's gazes were fixed on the elderly man

"Sorry for keeping you waiting," the elderly man spoke.

"Welcome to Doncaster City and the Welkin Academy's examination. I'm the person in charge of the examination and also the academy's Sect Elder. Allow me to brief you on the examination process.

The Sect Elder spoke, "The examination will be held in the Moonlit Ridge Painting, a priceless treasure of the Welkin Academy. Once you enter the painting, you will each obtain a token, and your objective will be to seize others' tokens. For each token you obtain, you will gain one point. Once you lose your token, you will be disqualified on the spot. At the same time, you are required to head to the central region where the arena is located. The moment you enter the arena, no one else will be allowed to take your token."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2212—"You have a time limit of ten days

"You will be disqualified if you fail to enter the arena in the central region within ten days.

"The number of tokens you seize will only determine your ranking and the opponent you will be assigned to in the arena. Your main objective should be to arrive at the arena at all costs."

"Remember, there are only ten thousand openings. Once ten thousand people have entered the arena, the rest will be disqualified immediately regardless of the tokens you have in your possession.

"After ten thousand people have entered the arena, a battle will be held to determine the admission of a thousand disciples. This means that only a thousand people are eligible to join the Welkin Academy."

“Not only that, but those in the top ten will gain the right to be one of the Sect Elder’s disciples, whereas the number one top-ranking participant will be admitted as an Inner Disciple by the headmaster.”

The Sect Elder briefly described the rules of the admission process.

Hearing the explanation, James roughly knew about the rules.

On the way to the central region, they would encounter many Welkin Academy disciples who would obstruct their progress. Heading directly to the central region would not be an easy task.

After explaining the rules, the Sect Elder waved his arm, and a green light emerged from his sleeves

The green light levitated in the air and materialized into a huge painting a thousand meters in length.

“Everyone, this is the Moonlit Ridge Painting. Let the examination begin!”

As the Sect Elder’s voice boomed, many soared to the sky and entered the painting.

James, however, was not in a hurry to enter.

Many people were gathered on the city wall. A young man wearing a white robe crossed his arms as he watched the enthusiastic examinees entering the painting.

A woman walked over to him and greeted him respectfully, “Zayn...”

The man glanced at her and asked coldly, “Is something the matter?”

“N-No” The woman hurriedly lowered her head and averted her gaze

At that moment, the Sect Elder walked over to them.

“Zayn ”

“Master,” Zayn Bridger greeted him respectfully.

The Sect Elder sighed “The Divinity Sect was one step ahead of us by admitting disciples Doncaster, so I guess we won’t able to admit any distinguished disciples The people gathered here for the examination today must be the ones who failed the Divinity Sect’s admission process. It appears that we’ll be defeated by them in the coming competition again.”

Zayn said, "That being said, there aren't any rules stating that only recently admitted disciples can participate in the coming competition. As long as they aren't over the age of titty, they are eligible to join. I believe we still have many talented cultivators among the younger generation."

The Sect Elder glanced at the examinees entering the Moonlit Ridge Painting and said, "Let's hope we can find a few talents this time. All this while, we have been overshadowed by the Divinity Sect. I really hope we can find a few individuals with enormous potential and stand up to the Divinity Sect."

At that moment, tons of people poured into the painting.

Seeing that most examinees had entered, James leaped into the air and joined them.

The Moonlit Ridge Painting was mysterious. From the outside, it looked like an ordinary painting. However, there existed another world inside the painting.

As James gazed into the distance, he realized there was no end in sight.

He appeared on a mountain.

When he arrived, a white token carved with the words 'Welkin Academy' descended from the sky

Holding the token in his hand, he murmured, "Is this the token?"

Then, after getting his bearings, he headed in the direction of the central region. Before he even took a few steps, someone blocked his path.

"Hand over the token if you know what's good for you."

Grinning, a chubby man holding a sword stood in his way.

James scrutinized the man.

Sensing that his cultivation base was at the Herculean First Layer, he snickered. "You want my Token?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2213—James could not care less about a cultivator at the Herculean First Layer. With his current strength, he could easily annihilate him without resorting to Sacrilegious Ascension.

He grinned mischievously at the man before him.

“Cut the cr*p!”

The man’s face darkened as he swung his sword. Terrifying Sword Light shredded through the air and charged toward James.

James smiled faintly as he appeared a hundred meters away in the blink of an eye. When the Sword Light made contact with the ground, the earth rumbled.

A sword appeared in James’ hand. It was the Primordial Dragon Blade that he had kept in the Celestial Abode.

With the sword in hand, he magically appeared before the man. Before the man could react, James’ sword was already pressed against his neck.

“I…”

His blood ran cold.

He was a Herculean First Layer, which was considered powerful at his age. Now, however, he was defeated in seconds.

James extended his arm and said coldly, “Come on.”

Frustrated, the man looked at James and pleaded, “I-I’ve learned my mistakes. Please give me a chance. I’ll be disqualified if you take my token. With my strength, I have the right to become a disciple of the Welkin Academy.”

James smiled faintly and struck the man’s chest with his palm.

Powerful Palm Energy burst forth and sent the man flying, who collapsed heavily to the ground and vomited a mouthful of blood.

James appeared before the man and glanced downward at him, saying, “Your token.”

Reluctantly, the man handed his token to James.

After obtaining the token, James turned to leave. Meanwhile, the man who lost his token was forcibly transported out of the Moonlit Ridge Painting and disqualified.

Once he got his bearings, James pressed forward.

Along the way, he came across many examinees engaging in fierce battles against one another in the hopes of seizing more tokens for themselves. James knew that the token only determined the preliminary ranking and as such, was unimportant. The primary objective should be to head to the arena in the central region.

Meanwhile, Melany was surrounded by three men at a place not too far away from James.

“Your token, Miss.”

Surrounded, Melany bit her lips. She knew she would be disqualified once she lost the token.

She had no choice but to become a disciple of the Welkin Academy. Otherwise, her family would be tyrannized by the Zaydons.

However, the three men before her exuded an aura that was not beneath hers. Besides, she stood no chance against three people at once.

“p-Please let me go. I really want to be a disciple of the Welkin Academy.”

“Hahaha!” A man roared in laughter, “Who doesn’t want to be a disciple of the Welkin Academy? However, you need to have certain strengths to do so. So what if you arrive in the central region? With your strength, you won’t be able to make it to the top thousand.”

“I-I won’t give up! I’ll do my best!” Melany said with determination in her eyes. Then, she brandished her sword and pointed at her opponents, saying, “Come!”

“Since you have a death wish, don’t blame us for what happens next!”

James was sensing his surroundings as he made his way to the central region. He wanted to look for Melany and repay his debts. Though he had never seen her, he knew what Melany’s aura felt like.

Just as he was making his way to the central region...

“Huh?”

Sensing a familiar aura, he stopped and gazed into the distance.

Not too far away, a woman was engaged in a fierce battle against a man in a forest. Two other men were also watching the battle.

“Is that Melany?”

James stood in mid-air and watched the battle below.

The woman’s aura felt familiar. Without the slightest hesitation, he descended from the sky and landed steadily on the ground, yelling, “Stop right there!”

His voice boomed.

Hearing this, Melany and her opponent turned to look at James. When she saw him, Melany was dumbfounded.

“Isn’t that…”

Meanwhile, her opponent stared at James. Sensing his unusual aura, he threatened, “This is none of your concern! Stay out of this.”

James paid no heed to him and walked toward Melany.

The gorgeous woman before him had fine and delicate features. However, she was currently in a wretched state. Her arm was wounded, and her dress was blood-stained.

Unsure of her identity, James asked, “Melany Yanis?”

“Wh-Why are you here?” Melany immediately recognized James. This was the man whom she saved.

“It really is you.” Hearing the familiar voice, James was now certain that the woman before him was Melany.

“You have a death wish!”

Swish!

The man behind them cursed and swung his sword, summoning a wave of Sword Energy that shredded through the air.

“Watch out!” Melany cried out.

However, James grabbed her hand and dodged the Sword Energy with ease. Then, in the next instant, he appeared a hundred meters away, put Melany down, and charged toward the man who ambushed them.

His speed was so extraordinary that no one could see his movements. In the blink of an eye, the man was struck and sent flying before collapsing heavily to the ground.

James walked over to him and said, "Your token, please."

The man was frustrated. However, faced with James, he was powerless. So, he obeyed his command. Upon seeing this, his comrades ditched him behind and hurriedly fled.

James did not give chase. With the token in hand, he walked toward Melany.

She looked at him in surprise. "Y-Your injuries..."

She knew that James suffered grave injuries. However, he was completely rejuvenated in a few short days. She also did not expect that James would be this powerful, defeating those who backed her to a corner with ease.

James nodded and said, "They are almost recovered. Speaking of which, I owe you my My injuries wouldn't have recovered this quickly if not for your care."

"Why are you here at the Welkin Academy's examination?"

Melany asked.

James said smilingly, "Well, I came here in a hurry after learning that you are here as well. Besides, as I don't have any place to go, I wanted to find a place to cultivate. As the Welkin Academy sounds like a pretty nice place, I came here for the examination."

Then, he glanced at Melany. Based on the battle a moment ago, he knew that she was only around the Supernatural's Seventh Inner Gate. She would not be able to join the Welkin Academy with such strength.

"Since you saved my life, I have to repay you in some way. Do you really want to join the Welkin Academy?" he asked.

"Yes." Melany nodded.

James promised her, "I'll lend you a helping hand and escort you to the arena in the central region. However, I won't be able to help you during the battle afterward."

"Thank you."

Melany was thankful for James' help.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2215—The requirements for joining the Welkin Academy were extremely strict. Among the 10 thousand examinees who successfully entered the arena, only a thousand would have the right to join the academy after a battle.

Melany knew that she would not be able to become a disciple of the Welkin Academy with her current strength. Regardless, she had to give her best. Besides, now that she had James' assistance, getting to the central region would be less difficult.

“By the way...”

Upon being reminded of something, Melany looked at James pleadingly.

“Huh?” James asked, confused, “Why are you looking at me like that?”

Melany said, “Didn't the Sect Elder say that the tokens will determine our ranking? That means the more tokens I obtain, the higher my ranking will be.

“Meanwhile, the current ranking serves only to assign our opponents. If I have a higher ranking, I might be able to enter the top 1000 even if I'm defeated in the coming battle.”

James thought about it. That seemed to be the case.

Since the number of tokens obtained determined one's ranking and subsequently one's opponent, Melany could avoid being disqualified if she had a sufficient number of tokens even if she was defeated.

That was the benefit of seizing tokens now.

“C-Can you help me out?” She looked at James pleadingly and said, “I-I really want to join the Welkin Academy.”

“Sure, no problem.” James nodded. Melany was his savior. How could he turn down her request at such a critical moment? He said, “I'll give you all the tokens I seize from now on.”

Stunned, Melany said, “B-But what about you?”

James said smilingly, “I just have to enter the arena in the central region. I'm confident in my strength, after all. But I have no idea what the battle will be like. If the victors are allowed to keep issuing challenges to those who have a higher ranking, it might be difficult for you to join the Welkin Academy even if you have enough tokens. After all, your strength is currently too weak.”

“In any case, I'll have to try.”

“Alright then, I’ll help you out as promised. Let’s get going,” James said.

After confirming his directions, he continued in the direction of the central region.

It was a forest that was hard to traverse through. As such, James and Melany traveled in mid-air. Before long, their paths were blocked by a group of people wearing white robes, on which the words ‘Welkin Academy’ were written.

James frowned when he saw them.

Then, they descended from the sky and landed steadily on the ground.

James whispered, “What’s going on here? Why are there disciples of the Welkin Academy blocking our path inside the Moonlit Ridge Painting?”

Melany explained, “I heard that this is a normal thing to do here. They were sent here by the academy to increase the examination’s difficulty. After all, the Welkin Academy is the top academy in the Ancient Realm. We will have to go through several rounds of obstacles.

“However, they won’t use their full strength, or else the Welkin Academy won’t be able to admit new disciples.”

Hearing this, James understood what was going on now.

As the two landed on the ground, a group of disciples of the academy appeared before them.

“Are you heading to the central region?” One of them said smilingly, “Before that, you’ll have to go through us, I’m afraid.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2216—James scrutinized them. However, as their aura was suppressed, he could not figure out their strength. Regardless, he asked, unafraid, “So what do we have to do?”

“It’s very simple. You just have to withstand three blows. If you don’t think you can do that, take a detour. However, there are many ferocious beasts in this area. You might lose your life, just saying,” the disciple spoke.

The others were wearing mischievous grins.

To them, James and Melany were simply children.

“Alright then, understood.” Wearing a composed expression, James asked, “So do you go one by one or all at once?”

Hearing this, the disciples were stunned.

Then, one of them smiled and said, “Arrogant, aren’t you? In that case, allow me to test your strength.”

Brandishing his sword, he pointed it at James. Shapeless Sword Energy reverberated throughout the forest, causing the fallen leaves on the ground to swirl in the air.

“Unsheathe your sword, Kiddo.”

The disciple who brandished his sword said, “Regardless of the outcome of your examination, my name is Xavyer Malachi. Keep that in mind.”

Xavyer introduced himself.

With a calm expression, James said, “I don’t need a sword to defeat you.”

“This is the first time I’ve encountered such an arrogant youngster. Today, I’ll show you true strength of the Welkin Academy.”

After he spoke he charged at James.

Right then, Melany had retreated to the rear.

James, on the other hand, remained where he stood.

Swish!

Terrifying Sword Energy shredded through the air. Leaping thirty meters into the air, James dodged his attack with ease.

Boom!

As Sword Energy struck the ground, the earth shook, and a fissure appeared on the ground.

“Not bad...”

Xavyer collected himself before charging at James once more. Before making contact with James, powerful Sword Energy burst forth from his sword.

Standing in mid-air, James stomped on nothingness. Then, powerful energy gathered at his foot and charged downward, colliding with the Sword Energy.

Boom!

The two energies collided, and the Sword Energy immediately shattered into pieces.

Sensing a powerful energy hurling toward him from above, Xavyer hurriedly sidestepped and dodged the attack.

As James' powerful energy struck the earth, the ground trembled violently, and debris swirled in the air.

"He's pretty strong."

"Not bad... I didn't expect such a powerful guy among the examinees."

"Xavyer is in deep trouble now."

Many conversed in whispers at the rear.

The moment James launched his attack, they immediately knew how powerful he was. His strength might have even surpassed that of Xavyer's.

Although Xavyer managed to dodge the attack, his arm went limp after energy brushed through his body. His hand shivered, and his sword almost fell to the ground.

He appeared several meters away and looked at James who was wearing a composed expression. Then, his face darkened as he murmured, "He's pretty strong. I might be defeated if I don't use my full strength. With everyone here watching, I'll be humiliated if word of me being defeated by an examinee spreads."
