The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2217—Xavyer did not wish to be humiliated in front of his

At that moment, his aura surged.

“Xavyer is about to get serious.”

“But it looks like the examinee hasn’t even used his full strength yet. I wonder what his rank is.”

“Xavyer is at the Immortal Ascension First Stair. He should be invincible against anyone below the age of fifty.”

“Isn’t he breaking the rules by going all out? If the Sect Elder blames us…”

“There’s nothing to worry about. Even if he’s defeated, we’ll simply let him pass through us.” Sensing Xavyer’s aura increased, they conversed in whispers.

Upon sensing Xavyer’s increasing aura, a faint smile crept up on James’ face. He was not afraid at all.

“Brace yourself, Kiddo!” Xavyer roared.

Then, he charged toward James. In the blink of an eye, he appeared before him and slashed with his sword.

His sword technique was bizarre. Even James could only see a glimpse of a Sword Light before the sword appeared in front of him. Seeing this, he sidestepped and dodged the attack flawlessly.

When he saw that his attack missed, Xavyer changed his tactics and tried stabbing James.

“What is Xavyer up to? Isn’t that the Meteor Fall Sword Art of the academy?” a disciple exclaimed.

Xavyer kept slashing at James. However, James managed to dodge them flawlessly. Though Xavyer’s sword technique possessed great power, he could not land a hit on James.

James knew that he would be joining the Welkin Academy in the future, so he did not want to humiliate his opponent. Besides, he came here in search of a place to peacefully cultivate and not flaunt his strength.

After dodging a few more times, he appeared in the distance and raised his hand, saying, "That was at least thirty blows. I should have passed, no?"

Xavier stopped and looked at James, his expression grim. He knew that James had not used his full strength, yet he could not scratch him even though he used his most powerful sword technique. If James fought back, he would have been defeated long ago.

Seeing that James gave him an out, he sheathed his sword and said, "How impressive! I never expected such a powerful examinee in this examination."

James smiled faintly.

When the battle was over, Melany walked to him and asked anxiously, "Are you alright?"

James said smilingly, "Of course I am."

Then, he turned to leave.

"What do you think you are doing?"

At that moment, another disciple blocked James' path.

James glanced at the man blocking his way. He was a youthful man around twenty-five years of age. However, he knew that he should not judge a book by its cover.

"Is something else the matter?" James looked at him and asked.

The disciple said, "You may pass, but not her."

He pointed at Melany and said, "You demonstrated enormous strength, so I have no objections to you passing through. She, on the other hand, is a different matter."

Hearing this, James furrowed his eyebrows.

Melany grabbed James' arm tightly in fear of being left behind.

James looked at the man before him and asked, "But what if I insist?"

“Alright, then. Are you all fighting me all at once?” James said nonchalantly.

“You’re too arrogant, Kid.” The disciple blocking James’ path grunted and said, “My name is Thorin Wasył. Remember my name. I’ll teach you a lesson you’ll never forget.”

James’ face darkened, and he hurriedly instructed Melany, “Stand back.”

Melany hurriedly retreated to the rear.

At the same time, Thorin brandished his sword.

However, James summoned all his strength and appeared before Thorin at extraordinary speed. Just as Thorin brandished his sword, his chest was struck. Before he could react, he was sent flying and collapsed heavily to the ground, vomiting a mouthful of blood.

Although James’ rank was only at the Herculean’s Fifth Layer and his physical strength at the Immortal Ascension’s First Stair, he had reached the pinnacle of his ranks. As such, his strength could not be determined by rank alone.

Swish!

While Thorin was sent flying, the other disciples brandished their swords and surrounded James.

The Primordial Dragon Blade appeared in James’ hand, and he performed the sword technique Sophie taught him. This sword technique was countless sword techniques merged into one.

His movements were quick. Before the disciples could even react, their swords snapped in half. In the next instant, James appeared behind them.

Sheathing the Primordial Dragon Blade, James looked at the dumbfounded disciples and said, “If I hadn’t gone easy on you, your heads would be rolling on the ground now as we speak.”

His voice was calm.

“What the...?”

The disciples looked at their swords in disbelief.

Meanwhile, Melany walked over to James and cheered, “How impressive of you, James! I didn’t expect you to be this strong!”

“Let’s go.”

Then, Jame turned to leave, while Melany followed close behind.

Meanwhile, the other disciples looked at one another. They no longer dared stop James.

Meanwhile, on the city wall in the outside world...

The Sect Elder had been paying close attention to the situation inside the Moonlit Ridge Painting.

“Master, that guy is pretty strong,” Zayn said upon seeing James perform the bizarre sword technique.

“Indeed.” The Sect Elder stroked his beard and said smilingly, “Though he’s strong, this is nothing to be surprised by. To my understanding, the Divinity Sect has admitted many powerful disciples. One of them is even a Grand Supernatural.”

He spoke enviously.

The Welkin Academy’s prestige was not beneath the Divinity Sect’s. However, as they were late in admitting disciples, most of the talents had flocked to the Divinity Sect.

When he witnessed James’ strength, he was pleased.

“Zayn, I can tell that he hasn’t used his full strength yet. Enter the Moonlit Ridge Painting and test his strength.”

Hearing this, Zayn furrowed his eyebrows and said, “Master, there are other distinguished disciples that are present here today. Although he’s strong, I don’t think he’s worthy of my attention.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2219—Zayn was arrogant and vain.

Even though James demonstrated enormous strength, he could not care less because he was one of the strongest cultivators to be admitted into the Welkin Academy during the previous examination. If it were not for the fact that he was young and comparatively weaker than those who had cultivated for centuries, he would have gone to Earth to compete for the providence. After all, there was still a slight power disparity between him and the Outsiders of the Sealed Realms who headed to Earth.

“Alright, then.”

Knowing how arrogant his disciple was, the Sect Elder did not press the issue.

In the Moonlit Ridge Painting, James headed in the direction of the central region alongside Melany. Along the way, they encountered many other examinees who were busy trying to seize the tokens of others for themselves. Seeing this, James randomly chose a few of them and seized their tokens before handing them over to Melany.

During the journey, none could stand in his way.

Meanwhile, Melany was giggling the whole time. She never expected the man she saved would turn out to be this powerful. If not for James, she would have been disqualified long ago because she was too weak. She did not have the right to become a disciple of the Welkin Academy.

While they headed toward the central region, the Sect Elder's subordinates had also entered the painting.

The current Sect Elder in charge of the admission progress was called Yoan Xenocrates, one of the Ten Sect Elders of the Welkin Academy. He was in charge of various affairs of the academy. Besides that, he also had many disciples under him. Over the past ten years, Zayn Bridger was the most distinguished among all.

Although the one who was sent to test James' strength was not as strong as Zayn, he was not a pushover either. His name was Wendel Yossi, and he was currently at the Immortal Ascension Third Stair.

Inside the Moonlit Ridge Painting...

"James, I already have a hundred tokens. I guess I have enough," Melany said with a bright smile.

James thought about it and said, "That's not going to be enough, I'm afraid. Considering there are around a hundred thousand examinees, there'll be a hundred thousand tokens out here. In my opinion, you need at least ten thousand to be safe."

"What? Ten thousand?" Stunned, Melany asked, "Do we have to defeat ten thousand examinees?"

James said smilingly, "Not really... Once we arrive at the later stages, the people we encounter will have many tokens on them. We'll be able to obtain many tokens without having to fight our way through."

James spoke nonchalantly. However, Melany knew that only James was qualified to make such a bold claim.

Just as they were slowly traversing the forest, a voice came, "Stop right there, you two."

James and Melany turned their heads as a figure descended from the sky before them.

He was wearing a green robe, and a sheathed sword was hanging on his waist. Though he was rather ordinary-looking, he exuded a somewhat charismatic aura. The words 'Welkin Academy' were written on the robe.

Seeing this, James immediately knew he was a disciple of the academy. He knew that he would encounter many disciples along the way. That was because they were here to increase the difficulty level of the examination and disqualify the weaker ones.

"James..."

Seeing that someone blocked their path, Melany gripped James' hand tightly.

James consoled her, "Don't worry, I'm here."

She relaxed a little when she heard this.

James looked at the man before them and asked, "So do I have to withstand a few blows from you or do I have to defeat you?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2220—The man was none other than Wendel Yossi, who was sent by Sect Elder Yoan to test James' strength. He was currently at the Immortal Ascension's Third Stair, a rank considered powerful by many,

Wendel looked at James with a bright smile and said, "You're in luck, Kid. The Sect Elder has noticed your strength, and I've been sent here to test your cultivation base. If you defeat me, you may advance directly to the central region and even secure the top ten openings."

Wendel gave an explanation.

Hearing this, James furrowed his eyebrows. He never expected he would attract the Sect Elder's attention. After all, he came here to the Welkin Academy to cultivate in peace. However, this was an acceptable scenario. By attracting the Sect Elder's attention, he would be able to become an Inner Disciple under him. Besides, the Welkin Academy and the Divinity Sect were arch-rivals. Meanwhile, he had deep grievances against the Divinity Sect. If he obtained the number one spot, he would be able to become one of the Sect Elder's Inner Disciples and receive his protection.

“Defeat you?” James looked at Wendel and grinned, “In that case, make your move.”

Seeing this, Melany hurriedly retreated.

Wendel, on the other hand, beckoned for James to make the first move. As a disciple of the Welkin Academy, he acted gentlemanly and did not make the first move against James, who was only an examinee, saying, “You have no problem joining the Welkin Academy. By then, I’ll be your senior disciple. You should make the first move.”

“Haha...” James laughed.

Then, he charged at Wendel with clenched fists at extraordinary speed. In the blink of an eye, he appeared before Wendel and struck him with all his physical strength.

His physical strength was equivalent to the Immortal Ascension First Stair.

As he struck with his powerful fist, Wendel simply raised his hand to block his attack while wearing a calm expression on his face.

He could feel a terrifying force spreading throughout his body. Wendel unconsciously staggered backward as his arm went limp, and the excruciating pain almost made him lose consciousness.

The moment James’ fist struck him, he immediately knew how powerful he was. Although James was merely an examinee of this examination, he was not to be underestimated.

Wendel gritted his teeth and said, “I guess I underestimated you a little.”

Then, he catalyzed True Energy.

“Eat this!”

After he spoke, he charged at James, who met his attack head-on.

Boom!

Their fists collided, and the battle waves shredded through the air, uprooting trees and shattering rocks on the ground.

James was immediately sent flying by the powerful energy and smashed against the trees. The moment Wendel fought seriously, James was immediately at a disadvantage.

At that moment, the Blood Energy inside his body churned, and he vomited a mouthful of blood.

Upon seeing this, Yoan Xenocrates who was in the outside world broke into a smile and said, He's pretty good, I must say. He was able to withstand Wendel's blow. He should be at least at the Immortal Ascension Second Stair or even the Third Stair. Such power at such a young age.... He'll be a distinguished cultivator if properly nurtured."

Yoan was satisfied with James' performance, who could easily be one of the best examinees in this examination.

"He's indeed strong," Zayn said with a slight hint of displeasure.

His master seemed to have taken an interest in James. If James became Yoan's Inner Disciple, he would be cast aside and fall from grace.
