The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2270—Surprised, James asked, “What exactly is that?”

Sophie continued to observe Quintina.

She looked at the mysterious scripts around Quintina’s body. The scripts were composed of True Energy and were constantly morphing.

“If I’m not mistaken, it’s probably an unknown power. She must have some kind of inexplicable ability.”

James was puzzled.

Sophie explained, “She’s a Grand Supernatural and was born with a Supernatural Power. Every Grand Supernatural’s Supernatural Power is unique. The Inscription of the Way must’ve been engraved within her when she was born. Although she still can’t understand their meaning, it can still give her great power.”

After Sophie’s explanation, James felt like he was able to understand better.

At that moment, Quintina sensed someone was watching her, and she stopped cultivating. She looked at James standing before her, and her brows furrowed slightly. She said, “Why’re your staring at me instead of cultivating?”

James returned to his senses and replied with a smile, “Six months are almost up, right? Since I can’t improve my cultivation rank any further, I plan to leave early. I passed by and saw you cultivating and was curious.”

After speaking, he walked over and sat in a lotus position next to Quintina. Then, he turned to her.

“You’re a Grand Supernatural, correct? I haven’t seen the Supernatural Power of a Grand Supernatural before. Could you show me?”

Hearing this, Quintina smiled and replied, “If you can make it into the top ten during the Grand Tournament, you might have the chance to fight me. You’ll be able to experience my Supernatural Power firsthand then.”

Quintina was confident in her strength and did not doubt her abilities.

With her strength, entering the top ten would be a piece of cake.

At that moment, Sophie's voice came from the Celestial Abode. "I don't know about other Grand Supernaturals, but Quintina is born with the Inscription of the Way in her body. She has great potential and will be able to at least reach the Emperor Rank. It'd benefit you greatly to get on her good side. You have too much Karma and you'll need people to help you bear its burden."

"You're going on about Karma again?" James frowned.

Why was Sophie constantly mentioning Karma?

Was dealing with Karma really that scary?

He asked doubtfully, "What does my Karma have to do with the friends I make?"

"You don't understand, do you? If you marry Quintina, your matters will also involve her, and she will share part of your Karma."

James rolled his eyes.

Since Sophie mentioned becoming friends with Quintina was beneficial, James kept it in mind.

He already had a wife, so he having a second marriage was out of the question.

They could still become friends instead of being husband and wife.

James talked to her meaningfully, "Quintina, I think you're a decent person. As the daughter of the Ancient Realm's most powerful man, you're still quite approachable and not. condescending. I's very much like to be your friend."

"Pfft." Quintina rolled her eyes.

She ignored James and stood up to leave.

Quintina also sensed the time was almost up, and her cultivation would not improve any further even if she continued cultivating in the Pagoda of Flames.

James stood up and followed behind Quintina. The two left the Pagoda of Flames together.

The other people who entered the Pagoda of Flames also sensed that their time in the pagoda was drawing to a close and chose to leave prematurely without using up the leftover days.

The ten people who entered the Pagoda of Flames had gained a lot in this time span.

The Divine Holy Emperor, Infernal Emperor, and Emperor Tamerlan left the Ancient Clan with their disciples.

James and Yoan also prepared to leave.

Standing in the yard, James asked, “Are we going to leave now, Sir?”

Yoan nodded and said, “Mhm, the Pagoda of Flames is already closed. The next time it’s open is another five decades later. We’ve already achieved our goal, so we will return to Welkin Academy. You must prepare and ensure you’re in the best condition when participating in the Ancient Realm’s Grand Tournament since only happens every fifty years.”

“Alright.”

James looked forward to seeing how strong the Ancient Realm’s powerhouses were.

As the two were about to leave, a woman wearing a blue dress walked over. She looked as elegant as a nymph. She looked at James and said calmly, “My father would like to see you, James.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2271—James was puzzled. ‘Why does Farley want to see me now?’

He was not the only person confused by the situation, Quintina was as well.

She knew her father’s character. He had never bothered with the Ancient Realm’s affairs. Even powerful prodigies could not catch his eye, but somehow, he favored James.

Moreover, he had requested to see James in person.

James said, “Lead the way.”

“This way, please. “Quintina beckoned him.

James turned to Yoan and said, “Sir, I’ll go and come back quickly.”

Yoan nodded and said, “Alright, go on.”

Afterward, Quintina led James to Mount Trinvard. They went to Farley's seclusion sanctuary located in the back mountain.

"Father, I've brought James," Quintina said respectfully to Farley

Farley gently waved his hand and said, "Alright. You may leave first."

Quintina was perplexed. She did not know what Farley wanted to speak to James about, but she did not ask any questions. After casting a glance at James, she turned to leave.

Farley sat in a lotus position on the ground. He looked at James and pointed to a mat on the ground.

James sat in a lotus position on the ground,

"Sir Farley, is there something you need me to do?" asked James.

Farley smiled and said, "You're being too polite with me. You're of a similar age to Quintina, so you can just call me uncle."

"Alright, Uncle." James corrected himself.

Farley said, "It's nothing important. Quintina used to be from the Welkin Academy and stayed in the Ancient Clan afterward. Now that she's frequently wandering the outside world, she'll inevitably be deceived by some malicious people. Please do help me watch over her."

His words dumbfounded James,

Quintina was a Grand Supernatural. Who would dare to deceive her?

However, James did not disappoint Farley. With a smile, he replied, "Don't worry, Uncle. I'll definitely look out for her."

Farley casually waved his hand, and a bottle appeared in his palm.

It was a small transparent bottle with some bright red blood in it.

He handed it to James.

James took it and asked doubtfully, "Wh-What is this? Is this the Ancient Clan's Ancient Blood?"

Farley nodded and said, "Mhm. During the Primordial Age, one of our clan's powerhouses used his entire life's cultivation base to extract some pure blood before he died. The blood contains powerful energy. Under normal circumstances, only our clan's disciples are qualified to absorb and refine the energy

"However, you have a special physique and aren't even afraid of Demonic Energy. You should be able to refine the energy within the blood. I've nothing else to help you on your cultivation path. This Ancient Blood should be enough to help you go up a few minor ranks."

"H-How can I accept such a valuable thing?"

Although James wanted it, he declined it out of etiquette.

Farley waved his hand and said, "If it weren't for you, I would've been dead. A few drops of Ancient Blood is nothing compared to your life-saving grace."

James put it away and said smilingly, "If that's the case, I'll accept it."

Farley nodded and said, "Mhm. The fewer people who know about your body, the better. Don't tell anyone else if not absolutely necessary. Otherwise, it'll be troublesome for you."

James nodded and said, "I understand."

He was very aware of the dangers. The Three Thousand Worlds despised the Demon Race. Thus, it would be troublesome if others discovered he had a Demonic Body.

Before James left, Farley reminded him again, "I'm leaving Quintina in your hands."

James smiled in response, got up, and left.

Quintina had been waiting outside the cave.

Seeing James walking out with a smile, she quickly approached him. She stared at him and asked suspiciously, "What did my father talk to you about?"

James looked at the pretty woman before him and said smilingly, "Nothing much. He wanted to know whether I was married and said he wanted me to take you as my wife."

"Huh?" Quintina was startled.

Seeing her shocked expression, James said smilingly, "Just kidding."
