The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2273—Soon, James came to the mountain range where ordinary disciples lived.

He walked over to Melany's small courtyard house and gently knocked on the door.

He knocked for a while, but no one responded.

'Is she not home? James wondered to himself.

Then, he leaped over the fence and entered the courtyard.

No one was around the courtyard, and the door to her house was shut tight.

"Who's there?"

A voice came from inside, and footsteps approached. Soon, the door was swung open.

James parted his lips and greeted her, "Melany..."

Before he could finish speaking, he noticed that Melany's body was covered in injuries. He could not help asking, "What happened? How did you get hurt?"

"It's you, James! You're back?"

Melany said smilingly, "I'm alright. I'll be fine after cultivating for some time.

Then, she beckoned James into the house. Her house was very tidy.

Melany went and made some tea for James.

James looked at Melany's bruised face and the injuries all over her body. He also noticed that through her collar, there were bandages around her neck.

"Have some tea, James."

Melany served a cup of tea to James.

James stared at her and asked, "What's going on? Are you getting bullied?"

"N-No," Melany replied instantly.

James said, "You can tell me. I'm Sir Yoan's disciple now. I can help you resolve the matter.

"I'm really fine." Melany sat down.

James knew she had a good heart and that there was definitely something going on.

"Melany, you brought me to the Welkin Academy. You're my savior, and it's my duty to protect you. Tell me, and I'll take care of whoever is bullying you."

James said a lot to persuade her.

Finally, Melany was willing to tell him the whole story.

She had gone out to train with a few other disciples some time ago. They encountered rare elixirs in the mountains and plucked them. When they brought it back, the elixirs were intercepted in the Welkin Academy.

The elixirs they brought back were stolen.

Moreover, the people who snatched their elixirs beat her and her companions.

After learning the whole story, James asked, "Who was it?"

"It was members of the United Alliance. They're a very powerful force within the Welkin Academy. Even though you're Elder Yoan's disciple, we can't afford to offend them, James. Plus, the elders won't intervene in the grievances between disciples."

Seeing Melany's timid attitude, James knew she had gone through a lot.

"It's alright. I'll avenge you. I'd like to see how strong this United Alliance is."

Melany quickly dissuaded him, "Forget it, James. Just let it go. The United Alliance's leader is the Inner Disciple of the Welkin Academy's headmaster. He's powerful, and I heard he's reached the Immortal Ascension's Ninth Stair. He's really close to the Mage Rank and has already gone to Earth for the boons there."

Melany was worried James would offend the United Alliance for her sake.

"Let's just go on with our business and not cause any trouble in the Welkin Academy."
"He's at the Immortal Ascension's Ninth Stair?" James sneered.

When he first came to the Welkin Academy, it was impossible for him to fight against someone like him. However, things have changed. His physical strength was already at the Immortal Ascension's Seventh Stair.

Although he was still inferior to someone at the Immortal Ascension's Ninth Stair, Melany had said the United Alliance's leader was no longer in the Welkin Academy but on Earth.

“Let’s go.”

James stood up and pulled Melany out of the house.

“Forget it, James. Just forget it. We just came to the Welkin Academy and shouldn’t cause any trouble.”

Melany begged him pitifully.

She did not rely on her own strength to join the Welkin Academy but was accepted only because of James, which caused a lot of talks. If they were to cause trouble and anger the elders, she would be expelled from the Welkin Academy within minutes.

Her hometown, Kineallen City, was dominated by the Zaydons.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2274—The Zaydons did not dare to do anything to Melany because she had become a disciple of the Welkin Academy.

She would be doomed if she was expelled from the Welkin Academy and lost her status.

“Don’t worry. I’m here for you. Even if the sky falls, I’ll hold it up for you.”

With a nonchalant expression, James said, “Just because we don’t cause trouble doesn’t mean we’re afraid of trouble.”

“Huff,” Melany sighed helplessly.

She knew James was determined to avenge her, so it was useless to dissuade him, as she could not convince him no matter what she said.

“Let’s set things straight first, James. If the situation gets out of hand, please don’t act tough. I don’t want to drag you down.”

“It’ll be fine!” James gave Melany a big grin and pulled her away.

As they left the ordinary disciple’s accommodation, James learned about the person who had robbed Melany and the others.

His name was Yitzchok Griffin, and he was the younger brother of the United Alliance’s deputy leader.

“From what I know, Yitzchok is domineering and frequently bullies ordinary disciples by relying on his connection with the United Alliance. His leader is the United Alliance’s deputy leader, Hayden Salvatore. Hayden is at the Immortal Ascension’s Eight Stair and is also Elder Waheed’s disciple.”

James said solemnly, “Today, I’ll get an explanation out of Yitzchok. Otherwise, I’ll destroy the United Alliance.”

Soon, the two came to the mountain where the United Alliance was located.

The Welkin Academy was situated within a vast mountain range with many mountains in the area. Many powerhouses of the Welkin Academy occupied a portion of the mountain as their own. The United Alliance also had a mountain as its own base.

A stone tablet could be seen at the mountain foot, with the words “United Alliance” engraved on it.

Before James and Melany could get close, a few disciples wearing robes of the Welkin Academy approached them, barricading their path.

“Which mountain are you from? This is the United Alliance’s base, and not just anyone is allowed entry.”

Apart from the words “Welkin Academy”, their robes also had “United Alliance” embroidered on them.

Being United Alliance members made them superior to other disciples.

Hence, they did not take Melany and James seriously.

James asked calmly, “I’m looking for Yitzchok.”

“Who are you to look for Captain Griffin? Do you think he’s someone you can see as you please?”

James spoke to them peacefully, but they showed him no respect.

He took a deep breath and unleashed his True Energy, causing a powerful wave to knock into the United Alliance’s members. All of them slammed hard into the ground.

“Let me say it one more time. I’m looking for Yitzchok. Ask him to come to see me within ten minutes. Otherwise, I’ll destroy the United Alliance’s base.”

James’ voice resounded.

“Who dares act so presumptuously in our territory?”

A deafening shout filled the air.

Swoosh!

Following the sound, a figure flew over from a distance. The man descended from the sky and landed firmly on the mountain foot.

The United Alliance's members that were blasted away stood up and stood behind the person that showed up.

"Mr. Wilder, these two came to cause trouble."

"I don't recognize them. They must've joined the Welkin Academy recently."

The members of the United Alliance reported what happened.

Lochan Wilder looked at James and Melany

He walked over to them with his hands behind him and said contemptuously, "Don't you know this is the United Alliance's territory?"

James parted his lips and uttered softly, "A minute has passed."

"Presumptuous!" Lochan shouted.

He suddenly unleashed his powerful True Energy, and it materialized in his palm. Then, he swung his hand at James.

Melany, who was standing aside, shrieked, "Ah!!!"

James grabbed her and pulled her behind him. Then, he stood in place like a motionless mountain.

Boom!

The potent palm attack struck him, but he was unscathed. Instead, Lochan was knocked back tens of meters.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2275—Lochan was the United Alliance's Guardian and was a core disciple of the Welkin Academy.

He was relatively strong and had reached the Immortal Ascension's Sixth Stair. He had a very high status in the United Alliance, ranked only below the deputy leader.

Dozens of the United Alliance's members gathered around them.

The scene dumbfounded everyone.

How could Lochan, the United Alliance's Guardian, a cultivator at the Immortal Ascension's Sixth Stair, be knocked away?

Moreover, his opponent was a newcomer that had just joined the Welkin Academy less than Six months ago.

They would have never believed that happened if they had not seen it with their own eyes.

Melany was also stunned. She knew James was strong, but only when compared to the new disciples. However, he had been much weaker than the disciples in the Welkin Academy for a long time. She never expected James' strength to increase so much in under six months.

How had he been cultivating?

Many people gathered around them, but it was dead silent.

Lochan got up from the ground. His face was pale, and blood dripped from the corners of his lips.

He stared at James with a grim expression and asked, "Who the hell are you?"

Lochan knew all the strong disciples in the Welkin Academy, but he had never heard of James before. He was clueless about James' background.

He concluded that James had to be stronger than him to make him vomit blood. James had to be a prominent figure in the Welkin Academy.

James looked at him calmly and replied, "My name is James Caden. I joined the Welkin Academy about six months ago. I'm not here to cause trouble for the United Alliance. However, my friend was robbed by a member of the United Alliance, and I came to ask for an explanation."

As soon as James spoke, the spectators were shocked.

They could roughly guess that James had only just joined Welkin Academy but was still shocked after he confirmed their conjectures,

“Wasn’t it rumored that the disciples recruited this time were leftovers from the Divinity Sect’s selection? I heard the new disciples were weak. How is it possible for someone as strong as him to exist?”

“I know, right?”

“Many other elders blamed Elder Yoan for being too slow, allowing the Divinity Sect to preempt him.”

Some of the spectators began chatting.

James said lightly, “Three minutes have passed.”

Although he spoke very calmly, the United Alliance’s members felt pressured.

Lochan’s brows slightly furrowed. He walked over and wiped the blood off his lips. Looking at James, he said, “Is there some kind of misunderstanding?”

“Misunderstanding?”

James’s face darkened, and he asked, “What kind of misunderstanding can there be?

Immediately notify Yitzchok to come to apologize in person. Otherwise, I’ll flatten the United Alliance’s base today.”

“You Lochan was infuriated, but thinking of James’ strength, he forcibly suppressed his anger

He turned to the other United Alliance members and said, “Go inform Yitzchok.”

“Alright”

A few of the United Alliance’s members hurried away.

Meanwhile, James waited patiently since he was not in a hurry.

The United Alliance was one of the most potent and popular forces within the Welkin Academy. Many of the Welkin Academy’s disciples were interested in joining the United Alliance. However, the requirements to join the United Alliance were very high. Not just anyone could become a member.

Many people stood outside the United Alliance’s territory.

Everyone was shocked when they witnessed James causing trouble in the United Alliance’s territory.

At the same time, the news of James going to the United Alliance, injuring Lochan, and threatening to flatten the United Alliance's base went viral quickly.

Ten minutes passed in the blink of an eye

However, Yitzchok was nowhere to be seen.

James stepped forward and was about to charge into the base.

With a gloomy face, he said, "I've already sent someone to look for him, James. Have a little patience. Don't act recklessly. With your strength, I don't think you're strong enough to make an enemy out of the United Alliance. Our alliance isn't one you can easily destroy.

James replied calmly, "I already warned you I'd destroy the United Alliance if he didn't show up within ten minutes. Time is up, but he's not here. So, don't blame me for taking action." Many disciples had gathered outside the United Alliance's base.

Hearing James' words, they could not help but admire him for his guts.

"He's awesome."

"No one has ever dared to challenge the United Alliance since its establishment."

"His name is James, right? Did he just join the Welkin Academy?"

"How is he so strong?"

"Could it be he's not happy to be an ordinary disciple and wants to cause trouble to get the attention of our elders or even the headmaster so he can become their disciple? Is that why he deliberately came to trouble the United Alliance?"

"No, that's not the case. According to what I've heard, he's standing up for the woman next to him. Her name is Melany. Some time ago, she went to train outside and obtained rare elixirs by luck. However, her elixirs were stolen by Yitzchok from the United Alliance.

"Yitzchok is the subordinate of the United Alliance's deputy leader, Hayden, right? He's that arrogant bully of the academy, right?"

“Yeap, that’s him.”

The spectators around them discussed the situation.

At that moment, many people walked out of the United Alliance’s base.

The group consisted of more than thirty people.

The leader was a man who looked about twenty-five or twenty-six years old. He wore a blue robe with a long sword embroidered on it.

“That’s Hayden.”

“Tsk, tsk. Things are getting interesting.”

“Hayden has shown up. If James can bring him down today, he’ll surely become the star of the Welkin Academy.”

As Hayden’s group showed up, the atmosphere immediately became tense.

Lochan sighed in relief when he saw Hayden, and he quickly walked over with a respectful look. “Hayden.”

Hayden walked over and stood in front of James. He looked at James with his hands behind his back and said indifferently, “You’re in the United Alliance’s territory. Do you not take our alliance seriously? Why are you here causing trouble?”

Faced with Hayden’s accusation, James replied calmly, “I came here to ask for justice. The United Alliance is a powerful force within the Welkin Academy. Many of your members are disciples of the academy’s elders. Among your members, some are the headmaster’s disciples. However, your alliance’s members are bullying newly recruited disciples. Why is this?” “James, that’s him.”

Melany pointed at a man behind Hayden and said, “That’s Yitzchok”

Yitzchok felt slightly guilty when Melany pointed at him, and he shrank back. However, remembering he was within the United Alliance’s territory, he regained his confidence and straightened up.

He stepped forward and glanced at Melany and James disdainfully, saying, “I’m Yitzchok What do you need?”

Melany was slightly nervous when she saw Yitzchok, Hayden, the other United Alliance disciple, and the many spectators. She could not help tugging James’ hand.

She whispered, “L-Let’s forget it, James.”

Seeing Melany’s timid behavior, Yitzchok immediately said arrogantly, “I remember you, Melany. My friends went out with you to train and found rare elixirs. However, you snatched it from them. I simply took it back for him. Am I at fault?”

“Y-You liar!” Melany trembled.

Hayden remained silent for a while but finally spoke again. “Whether it’s the truth or not, we can ask some people to find out.”

Yitzchok parted his lips and said, “Hayden, I’ll go get the person who went to train with her that day.”

After he finished speaking, Yitzchok turned and left.

Hearing this, Melany had a bad feeling and turned to James.

James comforted her, “It’s alright. Let’s wait and see what happens.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2277—James wanted to see what kind of tricks Yitzchok could play

Yitzchok left and came back very soon

This time, he was not alone. There were many people following behind him. They were all young women who joined the Welkin Academy half a month ago.

Seeing them, Melany recognized them as the people who had gone to train with her.

Yitzchok returned with three women They were all covered in injuries, but the severity of their wounds differed.

“Madison, Yamilet, Hana.”

Seeing the three women, Melany walked over and greeted them.

However, they winced away from her as if they had seen a demon and wore wary expressions.

Seeing their reactions, the bad premonition in Melany’s heart grew strong

The three women stood behind Yitzchok

Yitzchok said, "It's alright. You don't have to be scared. I'm here and will give you justice. Now, tell them what happened. There are so many people waiting to hear the story"

A woman stood up and said, "It went like this Back then, we went outside to train together and came across a rare elixir. However, Melany wanted to take it for herself because she had someone backing her up. Of course, we refused, but she attacked and injured us.

"She also threatened us, saying she knew one of the elder's disciples and would hurt us if we didn't give to her

"We were scared, so we gave her the elixir.

"After we returned to the Welkin Academy, Yitzchok took it upon himself to help us and snatched the elixirs back for us.

"Yeah."

"That's what happened."

The three women backed each other's story, pinning the blame on Melany.

Hearing this, Melany trembled with anger.

Melany shouted, "It wasn't like that! That's not what happened! Why are you guys doing this? Yitzchok was the one who injured you guys. Why are you slandering me? Did Yitzchok threaten you? Don't be scared. Tell everyone the truth. James will help us."

Before the three women could say anything, Yitzchok stepped forward and said coldly, "You're the one who threatened them! Everything is pretty clear!"

Then, he turned to the three of them, "Alright. You're not needed here anymore. Go on."

"Understood."

The three women did not dare to stay longer and scurried off.

"So, that's what happened? I really thought Melany was the one being bullied. It turns out she's the one oppressing others. Yitzchok simply helped avenge a few disciples."

"What a shameless person."

“She bullied the newcomers because she had connections with one of the elder’s disciples.”

“Is James that disciple of an elder? Which elder’s disciple is he?”

Discussions began brewing again.

Hearing what the spectators were saying, Melany grew anxious. Her pretty face was nervous as she looked at James, saying, “1-James, it wasn’t me. They’re slandering me. I didn’t do it.”

James gently waved his hand, motioning her to stop talking

At that moment, the United Alliance’s deputy leader, Hayden, stepped forward and looked at James. He said calmly. “The truth is out, James. That woman beside you is the troublemaker. Yitzchok simply lent a helping hand to a few disciples. Yet, you came to cause trouble in the United Alliance and injured many of our members. That’s a little overboard, don’t you think? What do you think we should do?”

Hayden began to criticize James’ actions.

What would the outsiders think of the United Alliance if he did not punish James?

James’ brows furrowed slightly

He never expected the United Alliance’s authority to be so oppressive that some disciples would be scared to tell the truth.

Now, things were working against him.

No one would be on his side if he pursued the conflict with them.

However, it was not important to him.

He did not care if no one wanted to support him. The reason he came was to seek justice for Melany

He wanted to display his strength. Although he would not stay in the Welkin Academy forever, it was different for Melany

Melany would undoubtedly be constantly pestered in the future if he let this matter go today

“Or else what

Hayden’s face darkened, and he said, “The matter is already very clear. That woman beside you tried to take the elixirs for herself and injured the other women

“Haha “ James smiled disdainfully and said, “She injured the other women? Are you kidding me she hasn’t even reached the Herculean Rank, and those women just now are already Herculeans. How could she have taken on the three of them alone?”

Hearing his remark, the spectators were shocked.

“That’s time

“How can someone not even at the Herculean Rank take on three Herculeans? Could it be they really are

At that moment, many people began to stand on James’ side

Meanwhile, Yitzchak panicked and said frantically, “She threatened them that you were backing her up. They knew you’re a disciple of one of our elders, so they didn’t dare to fight back.

“Bullsh*t”

James’ face darkened. He waved his hand, and a powerful force materialized in his palm, forcefully pulling Yitzchok to him

James grabbed Yitzchok’s hair and said grimly, “Melany wasn’t aware that I’m a disciple of one of our elders. Even she didn’t know about it, so you have to be really well-informed to know about it. Moreover, you even conspired with the three of them to slander Melany. Just because you’re a member of the United Alliance, you’ve been doing evil. If I don’t teach you a lesson today, you’ll continue to cause trouble”

He roared and lifted Yitzchok up. Then, James slammed him into the ground.

Yitzchok crashed into the ground and was in pain. Before he could react, James stepped on his chest

“Hayden, save me...”

Yitzchok shouted for help.

Hayden's face darkened, and he said, "Do you really want to make an enemy out of the United Alliance, James

James stepped on Yitzchok and looked at Hayden, who was nearby. With a gloomy face, James replied, "I never wanted to make an enemy out of the United Alliance I simply wanted to help my friend get back what was rightfully hers. If Yitzchok refuses to hand it over, I won't hold back either"

"You're not going to hold back?" asked Hayden.

After his question was asked, James raised his foot and stomped on Yitzchok's foot.

Immediately, Yitzchok's foot was broken.

"Argh!!!" Yitzchok cried out in pain.

The many spectators could not help gasping upon witnessing the scene.

James had to be ruthless and someone not to mess with for him to injure a United Alliance member in front of the alliance's deputy leader.

"What?"

Hayden's voice trembled from anger, and a powerful energy erupted from his body.

"Do you think I won't take action against you?"

Hayden's energy rose to the extreme in an instant.

"What's going on?" Just when he was about to attack, a voice resounded.

Then, a woman wearing a blue dress appeared.

"I-It's Quintina."

"It's the headmaster's disciple. She's the most outstanding disciple who was recruited to the Welkin Academy ten years ago.

Her appearance caused an uproar in the crowd.

James was slightly taken aback after seeing Quintina. When he left, Quintina was still within the Ancient Clan's territory. Surprisingly, she arrived at the Welkin Academy very shortly after him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2279—Quintina was a true prodigy.

She joined the Welkin Academy ten years ago and was accepted as the headmaster's Inner Disciple.

No one knew about her background, not even the Welkin Academy's elders.

The fact that she was a Grand Supernatural was unknown.

However, James knew about her.

As soon as Quintina showed up, it caused a commotion.

All the men's eyes were fixated on her graceful and unparalleled appearance.

She was gorgeous and had an outstanding temperament. She had crystal clear eyes that shone brightly

After witnessing her beauty, the male disciples tensed up and found it hard to breathe.

Hayden retracted his energy upon seeing Quintina. With a smile, he asked, "Ms. Quintina, why are you here?"

Quintina had joined the academy later than Hayden. However, she was the headmaster's disciple. Thus, the disciples of the academy's elders addressed her with respect.

Quintina looked at James, then turned to Hayden, and said calmly, "I was passing by and saw many people gathered here, so I came to check out the situation. What happened?"

Hayden did not hide anything since she was the headmaster's disciple.

He explained the entire incident.

However, he pushed the blame onto Melany and James,

"Ms. Quintina, his name is James Caden. He wanted to take false revenge for Melany and hurt many of our alliance's members. He even injured one of my closest friends. I was about to make him pay for it."

Melany quickly interrupted him. "That's not the truth! You're lying!"

Quintina looked at James and said, "You're in the Welkin Academy. Don't cause trouble."

James smiled faintly and replied, "I'm not causing trouble. I'm just seeking justice for my friend. If he doesn't apologize today, I won't let this matter go."

He calmly raised his hand, and powerful True Energy materialized in his palm. Then, he struck Yitzchok's hand.

"Argh!!!" Yitzchok's desolate screams sounded once again.

Previously, Yitzchok's foot had already been broken. Now, one of his hands was also broken. "You "

Hayden's face darkened, and he clenched his fists tightly. He said coldly, "B*stard, don't be arrogant! Regardless of who shows up today, no one can save you! I'll hurt you just as you've hurt Yitzchok."

His energy erupted again. He leaped forward and appeared right in front of James.

Just when he was about to strike, Quintina moved slightly and stood before Hayden. She asked, "What're you doing, Hayden?"

"Ms. Quintina, you just saw how arrogant this b*stard was. If I don't teach him a lesson, how will the United Alliance gain a foothold in the Welkin Academy?"

Standing behind, James rubbed his palms together and said, "Move, Quintina. Today, I'll destroy the United Alliance's base."

Quintina turned around and rolled her eyes at James, saying, "Don't you think you've caused enough trouble? You've already beaten him up, so just let this matter go. It won't be good for anyone if you insist on prolonging this."

"Fine."

James wanted to help Melany gain a foothold, and his goal had been achieved. He did not really care about the elixirs anyway.

However, Hayden roared, "I'm not going to just let this go! You injured our members at our alliance's base. If word gets out, how will the United Alliance maintain authority?!"

Quintina asked, "Then, what do you want?"

Hayden pointed at James and said, "It's very simple. I want to challenge him. As long as he can take three moves from me, I'll let this go. If he can't take three moves, he will have to kneel here for three days as an apology to the United Alliance."

Hearing this, Quintina turned around and looked at James.
