Chapter 521 James smiled robotically. Stiffly, he stood up, just like a wooden puppet. Step by step, he left Century Hospital. He bought Thea her ranking, making her the laughing stock of Cansington and the medical conference.

He did not care.

He left Medical Street. After he left, he studied his surroundings to make sure that he was not being followed. Then, he called a cab to Common Clinic.

At Common Clinic.

Ronn was there.

He was talking to May in the clinic.

James walked in.

Both of them stood up immediately and said simultaneously, "James." James waved a hand and sat down before saying, "Have you found out who was trying to kill me this morning?"

Ronn nodded. "I've got all the information."

"Tell me."

Ronn said, "These people arrived in Cansington eight days ago. They're mercenaries from the border of the Southern Plains. They're part of the Purgatory Army."

"Oh, the Purgatory Army?"

James narrowed his eyes. Having been at the Southern Plains for 10 years, he was familiar with the Purgatory Army. The Purgatory Army was a band of mercenaries at the border of the Southern Plains.

They were impressive, being one of the top mercenary bands in the whole world. However, he did not know who led the army.

“Did you manage to find out who their leader is?”

Ronn shook his head. “We haven’t managed to discover that yet. However, I managed to find out that someone in the Purgatory Army has made contact with Jonathan Harris.”

“It is him after all.”

James’ expression darkened,

Jonathan was known as the Doctor King, apparently able to cure patients even if they were an inch from death. He was the president of the National Doctor’s Association of Geosenge.

At the very least, James could now ascertain that Jonathan was the Doctor King Willy had mentioned. He was also the mastermind of the battle of Mount Thunder Pass. Then again, who was the real mastermind behind Jonathan?

James could not even begin to guess. Ronn said, “Jonathan’s leading Universal Hospital at the medical conference.” James asked, “Have you investigated everything about Universal Hospital?”

“Yes.” Ronn nodded. “The registrar of Universal Hospital is someone named Lucas Hamilton, He’s a very mysterious person. Fifty years ago, he was known as the God of Medicine. Rumor has it he’s a genius with medicine and could perform miracles.” “Lucas Hamilton?”

James frowned.

Who was this Lucas Hamilton?

Ronn continued, “So far we haven’t gotten any dirt on Lucas yet, but our intelligence tells us that after the Emperor appeared in Cansington, he has had close contact with Lucas.”

James sighed.

Since the Emperor had been in contact with Lucas, one could hypothesize that he had something to do with the battle on Mount Thunder Pass.

Ronn asked, "What should we do now? Should we capture the Purgatory Army?" James waved a hand. "Don't be rash. I want to see what they will do at the medical conference."

"Yes, sir."

Ronn nodded.

James considered it before saying, "Watch Lucas, Jonathan, the Emperor, and the other VIPs from the Capital. I want to know every move they make." "Yes, sir."

James waved a hand. "Alright, that's all. You're free to go."

Ronn turned and left. Only after he left did May ask, "James, is something happening?"

James rubbed his chin, thinking about it. "I can't figure out what they're playing at either. They had the chance to finish me off this morning, but they didn't. They just used Thea to blackmail me. It seemed like all they wanted was for me to not attend the medical conference."

He was thinking about what the mastermind's true purpose was.

Jonathan could be behind all of it, and maybe the Emperor was the true mastermind. It was all very confusing

Chapter 522 It felt like the calm before the storm.

James had a strong feeling that Cansington would be chaos in no time.

All the different armies, political parties, and forces would be gathered there.

"May."

“Yes, James?”

James drummed his fingers on the table, deep in thought. “Is it possible for you to get in touch with any assassins from the Dark Castle?”

May nodded. “I could get in touch with some of them.”

James said, “Get in touch with them now. Say that you’re having trouble in Cansington and require backup.”

James had to recruit some experts.

Assassins from the Dark Castle were a solid choice.

“Got it.”

May obeyed.

She typed out a short message on her phone

“Black Snake, I have failed my mission and blown my cover. I’ve killed the middleman. I’m hiding out in Cansington now, but I’m injured. Please help me escape.”

After she crafted the message, she keyed in a number and sent it out.

James watched as she sent the message, asking, “Who’s Black Snake?”

May said, “An SSS-ranked assassin from the Dark Castle. He’s the best assassin the Dark Castle has trained. He’s ranked third in the world and has never failed any mission.”

“What’s Black Snake like? Can we recruit him?”

“Uh...”

May hesitated,

Based on what she understood about Black Snake, he was not someone easily recruited. He was loyal to the Dark Castle, Besides being an assassin, he was also the deputy leader of the Dark Castle

James looked at her and asked, “What’s going on?”

May hesitated before taking a deep breath “It won’t be easy. Black Snake isn’t just an SSS ranked assassin, but he's the deputy leader as well. Besides the mysterious leader, Black Snake takes care of everything,

"Oh?"

James looked at May

"If he's the deputy, why did you text him? Aren't you afraid the Dark Castle will come after you with all they have?"

May was about to answer when her phone beeped. She looked at it only to discover that it was a string of numbers. James looked at them, asking, "What do they mean?" May explained, "It's a code. Only those from the Dark Castle will be able to decipher it." "What did Black Snake say?" "He said that rules are rules. Since my cover is blown, I should die. And I shouldn't have killed the middleman. However, he will do his best to come to Cansington and help me escape. He even wants to help me cut ties with the Dark Castle and leave the country."

James asked, "Who are you to him?"

May said, "We're both orphans. The Dark Castle bought us. We've been training together since we were kids. As assassins, we should be cold and unfeeling, but we're just like brother and sister."

"Ask him when he can get here."

"Okay."

May replied immediately.

This time, she did not send the message in words, but in odd symbols instead. James could not recognize any of the symbols or numbers, but he memorized them. He would get someone to decipher the code later on. May used to be an assassin. She may be under his employ now, but he was not sure if he could trust her completely. She could very well invite more assassins and create more trouble for him.

Soon, Black Snake replied.

It was a string of numbers.

May said, "Black Snake said that he's busy right now. He needs three days to get to Cansington." "Three days?"

James narrowed his eyes.

It was the most crucial moment of the medical conference after three days.

It was too much of a coincidence to be one.

"May, you must know that if Black Snake comes to Cansington and doesn't follow my orders, he will be dead. If you say you're like siblings, you're bringing him trouble."

James looked at May.

"I know." May looked serious, "I'll persuade him. I believe he's had enough of the dark days anyway, and would love to live out in the open."

"Fine."

James nodded lightly. "Take care of your injuries. Let me know in advance if you have any news."

Chapter 523 After he finished speaking, he left.

He called Ronn after leaving Common Clinic. Ronn showed up immediately. Inside a black multi-purpose vehicle.

James was smoking.

Sir."

James wrote down a bunch of numbers on a piece of paper and passed it to Ronn. "This is a code from the Dark Castle. Find out what it means." "Yes, sir." "Also, keep a close eye on May. I want to know every single person she comes in contact with." "Of course." Ronn nodded and asked, "Is there anything else?" "That's all. You may return."

James disembarked and called a cab home.

At Common Clinic.

May sat on a chair. As an assassin, she was keenly aware of her surroundings.

"Yes, sir."

A large man approached. Black Snake ordered, "Inform the top ten assassins to enter Sol, Cansington." The huge man was stunned. He asked, "What are we doing, sir?" Black Snake stood up and rolled his shoulders. He had a vengeful look on his tattooed face. "We're going dragon hunting."

The large man understood at once. "I'm on it right now." "Spread the word. The Dark Castle is offering a bounty. It doesn't matter if they succeed or not. As long as they show up, they'll be rewarded with ten billion dollars."

"Yes, sir."

He made arrangements immediately. Black Snake smiled sinisterly. "May, did you really think I wouldn't find out that you're working with the Black Dragon now? You're baiting me. If so, I'll play your game. The Black Dragon must die this time."

James did not know that the Dark Castle had sent out 10 of their best assassins.

They were on their way to Cansington to kill him.

James returned to the Callahans'. As soon as he entered, he saw Thea with a stony expression on her face.

Chapter 524 "Why didn't you discuss it with me?"

James sat on the couch after he entered the house. Thea had a cold expression on her face. She scolded, "Is this why you were so confident? You claimed that I would definitely be among the top hundred. Buying my way into it was your solution?"

"Hehe."

James just chuckled.

Thea was furious, yet James was laughing. She almost tore her hair out.

"Tell me honestly. How much money did you spend?"

“Not much.” James did not know at all. Scarlett took care of it. Looking at Thea’s expression, he knew that she was really, really angry.

He tried to explain, “Darling, all I wanted was to make you happy and allow you your moment in the spotlight. How would I know that people would figure it out so easily? They’re too smart nowadays, hehe...” “How much money did you spend?”

Xara hesitated for a moment.

Lend money to James? James owned Transgenerational. He was rich. Why would he ever need to borrow money?

“Ah, yes.”

She recovered from her stupor. “James said you guys were going through a rough patch and needed some money, so I lent him some.”

“How much?”

“Uh...”

Xara was stunned again. What was she supposed to say? "Thea, what's going on? Did James spend it on women and wine?" Xara did not know what to say and was afraid she would blow James' cover, so she started making stories up. "Well, no." Thea sighed. "He-uh-forget it. Just tell me how much he borrowed from you so I know. I'll get a job soon and pay you back." "Is three hundred thousand a lot?"

Xara asked cautiously. "What? Three hundred thousand?"

Thea squeezed James' thigh with all her might after hearing it.

James gritted his teeth. "Xara, I'll pay you back as soon as possible."

Chapter 525 After Thea hung up, she looked at James. Her face looked like it was carved out of stone." James, how dare you. Xara has just started working. You know it's not easy to make money. How could you borrow three hundred thousand dollars from her?"

"It's just three hundred thousand..." James smiled but stopped and shut his mouth when he saw Thea's icy look. He stood up and said, "I'll make lunch."

He went into the kitchen.

Thea looked resigned. She did not know if she wanted to laugh or cry.

James went to the kitchen and put an apron on. He hummed as he began to prepare lunch.

“Mom, no, it’s not like that.”

“How dare you say so? Look at that! You’ve come out on top. Even the real doctors couldn’t keep up with you.” Thea did not know what to say. 1 “I-I’m full. I’ll take a nap now. I have to go into the office later on.” James put down his spoon immediately and got up to leave as well.

“Hold it.”

Gladys said, “Who’s going to clean up if you take a nap?” “I’ll clean up before I go.” James got up and took a small stool to the balcony. He started smoking there.

He could still hear arguments from inside the house.

James did not know what to say. Was it worth it to argue over a few million dollars?

If they knew just how much money he had, what would they do? James smiled slightly. He had not even finished his cigarette before someone pulled his ear. He stood, following the pull. In a panic, he shouted, “Darling, ouch! It hurts!”

Thea’s expression was thunderous. “How dare you lie to me, James! You spent millions on this and hid it from me. Who am I to you?”

Chapter 526 James knew that Thea would get mad.

“Darling, let me explain.”

“What else is there to explain? Why don’t you buy a house if you’ve got millions? Do you want to live with my parents for the rest of your life? James, what else more do I have to say about you?”

“I-I didn’t spend that much. Don’t listen to their nonsense. The truth is I sought out a hacker and hacked the Doctor App to modify the data secretly.”

“Are you seriously still trying to lie to me? Do you take me for a fool?”

“Okay, I’ll confess. I did spend some money. I spent a few million, but what is a few million? You’re priceless to me. No matter how much I spend on you, it makes me happy.”

“Where did the money come from?” Thea asked aggressively.

“My own,” James said while giggling.

“Stop laughing. Be serious.”

James immediately went silent.

“Sure.”

After agreeing to meet Quincy, Thea dressed up and headed out.

Soon, she arrived at the place agreed with Quincy.

The two entered the mall hand in hand. “Thea, how did you and James meet? Tell me about it,” Quincy inquired.

“Me and James?” Thea was taken aback by the question. She shook her head and answered, “There’s not much to it.” “Tell me, tell me.” Quincy shook Thea’s arm.

“Fine.”

Thea explained helplessly. “My grandfather recruited a husband for me. James came to apply for it and was selected by my grandfather. Thus, I married him.”

“That’s it?” Quincy was surprised.

“Yeah, that’s it.”

Quincy frowned and thought to herself for a while. Then, she asked again, “By the way, do you sense anything special about him?” “Huh?”

“What do you mean by special?” Thea looked at Quincy and asked. “N-Nothing.”

Quincy did not ask any more questions,

‘It seems Thea isn’t aware of James’ identity. Thea is his wife, so why is he hiding it from her?’ thought Quincy.

Chapter 527 “James hid it very well, and it took me so long to discover his identity as the secret boss of Transgenerational Group. ‘Transgenerational New City is worth trillions of dollars.

The top ten assassins are all SSS ranked assassins. They are incredibly skilled and capable in assassinations.” James understood the strength of SSS-ranked assassins. May was one of those SSS-ranked assassins. Her skills surpassed even the

As long as these assassins knew their boundaries and did not touch Thea, killing whoever came at him would be easy.

However, James did not intend to kill all of them. He wanted to recruit them, and if possible, he planned to subdue the Dark Castle.

“May...” he called out.

May walked in, stood aside, and replied, “James.” “Do you know that the top ten assassins were dispatched?” May nodded. There was a dark web that existed in the underworld. One a few people had access to the dark web.

She had entered the dark web and already knew about the news. She was about to tell James, but he had already learned of it.

May said seriously, “The top ten assassins are not weaker than me.”

“What are you ranked?”

“Eighth.”

“Alright.” He knew May’s strength, and it was reasonable for her to be ranked eighth. He glanced at May and said, “There is going to be a fierce battle in Mount Five Vallet tonight. You might be in a dangerous situation. Are you sure about your decision?”

“I owe my life to you. It is an honor to help you, even if it costs my life,” May said firmly. “Alright. Be prepared.”

James, Ronald, May, and the others got together and started to discuss their action plan for the night.

Chapter 528 After discussing for more than an hour, they finally finalized their plan. The only thing that James was still worried about was Thea. Although May reassured him that although the assassins were cold-blooded and ruthless, they had professional ethics -killing only those that the employers wanted dead and never involving innocent people.

Major assassin organizations would blacklist those who involve innocent people while carrying out their jobs.

However, this time it was not a simple case.

It was possible that a killer would attempt to harm Thea for the sake of money. "Ronald."

"I'm listening, James." "Send a hundred people to protect Thea in secret. I don't want anything to happen to my wife during today's act."

"Understood."

Ronald immediately went to pass on the order. At the same time, Quincy and Thea were exhausted after walking around for the whole afternoon. They chose a well-decorated hot pot restaurant in Cansington to dine at and enjoy their food.

“Quincy.”

Suddenly, a voice sounded,

Quincy turned around and saw a man walking toward her.

The man appeared to be 25 or 26 years old. He was a decent-looking man dressed in a white suit with delicate facial features,

“Caleb?”

Quincy was taken aback for a moment but quickly recognized the man. “Y-You’re Caleb Freeman?”

The man smiled, “I thought you wouldn’t recognize me anymore. I haven’t seen you in so many years. I didn’t know you returned to Cansington.”

Chapter 529 “And who might this gorgeous woman be?” Caleb inquired. “This is my best friend, Thea,” Quincy introduced.

Thea smiled at him.

Caleb praised, “You sure do live up to your name. Would you mind if I joined you two for dinner?”

“Sure, have a seat.”

Quincy smiled and introduced the man, “Thea, this is Caleb. When I was a child, we lived in the same neighborhood. We haven’t seen each other for many years. “Nice to meet you. My name is Thea,” Thea briefly introduced herself. Caleb also greeted with a smile.

At the table not far away, several men were also at a table eating hot pot. They began to be on guard when a stranger approached Thea. They all sighed in relief after realizing it was an acquaintance of Quincy.

These men were soldiers of the Black Dragon Army sent by James to protect Thea secretly.

As long as Thea was not in danger, they were not to reveal themselves. They finished their meal in no time.

and soon reached the Nine Dragons Tunnel. As soon as he entered the tunnel, a large truck came, directly across the middle of the road, blocking the car behind him.

The people following behind Thea realized the situation and anxiously called Ronald. "Ronald, we've got a problem. Thea got taken away, and we got blocked off at the Nine Dragons Tunnel.

When Ronald received the call, his expression immediately changed, and he shouted, "Whatever happens, ensure the safety of Thea! You will all be punished with military law if anything happens to her!" After reprimanding the team, Ronald took out another phone and dialed another number.

"Activate the intelligence network immediately. Thea has been kidnapped, and her last known location is the Nine Dragons Tunnel. Immediately investigate it and track Thea's phone."

James, who was beside him, overheard both calls.

After giving instructions, Ronald hung up and turned to James with a stern expression.

"James, T-Thea was kidnapped," said Ronald. "How did she get kidnapped with one hundred Black Dragon Army soldiers protecting her? What are they doing?" James reprimanded. At this moment, the whole process of Thea getting in the vehicle was reported to Ronald. Ronald quickly repeated the story to James,

"Five minutes, Get me her location." James wore a terrifying expression.

Chapter 530 The Nine Dragons Tunnel was more than ten kilometers in length, and the journey took ten minutes.

There were several cars parked within the tunnel.

They were a few black vehicles with fake number plates.

Caleb quickly approached and stopped in front of one of the black vehicles.

He got out of the car immediately.

Several men dressed in black also got out of the black vehicles. These people opened the BMW and carried the two women into the black vehicles.

The Black Snake also got out.

“Black Snake.” Caleb walked to him.

The Black Snake waved his hand. “It isn’t safe for you to stay in Cansington for now. You should leave immediately. I’ve already bought you a villa in Arshenton, and there are tens of millions of cash in the safe there. It’s enough for you to get by for a while.” “Thank you!” Caleb promptly thanked him. He abandoned the BMW, got into another car, and quickly left the scene. The Black Snake also got into a car and instructed the driver, “Go.”

A few minutes after they left, more than a dozen cars rushed into the tunnel.

At the same time, helicopters were also dispatched. After the Black Snake transferred Thea and Quincy to another vehicle, they quickly drove out of the Nine Dragons Tunnel

There was a rare sternness on the Black Dragon’s face.

This plan was an impulsive one.

Cansington was the Capital of Medicine and now was the annual medical conference festival. This place was also the headquarters of the Five Armies.
