Chapter 801

Since James was being closely watched by the Emperor's men, he could only rely on Tiara to contact the others. He was worried that something would happen to her, so he reminded her to be on her guard.

Tiara smiled sweetly. "It's gonna be fine. They would have made a move against me a long time ago if they wanted to. Besides,

I'm just someone you hired. They have no reason to target me."

"Anyway, be careful. The Emperor will surely act now that the research data has been stolen. He'll be watching my every move closely, and possibly even yours."

"Don't worry, I'll be on my guard. I'll call you if anything happens. Please leave the kitchen now. I have to do my dishes."

"Got it."

James turned to leave. However, he did not go upstairs but instead remain in the living room.

After tidying up the kitchen, Tiara walked out with a trash bag.

"I'll be on my way, James."

““Alright, be careful!”

Tiara smiled sweetly and left. James only headed upstairs after she was gone.

Thea was sitting in front of the computer screen reading Eternality’s statement of information.

James walked over to her. Seeing that she was preoccupied with work, he reminded her, Don’t overexert yourself. You still have Gu venom in your body.”

“Got it.” Thea turned her head and smiled at James. James did not say much and immediately headed over to the bed. He sat cross-legged on it and began his meditation.

Meanwhile, Tiara left the house with the trash bag in hand. After getting rid of the trash, she called for a taxi and headed to Herbal Biotech on Medical Street.

In an office at Herbal Biotech...

Dr. Fallon greeted her, “Come, have a seat.”

Tiara sat down and asked, “Any results?”

“Yes.” Jay nodded.

His underground intelligence network was spread all over Sol. Getting his hands on this information was but a piece of cake.

He pulled out a document and handed it to Tiara.

“Everything James want is in this document. Just give it to him.”

“Thank you.”

Tiara did not linger. However, before she left Herbal Biotech, she went to the front desk and bought some medicine.

After all, she had been following James for quite some time now. Under his guidance, her counter-reconnaissance and anti-tracking skills improved tremendously.

She knew it was highly likely that she was being watched, so she bought a handful of medicine to deceive her enemy.

On the road outside Herbal Biotech...

A black sedan was parked there. Five men were sitting inside the car.

One of them asked, “Nasir, I understand why we’re watching James, but why are we stalking this woman? Is there a point to this?”

“These are Scar’s orders. Just listen to what I say.”

“In my opinion, we should just abduct her. Once we interrogate her, she’ll definitely spill the beans. There’s no need for us to be wasting time here.”

“Aja is right. We should just abduct her.”

“Nasir, we’ll abduct the girl and interrogate her. If we manage to get some information out of her, we’ll be greatly rewarded.

Besides, she's got the looks. We can even enjoy ourselves."

'They were happily chit-chatting away.

Nasir had been feeling miserable for the past few days. His 'colleagues' were all busy hooking up with beautiful models.

Meanwhile, he and his gang had been watching some guy for half a month.

After thinking for a brief moment, Nasir gave the order. "Let's do this."

At that moment, Tiara walked out of Herbal Biotech. She was carrying a plastic bag in her hand. Inside it were some medicine and the information Jay had prepared for her.

Tiara stood by the side of the road and called for a taxi. The moment the taxi left, the black sedan followed close behind. Before the taxi could leave Medical Street, the black sedan sped up at a junction and rammed into it.

Bang!

The force was so great that even the taxi's bumper was completely deformed. The taxi immediately stopped, and the taxi driver got out of the car to hit the window of the black sedan.

"What the hell is wrong with you?"

The men in the black sedan got off the car and beat the taxi driver to a pulp. The driver collapsed to the ground, groaning in pain.

Since Tiara was sitting in the backseat, her head slammed against the front seat at the moment of the impact. Her forehead was bruised, and blood trickled down her face.
