

Almighty DG 832

Chapter 832

“What’s the plan?” May asked.

“After everything that has happened, I feel like a pawn that is constantly being controlled,” James explained. “It’s not a good feeling. I feel like I could die at any time. I don’t think should return to the Southern Plains anymore.”

“Hm?”

They furrowed their brows.

He continued, “You’re all capable and strong. Your mastery of martial arts has reached the pinnacle of External Martial Arts, and you’re only a few steps away from cultivating True Energy and becoming grandmasters. I’ll impart the Internal Cultivation Method to you later on.”

Everyone rejoiced upon hearing his words.

They had already heard about the Internal Cultivation Method from Blake.

The Elite Eight was very powerful indeed, but in comparison to the Grandmasters of the Internal Cultivation Method, they were far too weak. The disparity was comparable to that of a child versus an adult.

“I’m not sure which of the bigwigs in the Capital caused this change or what they’re scheming, but I need to give myself a way out. After you’ve separated from the Black Dragon Army and left the Southern Plains, establish a new force.”

intently to back with James. Besides that, they were also grateful to him for supporting them and recognizing

James, they would all still and set up the Dragon Palace. Establish own force. Then,

deliberated

mingling with the bigwigs, they could easily lose their life. That still applied to in Sol. He simply had not been inside the borders before to meet them and was unqualified to interact with

we carry out the plan?” inquired one of

Except for Sol, every country around the world is in disarray. Some are even constantly at war on their

looked around at the eight people in front had been observing them for some time now. They were all extremely powerful. However, when it came to leadership abilities, Wave Dragon stood out the most. He was somewhat lecherous, boastful, and liked to exaggerate, he always made decisions with the best interests to back down from each other when a disagreement arises, there might be serious consequences when it happens. That's why you'll need a person in charge. Wave Dragon, you'll be

"No."

King, you're thinking too highly of me. I'm just an old fart. I wouldn't be able to handle