

Almighty DG 863

Chapter 863

James found himself unable to sleep.

He had been repeatedly going through the events that had taken place.

He no longer had a handle on the situation. He had no idea what the King or the other forces that were backing the Emperor were plotting.

The God-King Palace only served to complicate things even further. What were they aiming for?

The night passed silently.

The next day..

The Caden residence bustled with its numerous visitors.

Mr. Lee and the King were the first to arrive.

They were here with a single objective in mind-to ascertain last night's events and what the Cadens' position was on the matter.

Opting to not waste any time with useless mental chess, Tobias simply told the truth of what had happened-James was left at the front door of the Cadens.

Mr. Lee wrinkled his nose at Tobias' explanation.

to deceive him or

they departed, Mr. Gabriel

Johnstons and the other two families of the Ancient Four. All of them were here to ask about last night's to them remained unchanged. He plainly stated that the Cadens

noon, the guests

fall asleep as the sun's rays breached

he stirred was the appetizing aroma of direction the scent came from, he saw Maxine seated you some porridge. Eat up and get much better. Getting up was still extremely difficult for him but he somehow managed opened his mouth to

else could it be? Many powerful figures were here to question grandpa about the events last night.

However,

"Huh?"

on his face. Then, he ceiling in mild irritation. "I thought that the Dragon King would be able to against you. You're the one they can get out of this stalemate is by taking action against this, James gripped the rails of he
why he ordered the Elite Eight to establish the Dragon Palace