

Almighty DG 865

Chapter 865

James had heard of the painting's origins before.

However, he scarcely knew anything about it

He sat motionlessly in the wheelchair and looked at the painting in awe Tobias, whose gaze was also fixed on the painting, continued. "This painting was passed down by the Prince of Orchid himself. He was a prince who failed to seize power for himself in the midst of a power struggle In order to make a comeback. he went to great lengths searching for treasures all over the world Sadly, he went to his grave unable to seize the imperial throne for himself. On his deathbed. he gave each of his four major officials a painting and told them that the paintings held a great secret within."

James asked in response to the revelation, "What kind of secret?"

Bobby Caden once told him that the Moonlit Flowers on Cliffside's Edge possessed the secret to immortality. However, James found it hard to believe his words

Tobias shook his head morosely "The Prince of Orchid never revealed what it was. and the ancestor of the Cadens had no idea either. It was only when the four major officials were sorting through the Prince of Orchid's belongings that they realized something strange. The four paintings that the Prince of Orchid left behind should possess his self-taught martial arts teachings. It's possible to reach the ninth rank if one perfected the Prince of Orchid's martial arts."

"The ninth rank...~

Tobias let out a disappointed sigh

"Since times of old, countless martial artists have devoted their lives in pursuit of reaching the ninth rank. However, there have been no records of anyone actually achieving that vaunted goal."

line formed on James' brows and he

the ninth rank

jaw went

our knowledge, no one has ever is the only person who managed to accomplish such a feat.

simply based in myth. What's real is that once you reach the ninth rank, you'll possess unrivaled strength throughout the world. This a deep

"After the four major officials divided the have lived peaceful lives. However the trespassing of the ancient tomb Tobias curiously. "The Ancient Four were the ones who found the ancient tomb.

the Ancient Four knew nothing about this as they never concerned themselves with the affairs of the outside world. It was only recently that someone informed not one of any of the Ancient Four, who else could it who else would have knowledge of the ancient tomb of the towards the ceiling.

was lost

for this was a sealed box that had no key. With the box in hand, Floyd made his way to Cansington and hid it in Sovereign Antique that, Sovereign Antique Shop seemed to have anticipated the Emperor know that someone had broken into the ancient