

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 915

Maxine stated her analysis of the situation.

However, her assumptions could only be possible under the assumption that Thomas was alive and the person who took Tiara.

Many things would change if the person who took Tiara were an imposter. Her analysis would not be tenable, and it could be easily overturned.

“Cut to the chase. What do you suggest | do right now?”

Maxine explained, “Tiara wouldn’t be in danger if the person who took her was Thomas. I believe that he is planning to take action very soon. This time, he intends to unleash great chaos involving the Ancient Four and major Capital forces. What you have to do is quickly improve your strength. You will have to at least enter the fifth rank before you’ll have the ability to make a difference. Otherwise, you’re going to be led by the nose.”

James calmed down and carefully analyzed the situation.

The masked woman dressed in black at the Capital was undoubtedly Thea. The fake Maxine, who rescued him from the Johnstons, must also be her.

indeed incapable of doing anything in his current state. The only thing he could do was to increase his strength as much as possible within current situation is chaotic, you’ve regulated your body’s meridians. The only thing left for you to do is cultivate your True Energy again.

to flow continuously without obstruction. Consequently, he would improve at a rapid speed. With just a few months of cultivation, he would surpass martial artists “Mhm.” James nodded.

the only thing he could do was to improve doing their best to track down the person suspected to at Cynthia’s villa the whole day, waiting for updates from waiting for the whole day, he still had not received any news. Impatient, James made a phone call to we haven’t traced them down yet. The person in the surveillance footage is nowhere to be found. Moreover, the vehicle Tiara got on is untraceable. It’s as if it had disappeared into thin air. It vanished after leaving king’s voice sounded from

“Alright, thanks.”

up the phone and called Jay. However,

Jay’s underground intelligence network could not find the origin

news, James started