

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 938

Cynthia was still in Cansington. He needed to absorb the Cold Energy from her body to cultivate his True Energy.

"I'm not going to the Capital for the time being. I have to return to Cansington first," he said. Tobias gave him a quick glance and nodded, saying, "Be careful, then."

After saying that, he leaped, covering a few dozen meters.

In a matter of seconds, he was already a few hundred meters away.

"Let's go too," said Maxine.

"Not yet," said Thea.

"Ja...Honey, Grandfather came here to search for the Sacred Fire Fig. He found it eventually, but the Gu Devil showed up before he could collect it."

"Forget about it. Let's go back. The Gu Devil hasn't left yet. If we stick around, he might come back. Grandpa had already left and we stand no chance against him."

"Oh, that's right..."

James pondered and asked, "What is Tobias' rank? Why did the Gu Devil run away so quickly when he saw him?"

"I don't know that," Maxine said, shaking her head.

public. Since a few decades ago, he's rarely engaged in hand-to-hand combat. His level, however, is James looked astonished.

That's

a century. According to speculation, the Grand Patriarch of the Caden family has attained the eighth rank, at the very least. Even if they haven't achieved it, they would still be at the pinnacle of the seventh rank. The

that the only people who ever attained the eighth rank throughout history were the major officials of the Prince of Orchid Mountain, who were the ancestors of the Ancient been passed down from previous generations in the East due to the development of lost, and as a result, they are rarely found in circulation. Gloom is a reminded him, "James, don't be fooled by the fact that true powerhouse is

make a move, the destruction they can cause was intrigued. He could not help but ask, "You grew up in the Cadens' mansion, so you'd not sure," Maxine said,

or there could

had

very top of the seventh rank, but she was uncertain as to whether they had advanced to have been terrified of the Cadens. I'm sure they've already fled," said the Sacred Fire Fig. He went to such while holding on a glance at Thea and asked, "Where is the Sacred Fire