

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 939

James was also relieved that Thea had acquired third-rank Internal Energy.

Now, he could finally relax and stop worrying about her getting into trouble.

Instead of responding to Thea, he turned around and stared at the cavern's entrance nearby.

Thea was tactful and stood by quietly without asking any further.

"Haa..."

James sighed deeply in resignation.

When the man thought to be his grandfather showed up, he was both ecstatic and concerned. He was ecstatic because his grandfather was still alive.

In contrast, he was concerned that his grandfather was, as Tobias and Maxine had described him, a vile and unforgivable devil.

James wished he could find his grandfather and learn the truth from him. He wanted to hear from him directly that he was not who they claimed he was.

bottomless abyss only saw him fall, James was powerless

Grandfather wanted you to live a good life and didn't want you to be involved in any sort of conflict. Nevertheless, you were already caught up in it, so he racked his brain and did everything he could a new life here. His cultivation base was also removed, but he refused to give up. Instead, he concentrated his studies on medical skills in order to find ways to regain was because he knew that the internal conflict in the family hadn't come to an end. He was aware that the Cadens would contact him consumed by flames. Grandfather only managed to get that, he went into hiding and built the showed himself, he would

"Did Grandfather tell you about what a little," Thea said, nodding

"I'm listening."

a rock. He had always been curious about the events of thirty years ago, and even more so about moment to think back as she stood in front of patriarch.He was gifted in martial arts, but the martial arts he practiced were not the ones passed down through the Caden family.Instead, it was a cultivation method his mind and became violent.He attacked people at the Caden residence, killing many members of the Caden family.Finally, the Grand Patriarch of the Caden family stepped forward to subdue him and they expelled him from the