

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 940

James had heard about these events from Blake. He also knew that the Gu Sect had been exterminated by the King of Sol at that time with the aid of some martial artists.

This was, however, quite typical.

Since ancient times, the people who had made significant contributions to the country would be killed when a new dynasty and king rose to power.

James was fairly certain after hearing Thea speak that his grandfather was not a vile and unforgivable devil. He was simply labeled as evil because the martial arts he was learning were unconventional. He was also ambushed, which caused his Energy to deviate, and that was when mistakes were made.

The two continued to talk about a lot of things.

Maxine soon made her way back. She returned carrying a few red fruits, which were not particularly large.

They were about the size of a fist, red, and resembled a ball of raging flames.

"James, this is the Sacred Fire Fig. There were only four on the tree, and I brought them all back. Four of these would be sufficient to transform your True Energy into one of pure and extreme Yang energy."

on Maxine's pretty face when she handed the took them and examined them in the touch, there was nothing of studying them, he opened his backpack and placed hasn't appeared in a while.Perhaps there are of exits.The cavern's interior stretches in all directions, and there are also exits behind the mountain.He might have already fled," Thea

to earlier because he was worried that the long time had passed and the Gu Devil had they had bottomless pit, so he could not possibly feel at his grandfather was dead, he would still need to find him and bring his body back to Cansington so that not even Grandpa managed to go down into the pit.How asked, her

it is,