

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 961

Madelyn did not feel threatened by James. She would have killed him the moment she arrived in Cansington if not for the Candens' declaration that they were protecting James and would make enemies of anyone who harmed him.

In order to deal with James and ensure that their plans were executed smoothly, she sought the help of a disciple from the Medical Valley.

In terms of medical skills, the Medical Valley was second to none.

However, they had always operated in secrecy and not many outsiders knew of their existence.

James would never win against the Medical Valley disciple.

"Okay, you're dismissed."

Madelyn waved her attendant away.

"Alright."

The young man nodded respectfully and left the room.

Medical Street.

In front of Century Hospital.

A large crowd had gathered in front of the hospital.

Doctors from Medical Street, onlookers, and even media reporters were present to broadcast the event.

Jonathan and his group were not in a hurry.

waited for James

the same time, they were also waiting for Medical Valley's disciple have heard of Medical Valley, but Jonathan was intimately familiar with both disciples in Medical

a disservice to the actual disciples that worked for that collected medical herbs

their lowly stations, they were able to learn countless impressive medical went up against

help of Medical

James' medical skills were unmatched, he would

Time passed by slowly.

the blink of an eye, more than half an hour elapsed but James was still at Century Hospital began to worry among

with troubled expressions,

phone number and asked, "Honey, where are you? Why aren't and it's causing a really bad traffic jam. I don't think it's clear responded through the

"Hurry!"

Thea pleaded anxiously.

"Yes, I'm trying."

speaking, he hung

and tried to calm them

he is on his way.He got caught in traffic.He just needs some more hearing Thea's reassurance, everyone sighed in