

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 969

Madelyn had found Thea and called out to her.

The moment Thea turned around, Madelyn swiftly struck out with her palm.

Taken by surprise by the sudden attack, Thea quickly channeled her True Energy into her palms to defend herself.

Their palms collided.

An intense force swept toward Madelyn, pushing her several meters away. Her pretty face turned pale, and her arms felt rubbery. She hid her hands behind her back and stared at Thea.

After a few seconds, she chuckled and walked over with a smile.

"Wow, Thea. You've certainly surpassed my expectations."

Thea's face tensed up as she on as Madelyn approached her. She squinted her eyes.

"Who are you?"

Madelyn said with a beguiling smile, "I'm from the Cadens. My name is Madelyn Caden. I heard Maxine speak of you before. She said you were a beauty who managed to become a grandmaster in a very short amount of time. I didn't believe her and came to have a look for myself.

Seeing you in person, you're way better than she had described."

Hearing that she was a Caden, Thea let out a relieved sigh.

Despite this, she still kept her guard up against Madelyn since she had mentioned Maxine's name.

Thea held some distaste towards Maxine Caden.

you need something from

"No."

smile never how an ordinary person like you became a grandmaster so quickly. I asked Maxine about it, but she didn't disclose anything to none of your

hastened her

"Interesting."

figure as she left, and a sly smile formed on her face. Thea returned to the Callahans' villa and reclined on the soft sofa. She closed her appearance did not arouse her suspicion was more concerned about whether to return Quincy to Cansington. She did subject of

Corporation, she found James and Quincy almost practically naked as they passionately locked lips with a physical line with each

Yet Quincy...

with envy as

she knew the current situation was asking for Quincy back so he could have another woman by his knew she could

stuck between a

be a hero that saved

all Thea wanted was for him to stay by her

"Huff."

sighed and

over it, she decided notify Thomas since he was the one who