

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 972

After bidding farewell, Blake hurried off.

James picked his phone up to call Thea. He wanted to confirm Quincy's arrival.

As soon as he raised his phone, Thea called. He answered the phone.

"Honey, are you coming home today?"

"No. I'm going to Cynthia's place since my medical book is there. I have to practice the Invincible Body Siddhi technique."

"I'll come to you, then."

Thea did not say anything more and hung up the phone.

James wanted to ask about Quincy, but Thea had already ended the call. He decided to wait till they met at Cynthia's house to ask about it. He left the company and went straight to Cynthia's house.

When he arrived, he found Thea chatting with Cynthia. Thea stood up upon seeing James. She pulled him close and said, "Honey, I've decided to train in the military region for a while."

James frowned and said, "Didn't I tell you not to? You won't be able to endure the training."

"I can do it," Thea said with resolution.

"Fine."

James thought for a while and decided not to stop her. He said, "I'll be going to the military region tomorrow morning. We can go together. By the way, when is Quincy coming back?"
