

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 984

"Ugh!"

James spat out a mouthful of blood.

Then, his body flew more than ten meters back before crashing to the ground.

"James!"

Maxine rushed over.

As soon as James fell to the ground, he got up and sat in a lotus position, circulating his energy and suppressing the Blood Energy in his body.

Seeing that James was able to get up, Maxine sighed in relief.

She quickly reminded him, "James, forget it. They're not using their full strength against you. He only used about seventy percent. You can't take a blow of full strength from them."

James waved his hand.

"I have to take it, even if I can't. I brought these people here and must bring them back safely."

He then looked at Madelyn in the distance and asked, "Can I heal for a while?"

"Sure,"

Madelyn replied.

At the same time, she carefully observed James. She was wondering how James could withstand the attacks of the Four Guardians.
