Chapter 985

“You...” Maxine was furious.

“Now!” Madelyn ordered.

The Four Guardians acted swiftly.

Before Maxine could react, they had tapped her acupoints and sealed her True Energy, rendering her paralyzed.

Madelyn smirked and said, “Maxine, you should know that Mr. Gabriel hated people getting in the way of his plans. He doesn't want the Cadens to get help from anyone.”

Maxine could not move her body. She glared at Madelyn and asked, “Isn't he your teacher? Why are you calling him Mr. Gabriel?”

“Hehe,” Madelyn giggled.

She did not explain herself and simply waved to the Four Guardians beside her.

The four nodded and quickly left.

On the mountain, the campfires were still burning.

Two naked figures were lying on the ground.

The man was on the bottom while the woman was lying on top of him. Both had no clothes on, and their positions were incredibly intimate.

Maxine could feel James' lips against her cheek, and her face blushed red. She wanted to stand up but could not move a muscle.

James was unable to move as well. He could only keep embracing Maxine. He could feel the warmth of Maxine's body.

Both of them were embarrassed by the situation and remained silent.

A sense of awkwardness filled the atmosphere.

With the current situation, James was unsure of what to do.

After sobbing for a while, Maxine calmed down. She wore a perplexed expression as she sat pensively.

“What are you thinking about?” Seeing that she was in deep thought, James’ curiosity was piqued.

“It's kind of weird,” Maxine murmured.

“Huh?” James was puzzled.

Maxine said softly, “Grandpa knew that Madelyn would appear in Mount White. At first, he asked me not to interfere because he knew that she wouldn't kill you. He knew your life would not be in danger, but eventually, he allowed me to come to look for you.”

James looked at Maxine and asked, “What's weird about that? Didn't you say he asked you to bring me the martial art manuals?”

On the outside, she had infinite glory. However, in reality, she had no status in the family and was simply a tool to be used.

James asked, “Then, what should we do now?”

Maxine sighed. "I'm afraid Grandpa sent me to protect you because he knew you didn't fully trust the Cadens. He wanted to use me to make you feel welcomed among the Cadens. That's why he allowed me to come hoping that something would happen between us. At the same time, he'll stay in contact with the Blithes. Even if Madelyn spreads the pictures, he'll still try to make the marriage happen. And, if it doesn't happen, he'll think of something to cause a grievance between the Blithes and Mr. Gabriel."

James listened carefully.

Although these were just Maxine's guesses, they made complete sense.

"Don't worry. I'll take things one step at a time." Maxine hugged her knees and propped her chin on them, speaking softly.

After thinking for a while, she felt that her situation was not too bad. At least she was still valuable to Tobias. He would not give up on her so soon. She looked up at James and said, "If I have to choose between the Blithes and you, I'll choose the latter."

Maxine was deep in thought while James was sewing her clothes.

Amid her thoughts, she failed to notice James turning around.

James had already been staring at her for a while before she regained her senses.

James swallowed his saliva and said, "I-I'm done."

Maxine immediately took the clothes and quickly turned around, exposing her smooth back to James.

The sight of her butt immediately caught James' attention. It was incredibly voluminous. He took a deep breath and forcibly suppressed his lustful desires.

Maxine quickly got dressed.

After James calmed down, he picked up his clothes and inspected them. They could still be worn if he mended them.

The night was long, and time passed by slowly.

James took out the martial art manuals brought by Maxine and began to read them.

Tobias had copied them from the Cadens' library for him. There were three sets of martial techniques in total.

The first one was called Flurry Steps; The second was Dominating Fist; The third was Cyclone Punch.

James began to read the manuals attentively.

Maxine opened her eyes when she realized James had not spoken for some time. She saw him reading the manuals and asked,

“Which manuals did Grandpa give you?”

James returned to his senses and said, “I only briefly went through them. There are three martial art techniques. One is Flurry Steps, another Dominating Fist, and the last Cyclone Punch.”
