

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 36

Jayda's POV

Maddox and I have been home for about a week and we have never been better.

We have had some little arguments but nothing too bad.

I had completely avoided my dad, I needed time to figure out how I would handle the whole situation, I wanted to confront him about not telling me about Jayson but I just didn't know how to do it without ending up crying.

I have texted with Ian and he has told me that his mate still isn't falling for him. Poor him, he will have a hard time getting her to fall for him. She is really hard headed.

Now that I am done recapping everything that has happened, I am going to tell you the problem at hand.

I want Maddox.

I can't control myself, well I can because I have been controlling myself but I don't want to anymore.

I just want to rip his clothes off and have my wicked way with him. Now, Maddox either has an amazing self control or I am not sexy enough for him because not once has he mentioned sex.

We just haven't talked about it. We have talked about many things but sex is not one of them.

I mean its not like I have to bring it up but well... I am a girl, I shouldn't be the one to bring sex up.

Right at this moment I was laying in bed with Maddox, we were both cuddling while watching 'The Wedding Ringer' and instead of thinking how funny Kevin Hart is I was thinking of how hot Maddox looks shirtless.

I try to concentrate on the movie but somehow my eyes drift to Maddox's abs yet again.

I am thirsty as fuck. I swear all I can think about is Maddox's...genitals? Gahh I just made it weird.

Seriously, I wonder what Maddox would say if he could hear what I was thinking. He would surely never look at me the same way.

I start giving myself a pep talk. Today is the day. I will make love with Maddox even if its the last thing I do. I am his mate, its only normal that we do the dirty, so I shouldn't be afraid to ask for it. Right?

Yes!

Okay, Jayda. Do it.

I decide to make a bold move and put my hand on his crotch area.

Maddox instantly tenses and from the corner of my eyes I see him openly stare at where my hand is at.

I act as if nothing is happening and pretend to be watching the movie.

Maddox gulps, then looks at me and coughs. I completely pretend I don't feel his gaze on me and feel his breath quicken. (We are still cuddling) I can feel the tension rolling off of him. He really doesn't know what to do.

I then start feeling a bulge growing under my palm and desire pools in my lower stomach.

Maddox coughs then clears his throat. "I- I umm, I am umm soda" he says quickly unwrapping his arms from around me. His eyes are dark with desire, And I can bet mine are too.

I quickly grab hold of his hand, stopping him from fleeing the room.

"I want to have sex" I say, looking at him straight in the eye.

"You, ummm what?" Maddox asks, looking at me carefully.

"I want to have sex with you" I repeat.

Gulping he answers" Jayda you don't know what you are talking about. You don't need to feel pressured I can and will wait until you are ready"

"Maddox. I am fucking ready! I want this, I need this. I need you" I say not breaking eye contact.

Maddox still looks hesitant so I tug at his hand so he comes back to the bed.

Maddox gently pushes me down on the bed while he straddles me and kisses me softly.

The kiss makes my heart swell, its as if he is putting all of his love for me into that kiss.

He pulls away slightly. "Are you sure?"

Instead of answering I knock my hands on his hair pulling his head down and kissing his aggressively.

He quickly responded with just as much as aggressiveness, my hands pulled some more at his hair before they started roaming around his torso.

Maddox's lips traveled from my lips, down my jaw and to my neck leaving a hot wet trail of pleasure.

I moaned softly making Maddox groan and suck harder on my neck, most likely leaving hickies.

I wrap my legs around Maddox to try and soothe the ache between my legs but when that doesn't work I start grinding on him, trying to get some sort of friction.

"Clothes" Maddox says, his voice full of lust as he slightly pulls away and starts taking of my tank top, after my shirt is off he starts kissing the valley between my breasts before taking off my simple black bra, his eyes never leave mine as he grabs one of my nipples and puts it inside his mouth. I moan loudly at the feeling.

My back arched as pleasure fills me, this feels great, why haven't I done this before?

"You are beautiful Jayda, I love you" Maddox says as he kisses my lips again. His lips go painfully slow from my lips, down my neck and to my nipples again. After he payed attention to my breasts his mouth slides down my stomach.

He slowly pulls my cotton shorts and panties down and kisses my hip bones then kisses down my pubic area that I had thankfully shaved earlier today.

Maddox grabs my legs and spreads them apart, he nips and kisses at my thigh then he goes to my center.

His mouth latches onto my clit making me choke out a gasp.

Damn this feels good.

His tongue moves rapidly around my clit making me scream out in pleasure, I try to clench my legs together because the pleasure is too overwhelming but Maddox keeps them spread as he gives me the most pleasure I've ever had.

"Oh God this feels so fucking good dammit Maddox I don't think I can handle this it just feels so good" I moan out as I pull at His hair.

Maddox gently nips at my clit and That is all it takes to make my body spasm as I come. "Oh yes Maddox I fucking love you" I say loudly, pulling him towards me by the hair and kissing him deeply. Not at all caring that I am technically tasting myself.

I turn us around so that I am on top and straddle his waist. Giving him a cheeky grin I grab the waistband of his grey sweatpants along with his black boxer briefs and pull them down.

His erection springs free making my eyes widen. Its big.

Continuing with my original plan i wrap my hands around his erection and run them up and down his length making him twitch a little.

"Oh Jayda, Fuck" Maddox says sexily between clenched teeth.

I slowly put my mouth close to the tip and lick it. Salty.

"Jayda" Maddox says, sounding as of he was in pain.

"Does it hurt?" I ask, quickly seizing all movement.

"Don't stop" he says quickly, his chest heaving up and down.

I slowly wrap my mouth around his length and bob it up and down. My eyes lock on Maddox's and he groans.

"Fucking hell Jayda" He says, as I quicken my pace, taking as much of him as I can in my mouth and massaging his testicles.

"Jayda, if you don't want...in your mouth the you need to stop now" Maddox says in a gasp.

I wink at him and quicken my pace even more, gagging a little bit.

"Fuck, I am going to fucking come" Maddox says then I feel him twitch inside my mouth and a few seconds later warm come shoots down my throat.

I close my eyes and swallow it. The taste wasn't that bad but the texture was somewhat unpleasant.

I look at Maddox and we are both breathing heavily.

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 37

"Want to keep going?" Maddox asks and I nod eagerly, I really do enjoy this sexual part of our relationship.

“Hell yes” Maddox starts kissing me then stops “I don’t have any condoms” he says.

“I don’t care” I say with a shrug.

“Are you sure? Pups are very common during the first mating” Maddox says, but his eyes soften at the idea of pups.

I smile “If it happens then its meant to be”

He kisses me fiercely as if he liked my answer. “You are perfect” Maddox says in between kisses, he eased me down on the bed and gently spread my legs apart.

He positioned himself in my entrance and asked “Are you sure?”

I nod, he looked at me probably searching for some hesitation but when he found none he slowly slid inside of me.

It felt as if my insides were ripping apart, it hurt so much!

I cried out in pain making Maddox stop, “I’m sorry. It will pass I’m sorry” he says while whipping a few stray tears from the corner of my eye.

“Keep going, its okay” I say.

He slowly slides in and out of out with me, at first it hurt but after a few seconds the pain became pleasure. My eyes never left Maddox’s as he slid in and out of me, he kissed me sloppily.

“Oh yes! Maddox I love you so much” I moan out.

“I love you more Jayda” Maddox groans.

Maddox then started going faster and I felt my lower abdomen clench in delight.

“This feels so good” I gasp as another wave of pleasure hit me.

“I’m going to come” I say biting into Maddox’s shoulder and running my nails down his back from too much pleasure.

I come undone and a few seconds later Maddox does too.

I lay on top of him, both of us breathing heavily.

“That was great” I say with a lazy grin.

He smiles goofily "It was amazing, I love you Jayda Donovan" He says kissing my forehead.

"I love you more Maddox Franco" I say, snuggling to his chest and wrapping some blanket around us, finally letting sleep take over me.

I wake up a few hours later, Maddox's arms wrapped tightly around me.

It takes a moment to realize that we are both completely naked. I blush and cover my face with my hands.

Now that I am not acting like a dog in heat I realize how embarrassing is what I just did. I practically forced Maddox to make love to me.

I look towards Maddox and see that he is staring at me.

I quickly grab my discarded clothes from the floor and put them on, and throw Maddox his sweatpants.

When we are both decent we sit on the bed face to face.

And just stare at each other.

Is it always so awkward?

"Maddox.." I start but he cuts me off "Jayda, I am sorry if I ever made you feel that you were forced to have sex with me" he says, looking remorseful.

I blink "You didn't force me, I mean I kinda forced you. You never really brought up sex"

He scratched the back of his neck "Well I didn't want you to think I was pressuring you to do something you didn't want"

"So its not because you didn't want to uh you know?" I say not looking at him.

"I wanted to, I was just waiting for you to be ready" he shrugs.

"Why is this so awkward?" I ask.

"Because we are making it awkward" Maddox answers.

We stare at each other for a few seconds then simultaneously burst out laughing.

"We are so weird" I gasp out between laughs.

Maddox nods, taking deep breaths to control his laughter “why are we even laughing?” He asks, a wide grin present on his face.

I take a deep breath, wiping the tears from the corner of my eyes I answer “I have no clue”

“Are you hungry?” He asks

“Yes, lets eat” I say quickly standing up. Now that my mind wasn’t clouded with awkwardness I realize how sore I feel.

“Damn” I mumble.

“What?” Maddox asks.

“Uhh nothing” I say and follow him towards the kitchen. Every step I take is super uncomfortable but I tried my best to ignore it.

“What do you want to eat?” He asks.

“Do you have Ramen noodles?” I ask.

“Yeah, I think we have that somewhere” he says looking through the cabinets until he finds a little box of instant ramen noodles.

“Found it” he says while reading through the instructions on the back.

“Maddox, why are you reading the instructions?”

“Because the instructions are there so people read them” he says in a ‘duh’ tone.

“They aren’t necessary, you don’t have to read them” I point out.

“You are supposed to read them Jayda”

“Not really”

“Whatever, you don’t know what you are talking about” Maddox says, filling the plastic bowl that had the noddles inside with some water and puts it inside the microwave for 3minutes.

I sit on a stool and lean forward “You suck”

A smirk quickly forms on his face as he says “And a few hours ago, I found out you swallow”

I blush scarlet and grab the first thing I can get my hands on which ends up being an apple.

Since he is too busy laughing his ass off he doesn't notice me throwing the apple which ends up hitting him on the side of the stomach.

"Fiesty eh?" he says laughing again.

"You are the worse Maddox" I sigh but I doubt he hears me over his hyena like laugh.

The microwave beeps, walking towards it and grabbing the bowl I scowl at Maddox "It wasn't that funny"

Wiping tears from his eyes he answers "Yeah it was"

I fill the other bowl of noodles with water and put it in the microwave.

"There's something wrong with you" I mumble.

He shrugs then walks towards the fridge and takes out a can of coke and a can of sprite.

When both of our foods were done, we sit down next to each other on the stools slurping on our ramen soups.

"You know" he starts. "This is the life"

I raise an eyebrow at him.

"Eating ramen noodles after having amazing sex" he says, amusement evident in his voice.

"You are in a too much of a good mood, it's kind of creeping me out" I say with a giggle.

He grins "Don't get used to it, I'll probably go back to my old moody self when the haze of making love to you wears off"

I smirk blushing "Well, maybe we should do it again so the haze lasts longer"

Maddox grins and turns his stool towards me, in one swift move brings me to his lap and starts kissing me.

When the kiss starts to get heated the bell rings.

Maddox freezes and lets out a growl.

I look at him, giving him another peck on the lips and get off his lap, walking towards the door.

I open the door and Ellie is standing there, a smirk on her face.

“Seriously Jay, Again? I left earlier today because I heard you moaning like your life depended on it and now I come back to see your lips swollen and your hair looks like a sexual birds nest” She says as soon as she sees me.

“Uh what?” I ask dumbly.

She rolls her eyes “I stopped by earlier, and by the sounds you were making and your looks I know you are not a virgin anymore”

I blush “please don’t talk about it”

“Too late babe” she grins.

“What are you doing here?” I ask her with a sigh.

“I wanted to hang out with you” she shrugs.

“Well, I am kind if busy-uh today” I say awkwardly.

“Say no more, I understand” Ellie says wiggling her eyebrows.

“Goodbye Ellie”

“Goodbye Tiger” she says with a wink.

Groaning I quickly shut the door on her face.

She is unbelievable.

I am totally not living this down.

Eh, its totally worth it I think to myself. walking towards Maddox and going back to were we left off.

This is amazing!

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 38

Jayda’s POV

I was currently having lunch with Nikki, Ellie was somewhere with her mate Kyle.

We were having a normal-ish conversation, Nikki looked like she had been wanting to tell me something for the past week but she never did, she had been avoiding me and Ellie so I was surprised when she invited me to go out for lunch, it surprised me even more when she told me not to tell Eli about it.

“I need to tell you something” Nikki mumbles and I put my fork of spaghetti down, wiping my mouth with a napkin I ask “What happened?”

Her eyes start watering and her lips tremble “I don’t think I will ever be able to give Luke pups”

My chest clenches painfully “What do you mean?”

Nicole takes a deep breath “I have been trying for so long, they keep telling me I have a chance but I’ve been trying for so long and nothing. I do everything they tell me.” Nikki breaks, tears streaming down her face.

I quickly stand up and wrap my arms around her tightly. “Who are they?”

“The doctors, I take all the medicine they give me, I go to all the checkups. I hate him, i hate him so much. Its all his fault I would be happy if it wasn’t because of him. He ruined me” She sobs on my shoulder, whispering the last part.

Him? Who is him?

“Nikki who are you talking about? Who ‘ruined’ you?” I ask, Feeling immediate anger at the thought of someone hurting not only my friend, someone who I consider family but also someone from my pack.

Nikki pulls away slightly “Do you promise not to tell anyone? Not even Ellie. I am telling you because you are the closest thing I have to a sister and I know I can trust you”

I nod, I wouldn’t have told anyone else anyway. It’s her secret not mine.

She looks away and starts talking:

Flashback 4 years ago. Nikki’s POV

“Hey Uncle Leo, have you seen mom and dad? I’ve been looking for them” I ask the pack’s Beta, Leonardo.

“Last time I saw them they were with your brother, but that was a few hours ago” Beta Leonardo tells me with a smile.

I smile back “Thanks, I’ll go see if they are still with Maddox”

I make my way through the stone path. From a far I see Maddox's tall but lanky form.

He was laughing and joking with A few of his friends.

"Hey Maddox" I call out to my 18 year old brother.

"Hey Nikki" My dear older brother greeted with a smile, slinging his arm around my shoulder and walking us away from his friends.

He is always smiling, the day you see him in a bad mood will be the day hell freezes over. Some people criticized that. Saying he had to be tough if he wanted to be alpha but I disagree.

I know even with his kind and easy going behavior he will be a great Alpha.

"Have you seen mom and dad?" I ask.

Maddox nods, his shaggy hair moving to his forehead. Almost reaching his eyes, he needs a haircut.

"I saw them about 2 hours ago, they said they would be going for a walk. I'm going patrolling in about 30 minutes if you want wait a little bit and come with me patrolling so you don't have to walk through the woods by yourself since you haven't shifted yet" Maddox says, he is always being protective over me. We are really close, most siblings are always fighting but not us. We never fight, the most we do is argue about what movie to watch.

Shaking my head I answer with a wide grin "No thanks, just meet us there when you are done. I have big news"

"Tell me now" He tries to sound stern but the corner lifts up.

I giggle "Nope"

He pouts "please"

I shake my head still giggling "Nope, you'll have to wait"

"But I don't wanna" Maddox whines.

"Too bad, now bye I need to find mom and dad. Don't forget to come" I remind him.

"Fine" he sighs and kisses the top of my head.

He walks back to his friends and I make my way to the Alpha house and into my room so I could change into proper footwear. I was wearing flip flops and my feet will surely suffer I walk through the woods in them.

Putting on some sneakers, I apply some bug repellent and tie my black hair in a high ponytail.

After I am done I make my way out of the house and into the woods.

I start looking around the wood in wonder, I really loved going into the woods. Watching the different animals in their natural habitat. The colorful birds, the bugs that could essentially kill me it was all perfect.

After about 15 minutes of walking I was already panting, I can't wait until I shift so I can effortlessly run around.

I keep walking at a steady pace. I grin at the thought of the paper burning a hole in my back pocket.

It was an acceptance letter to Walker's Academy in England. Both Anna and I had applied last summer and got accepted for their program. I would be able to finish High School there while training with the best fighters in the continent. They would fly me out to England and I would live in a dorm and probably get the cool British accent I have always wanted. Anna and I always joked about it, she said that hopefully if we lived in England long enough we would get the fancy British accent instead of having out boring American accent.

My thoughts are interrupted by a scream I quickly recognize as my mother's.

I start running towards where I heard the scream, stumbling and tripping over roots and rocks. I wasn't paying attention to my surroundings, all I had in my mind was get to my mom, and do whatever I could do to help her, which wasn't really much since I had yet to shift into my wolf.

When I finally reach a clearing I sigh in relief. I see my parents sitting against a tree, my mom's head resting against my father's shoulder and both of them were looking in front of them.

Realizing they must be really into their day dream to not hear my loud wheezing and panting I walk towards them.

"And Nicole has arrived with very good, very great news" I said loudly in a terrible British accent that ended up sounding a mix between Indian and Spanish.

I was expecting them to snap out of it and smile at me like they always do but their bodies stay frozen.

I frown, they never really ignore me. Are they upset about something?

I start walking towards them and sigh "Hey, I'm sorry if I did something to upset you guys I didn't..." I trail off when I finally get to them.

What the hell? I think confused.

"What the heck? I say aloud, they didn't like it when I cussed.

My parents were still in the same position they were when I arrived at the clearing but they were both looking at me with wide, panic filled eyes.

"What happened? Why are you guys like that? Is this a mate thing?" I ask, my throat closing up making my voice come out hoarse. What is happening to them?

My mom just looked at me up and down as if checking for injuries, while my dad looked from me to where I had come from as if telling me to leave.

I shake my head. "What happened to you guys?" I shout, my freaking out had gone to a whole new level.

Approaching both of my parents I grab my mom's shoulders and shake her same with my dad. "stop looking at me like that and tell me what is wrong.

I then see a tiny drip of blood at the side of each of their necks.

Before I could question it any further hands wrap around my ponytail and roughly pull me back making me gasp out a scream.

I start wildly hitting the guy and struggling against him. He grabs both of my hands in one of his and covers my mouth with the other then turns to my parents. "So this is the daughter?" He asks with a chuckle then turns back to me.

"Stop fucking screaming" He yells, his nasty breath hitting my face, making me yell louder.

If he wasn't so dirty, maybe if he brushed his teeth and took a shower of two then he would look like a good looking guy. He was around my parents age and his eyes screamed evil.

"I told you to shut the fuck up" His hand leaves my mouth and punches me hard in the face.

I choke out a sob and start kick my legs out wildly hoping to do some damage.

I somehow on of my hands from his tight grasp and poke both his eyes with my fingers, making his hands instantly leave me and go to cover his eyes.

“Ouch, you fucking...” He trails off but I am already away from him and running towards my parents.

“Help, somebody help!!! I scream out hoping someone heard, grabbing my mom and dad’s hands I try to pull them towards me and get them out of here but it was all to no avail. They were too heavy for my small form to pull.

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 39

I feel something bite into the side of my neck and my hand immediately presses into it. I touch the place that is is now burning and when I my hand back there is a drop of blood on it.

I turn around to see the guy waving a metal syringe around mockingly.

“Did you just stick that on my neck?” I yell, trying to sound intimidating but failing miserably.

He smirks “Not the only thing I will be sticking in you today”

I start panicking and taking steps back while he steps forward.

“Get away from me you dick” I yell.

He looks at me with wonder “How come you haven’t collapse yet? Your parents fell as soon as I injected them”

“Guess your tricks don’t work on everyone you dumbass” I hiss but even as I am saying this I feel my muscles relaxing slowly, meaning I would probably collapse soon.

He sniffs the air and his smile gets even bigger and creepier. “You haven’t shifted yet, that’s why. It takes longer for humans”

Knowing I don’t have much time I try to persuade him “You should leave, they will come looking for us and they will kill you”

He laughs “Nobody is coming to save you little girl”

And then I collapse.

He grabs a hold of my head and turns me to him “Its all your fault, if you would have been able to shift you could have been strong enough to save them and maybe even kill me”

He then starts unbuttoning my jeans and my eyes fill with tears.

I beg him with my eyes not to do this but he just winks.

When my pants are off he sees the paper peeking out of the back pocket of the jeans and takes a lot at them.

He quickly scans it and then faces my parents. "Congratulations, your daughter was accepted to Walker's academy, too bad you both will be dead to see her go and she will probably die also, but still big accomplishment" he says as he starts taking the rest of my clothes off. I try to move or scream but my body doesn't listen.

"Watch as I take the innocence of your daughter just because you are too weak to stop me" The evil guy says to my parents then I feel a piercing pain on my lower half of my body. My eyes fill with tears as the pain increases.

"Please stop, no I don't like this" I beg, I just needed this to stop.

He just kept going.

After a few minutes of pleasuring himself the evil man takes a few minutes then starts again. And again, and again.

I felt numb, tears stopped flowing and I just stared at the evil guy as he stole my innocence and stomped on it.

And then from the corner of my eye I saw Maddox. I had never seen him like this. His eyes held this hate that chilled me to the bone, he quickly approached the evil guy who was too busy to hear Maddox coming and ripped him off of me and threw him against a tree. Shifting Maddox attacked him, blood seeped out of the evil guy but just as the guy passed out Maddox stopped, not making an effort to kill him and my eyes widened.

Why didn't he kill him?

I see Maddox look at me then at our parents and he goes to me first.

"Nikki talk to me" he says, his eyes pleading but I couldn't. My body wouldn't let me.

So I just helplessly stared at him.

"They're on their way Nikki, just hang on" Maddox says taking his shirt off and putting it on me then rocking me back and forth while saying soothing words.

I then see the main pack warriors and the pack doctor walk into the clearing. Everyone starts working.

“What do you want to do with him?” Logan, the head warrior asks, pointing to the evil man.

Maddox quickly whispers something and Logan nods ties the evil man’s hands together and then roughly grabs him by the scruff of his shirt and drags him out of my sight.

The rest is all a haze and next thing I know I wake up in the pack’s medical center.

Flash back over

Jayda’s POV

“I was only 14 when that happened, the evil man. He took everything from me. Rouges will always do that to you. Take everything that matters to you and destroy it” Nikki says.

Tears are running down my face while Nikki tells me the story of everything that happened to her. What she had to go through, nobody deserves that.

That’s why Maddox and Nikki hate Rouges so much.

The question that keeps nagging my brain is, Maddox didn’t kill him, what happened to him?

So I decide to ask her.

“What happened to the rouge, you know. The evil man” I ask hesitantly

She looks at me and I quickly say “If you don’t want to talk about it anymore then I totally get it”

Nikki shakes her head “I want to tell you, you deserve to know the whole story of why your mate isn’t the happy, easy going guy he once was”

I nod “I woke up a week after from an induced coma...” She starts

Flashback Nikki’s POV

I wake up with a small scream, the images of the evil man hadn’t left my mind even in my unconscious state.

Maddox was quickly at my side “You’re awake” he breathes a sigh of relief.

I just stare at him, my eyes filled with tears at the thought of what happened.

“Where’s mom and dad?” I ask frantically.

Maddox looks away "They're gone"

I shake my head "What do mean they are gone? Where did they go? Why did you let them leave? I need them!" I yell, my body shaking with sobs.

Maddox quickly wraps his arms around me in a hug but its not one of his usual hugs, its cold and detached "They died, we tried to save them but you were all injected with silver and you know how bad silver is for wolves. You were lucky you are human or you would have died too"

"Get your hands off me!" I shout, Maddox quickly takes a step back and I rip all of the cables that were attached to me, including the IV who after I ripped it out made my hand start bleeding. Maddox eyes widen and he makes a move to stop me but I am already out the door.

"Mom? Dad? Where are you? mom, dad please!" I yell, I look at the waiting room to see my other brother Kyle.

"Kyle, where are our parents?" I ask, tears streaming down my face uncontrollably.

"I'm sorry Nikki, when I flew in they had already passed away" Kyle says as he too starts crying.

Kyle walks towards me and hugs me.

Maddox walks to the waiting room a few minutes later, his face blank.

"I'm going to go, I'll call Dr. Jenny on the way out " he says then he is gone.

I stared at the well where he just walked out of.

"He just left, why did he leave? Doesn't he know we need him?" I ask my twin brother.

He shrugs "He's been doing that since I got here, every time he gets stressed he leaves then comes back as if nothing happened"

"I need my older brother Kyle, I want him back"

Dr. Jenny walks into the room with a new IV in hand "Let's go Nicole, we need to get you back to bed, the more you rest the sooner you will leave"

I shake my head "I want to leave now"

"You can't, you need to get better" Dr. Jenny says motioning me to start walking.

"I told you I am not going" I snap but Kyle gently grabs my hand.

“Let’s go sis, it’ll be over soon” Kyle whispers leading me into my hospital bed.

After Dr. Jenny connects me to the IV again, she leaves the room.

“Go to sleep Nikki, I’ll be here when you wake up” Kyle says and I quickly doze off.

•A few days later•

I wake up scream, my body dripping with sweat. Tonight, like every other night I wake up screaming from a nightmare about the evil man.

My bedroom door quickly opens and like every other night Kyle walks in to console me and then like every other night I hear the front door slam close. Its an endless cycle. It happens every night.

I have a nightmare, wake up screaming, Kyle comes in and Maddox slams the door shut and leaves the house.

He stays out for hours, I know he isn’t sleeping. The bags under his eyes tell me that, but then again none of us are. We are all dealing with grief differently.

Kyle and I are sticking together while Maddox can rarely stand to be near us. He is cold towards everyone. Nobody dares to say a word to him knowing he’ll snap.

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 40

It has gotten to the point that I worry that the old Maddox will never come back.

At first he tried to act like his old self, he tried to hug me, tried to smile but his hugs were cold and his smile was fake. I could see right through them. The way his eyes are empty but at the same time filled with ire.

At first I thought it was me, I thought he blamed me for what happened. For what the evil man did to me but then after the days passed I figured out that the hate he felt wasn’t towards me. It was towards himself and towards the evil man.

He blamed himself for what happened. He thought it was his fault but I know it wasn’t.

After a few days he stopped trying to make me think that the old him was still there. He completely closed off, he didn’t hug me, he didn’t smile.

And it hurt because even though Kyle and I are twins, Maddox and I had a stronger connection. Kyle was always flying around the world. But Maddox was always here with me and losing him felt like losing a part of myself.

“Can you go to your own room Kyle? I want to sleep alone tonight” I lie.

Kyle looks at me worriedly "What about the nightmares?"

"I won't have them" I promise.

He reluctantly nods "Okay, I love you sis"

"Love you too Kyle" I say and watch as he leaves.

I quickly stand up and see him close his bedroom door. When he does I grab a jacket and put it, and then some sneakers.

I tip toe out of the house and look around. It was dark out and I couldn't see anyone.

"What are you doing out?" I let out a scream at turn around to see Maddox standing there with jeans and a black hoodie.

"I-uh, um what are you doing out?" i ask instead.

"I am an adult, you are a kid. Go back inside" He orders.

I shake my head defiantly "No"

Maddox clenches his jaw "Go back inside. I was on my way to the-. Somewhere and your fucking loud footsteps interrupted me so get back inside and go to sleep"

I sigh, my eyes watering slightly. It hurt that he was talking to me like that.

Maddox's face soften and he whispers "Just go back inside" And with that he starts walking away. I walk back into the house and look at the window.

When I see where Maddox walks into my heart speeds up.

I quickly open and close the door not really worried about Kyle hearing since he like me hasn't shifted yet and won't hear anything.

I run towards the cellar, my dad had shown me it a long time ago. He had told me to stay away there is no way I am doing that.

I slowly put my hand on the handle of the metal door and wince as it creaks while it opens.

When I walk in I immediately see people inside cells. Most were sleeping but about two were awake a looking at me creepily.

I pulled my jacket closer to myself as I walked through the dim lit hall.

My heart was beating a million times a second and I was questioning why I even walked in here. When I reach the end of the hall I see another metal door that I carefully open while praying that nobody on the other side is there to kill me.

Inside the room with the metal door was the evil man, as soon as I saw him my heart started beating even faster than before and my head started pounding.

The evil man was obviously unable to hurt me now though. He was sitting in a dentist like chair where his hands and feet were cuffed which what I am guessing its silver.

To say he was in a bad shape was an understatement, he had deep wounds all over his body some had pus and some had blood coming out of it. His whole face was swollen, in a way he almost couldn't open his eyes and there was a lot of blood coming from his crotch area, like if it was dripping.

The evil man looked to be passed out at the moment. I heard loud footsteps from another door and quickly hid behind a few boxes.

I peeked through the side and saw Maddox come inside the room. He was wearing jeans, a black hoodie and had his headphones blasting loudly. Maddox was holding a bucket full of something at splashed it on the evil guy. He threw the bucket and everything on him.

"Wake up" Maddox growled.

The evil man slowly opened his eyes and Maddox grabbed a knife and without even blinking made a long cut down the side of his face. The evil man squirmed and yelled but Maddox kept going.

Maddox then takes off his headphones and turns to the smiles at the evil guy, a cruel sadistic smile.

"With what hand did you inject my sister and my parents?" Maddox asks calmly.

The evil guys starts crying "Please, I am sorry. Let me go" he begs and Maddox stabs him in the thigh.

Maddox clenches his jaw "I asked you what hand"

"The right one" The evil man gasps out.

Leaving the knife in his thigh Maddox grabs some kind of weird looking scissors and grabs the evil man's right hand.

"Please no, stop" The evil man pleads but Maddox doesn't listen. Instead he tight grasps the wrist of the evil man and one by one starts cutting off The evil man's fingers.

“Did you stop when my sister told you to?” Maddox asks.

The evil man starts sobbing “It’s different, you are cutting me open! Nobody deserves this pain!”

Maddox stares at the evil man with hate and in one quick movement pulls the knife out of his thigh and made a deep gash on his stomach.

All the evil guy can do is cry and scream as Maddox continuously tortures him.

Just like all I could do was cry when he was abusing me.

“You raped my sister, you killed my parents and you want me to stop?” Maddox hisses.

“Let me go man” The evil man pleads.

Instead of answering Maddox takes another knife and stabs the evil man in the crotch area where it had already been bleeding before but it was now bleeding 5 times as much.

The evil man screams and then passes out probably from the pain.

“Why don’t you kill him?” I surprise myself by saying, Maddox immediately turns around with wide eyes.

“What are you doing here Nicole?” He asks, slowly walking towards me.

I shrug “I followed you”

“Are you scared of me now?” Maddox asks me and for the first since what happened he showed some emotion.

Shaking my head I answer “I am not scared of you”

I hug Maddox tightly and he tenses.

“I have blood all over me” he mumbles patting my head.

“I need a hug Maddox, please” I beg and he nods. Wrapping his hands around me tightly.

“I’m scared of what it will make me” Maddox says after a while.

I pull away “What?”

He sighs "I am scared of what killing him will make me. I am not the same guy I was 2 weeks ago and we all know. If I kill him I will be a killer."

"Then don't kill him Maddox" I say softly but Maddox shakes his head.

"I need to kill him, if I don't I'll go insane. I am so filled with hate. Towards him, myself. I know if I kill him it will all be over." Maddox looks at the ground.

"Then kill him, right now" I say.

Maddox nods "I will, but I am going to walk you home first"

I shake my head "No Maddox, I need this. I need to know he is dead. I need the nightmares to be over. To know he can't get to me anymore and hurt me."

Without even questioning me Maddox nods then grabs a blade.

He then grabs The evil man's hair and starts cutting evil man's head off.

I see as blood starts pouring out of the evil man's neck and start feeling a calmness. Knowing he will never hurt me again.

When his head is completely off of his body Maddox throws it on the floor and does the same with the blade then walks toward a small sink and washes his hands.

I give him a small smile and he gives me a half a smile back.

Flashback over

Jayda's POV

"-And after that Maddox stopped trying to avoid me and Kyle. We started being a family again. Maddox is a quarter of the self he once was. With us only though. With people who aren't Kyle or me then he acts closed off. I didn't think he would start becoming the Maddox we once knew. But then he met you and he smiles more. He jokes around more and I actually think that one day the old Maddox will come back" Nikki says looking at me with a smile.

By the end of this story I am full on sobbing, I can't help it. Maddox and Nikki went through so much yet they are so strong.

"Its okay, there there Jayda. Don't cry" Nikki mumbles rocking me back and forth.

"Wait why are you comforting me?" I ask, wiping my nose with a napkin.

Nikki grins "Because you are weeping like a baby"

Baby.

Baby!

“Oh Nikki I am so sorry! You wanted to tell me about your problem and didn’t even have a chance to. You can tell me now.” I say, feeling awful I interrupted her story with my crying.

She looks at the floor “The silver the guy injected into me did something. The doctors still don’t know why but I haven’t been able to get pregnant.”

“Why don’t you get someone else to carry your baby?” I ask her.

“Like a surrogate?” Nikki asks.

“Yes, it will be 100% your baby. Just that someone else will carry it. And if everything fails there is always adoption Nikki” I tell her with a smile and her eyes light up.

“That is a great idea, I am going to tell Luke right away” She says standing up.

“We still need to pay, go ahead and call Luke if you want I’ll pay and be right out” I say and Nicole nods and walks outside to call her mate.

I signal the waiter and pay for our food.

I walk outside and see a guy smoking next to the door. As soon as the smell of smoke enters my nose nausea hit me and I run towards the bushes and puke all of my food.

Nikki is immediately beside me, grabbing my hair as I vomit my guts out. When I am finally done I wipe my mouth. Reaching for my purse I grab a water bottle and take a gulp then spit it out to get the ugly vomit taste out of my mouth.

“Are you okay?” Nikki asks me and I nod.

“I think I am sick, every time I smell sea food or cigarettes I puke. Its awful” I whine and Nikki looks at me with a face splitting grin.

“Jayda?” Nikki says.

“Yeah?” I ask.

“Lets go to the pharmacy”□□□□□□
