Jayda's POV

Nikki quickly dragged me to her car, her grin lighting up her face.

I put my seatbelt on and turn to her.

"What has gotten into you?" I ask with a small laugh.

"You told me you've been vomiting everytime you smell sea food or someone smoking" Nikki mentions and I nod.

"Yeah, I hate it. It leaves this nasty taste in my mouth and my throat feels acidly"

"You also have been sexually active with my brother for about a month already" she says and my eyes widen.

Blushing, I mumble "Can we please not talk about my sexual life. It's awkward talking about it"

Nikki stares blankly at me. "Why is it awkward?"

"Because he is your brother" I exclaim covering my face.

She rolls her eyes "Anyways, ignoring your stupid logic. When was the last time you've had your period?"

I shrug "I am irregular so I can go months without my period"

"Hmm, that doesn't tell me much but the fact that you vomited means something!" Nikki points out.

I nod slowly "Yes, that smoking is disgusting"

"No!" Nikki snaps and I raise my hands in mock surrender.

"Chill" I mumble and she sighs.

"You are being difficult"

I snort "I know what you are thinking Nicole, but I am not pregnant. I think I would have figured it out already if I was"

Nikki puts her seatbelt on, then starts driving "We'll see"

5 minutes later I speak up. "Nikki"

"Yeah?" She asks, fiddling with the radio.

"I need to go pee" I say, crossing my legs.

She frowns "Again? You went pee while we were at lunch and before we left home"

I shrug, fidgeting in my seat "I don't know. Maybe I drank too much. Who knows. Who cares just stop somewhere before I urinate in your car" I snap.

"Well then, okay" Nicole mumbles and pulls over in front of a bar.

I quickly jump out of the car and practically sprint towards the bathroom inside the bar only to find it locked.

Shit.

I quickly walk towards the bar.

"Hey, excuse me. Could you please give me the key to the bathroom" I ask urgently.

The bartender looks at me. "You can't use the bathroom if you don't purchase something"

I sigh "Give me a water bottle"

He shakes his head "We don't have anymore water bottles. Sorry" he says not sounding sorry at all.

"Then give me anything, I just want to use the damn bathroom." I hiss through clenched teeth.

The bartender sighs as if he had the weight of the world on his shoulders "I'll make you a mojito"

"Whatever, just give me the damn key" I growl out.

"Money first" the bartender tells me.

I hand him a 10 dollar bill and practically rip the keys from the bartender's hand.

When I finally get to the bathroom I sit on the toilet and relieve myself.

Thank the lord. I actually thought I was going to pee my pants thanks to that asshole.

When I am finally done I wash my hands and flush the toilet.

Walking out the bathroom I glare at the bartender. "What's my change?" i ask.

"Oh, i put the rest on the tip jar since you left so quickly" The bartender says, a smirk on his face.

"Fuck you" I say about to grab the mojito but thinking better of it, if what Nikki suspects is correct I won't risk the health of my baby.

"Wouldn't you want to" the bartender shouts after me.

Without looking back I raise my middle finger in the air.

I exit the bar and open the door to the passenger side and plop down on the seat.

"What's got you in a bad mood? Did you pee yourself? You don't smell like pee" Nikki says as soon as i get in.

"Stupid bartender was being an ass" I mumble.

Nikki freezes "What did he do? Did he touch you? I swear if he did anything to you or your baby I will rip him to shreds" she starts taking off her seatbelt but I stop her.

"It's nothing Nikki, he just made me mad" I say quickly and she reluctantly nods.

"And Nikki, I am probably not pregnant"

She waves me off, then speeds off "You are, not lets go to the damn pharmacy"

And 30 minutes later, here we were in the pregnancy test aisle at the local Walgreens.

Nikki takes one of each.

"I don't think I can pee that much" I start then say "who am I kidding, I want to pee again"

Nikki shakes her head and starts leading me towards the line.

The cashier looks at me judgmentally when I hand her the pregnancy test and her face says 'Great, another teen mom'

"Why the hell are you looking at my sister like that" Nikki snaps from behind me, looking more intimidating than ever.

"I am not looking at her" the woman shrugs rolling her eyes.

Nicole's eyes turn completely black and the woman completely pales then faints. Most likely from being scared.

Nicole shakes her head then drags me towards another cashier.

I stare at Nikki. "Why are you acting like that?"

"Like what?" Nikki asks.

I think about it for a second "Like Maddox"

Nicole laughs "How am I acting like Maddox?"

I shrug "You are acting over protective and stuff"

"Oh that, well you are carrying my nephew or niece so I have to protect you" She says.

I decided against telling her I might not be pregnant.

Shaking my head I answer "You don't have to protect me"

"I do now shush" She says and pays for the pregnancy tests, we both walk to the car and drive to the pack village.

Maddox and Luke were both working at Maddox's office which is in our house so Nikki and I decide it's better if I take the test at her house.

I hadn't said it out loud but I was hoping I was indeed pregnant, I want to start a family with Maddox so why wait?

But what if I am not pregnant? I already have my hopes up and I will surely be crushed if it turns out negative.

Sighing I walk into the bathroom, pee on the multiple pregnancy tests Nikki and I had bought then put them on the sink and washed my hands. I put a timer on my phone.

I walk out the bathroom and Nikki stumbles off of her chair "What was it? Are you pregnant?"

I smile nervously "I don't know, I have to wait 5 minutes minutes"

Nikki walks towards her and Luke's bed and lays on it face down.

"How long has it been?" She asks.

"20 seconds" I answer, pacing around the room.

She sighs "This is torture"

I nod in agreement.

After what felt like forever my phone beeps.

Nikki quickly stands up.

"Go check!" She urges.

Nervously I walk towards my bathroom and take a look at the sticks.

After starring at the result for a few seconds I slide down the wall, tears running down my face.

I can't believe this is happening– I mean I can but wow.

A teeny tiny baby is growing inside of me.

Maddox and I will be parents.

I put a hand over my stomach where I am guessing the baby is suppose to be and smile.

This is good, this is great.

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 42

A knock on the door interrupts my train of thoughts.

"Jayda? What are you doing? Come out" Nikki asks from the other side of the door.

I stand up from the floor, tears still running down my face and open the door.

As soon as Nikki sees me her face falls. "It's alright Jayda, it will happen soon" She says, thinking my tears are because I am not pregnant.

I quickly shake my head "No, I um I am pregnant. I am just so happy I-" I start crying again.

I am just so happy.

Nikki quickly hugs me "I am going to be an aunt" she squeals and starts crying too.

"I am so happy for you guys. I can't believe I will be an aunt. A baby i can spoil rotten" Nikki says grinning trough the tears.

I nod "You will be a great aunt"

"Aunty Nikki, I like the sound of that" she giggles.

I giggle. "What do you think it will be?"

She shrugs "Who knows, but who cares I will love him or her either"

I sigh happily "I will too"

"When will you tell Maddox?" Nikki asks.

I shrug "Probably tonight. I wanna surprise him with it"

"How?" She asks, while putting her hair in a ponytail.

"I was actually thinking of putting it in a box and say I have a present for him. Then when he opens the box the pregnancy test will be there"

"That's a great idea, I'm going to get a box and we can put like the cute little decorative colorful papers so its harder to find" with that she leaves the room and I am left there smiling like an idiot.

About 5 minutes later Nicole walks in with a dark blue gift box with a lime green bow.

"I didn't find the cute little papers but I found confetti" Nikki says dumping three bags of colorful confetti into the box.

"It's alright, confetti will work" I shrug walking to the bathroom and taking one of the pregnancy sticks. And dumping the rest of them in the trash.

"I'm nervous" I confess while putting the pregnancy stick inside the box under all of the confetti.

"Why?" Nicole asks and I shrug.

"How Maddox will react. He looked happy when I told him that I didn't mind having pups but what if he doesn't want one right now. What will I do then?" I ask, running my hands through my hair anxiously.

Nikki shakes her head. "I am sure he will be happy"

I frown "But what if he isn't? I will have be heartbroken but I would never get rid of my baby so I would have to leave the pack and move to another state and take care of my baby alone and what will I say when they ask where the dad is? Will I lie or will I tell them the truth. I don't want to leave Maddox he is amazing and I love him but There isn't another way. I refuse to get rid of my babe-" I ramble.

"Woah, woah woah! Calm down Jayda" Nikki tries to interrupt me but I keep going.

"That's it, I won't tell Maddox anything. If I don't tell him then he won't leave me. And when the baby comes I'll just leave when he kicks me out....shit what about when I start showing? Maybe he will think I just got fat-" I say quickly but Nikki cuts me off.

"STOP! You are talking crazy. Calm the fuck down Jayda. Maddox will never kick you out and you will definitely not keep his baby away from him" She snaps, clearly irritated and I start crying.

"I just don't want him to leave me"

Nikki's face softens "He won't. My brother is capable of anything, except leaving you."

"I just-" I start but get cut off by a knock on Nicole's bedroom door.

"Hey girls, hide all those tampons and everything you woman talk about cause I am about to walk in" Luke says from behind the door making me snort.

"Come in Luke" I say, wiping my eyes.

Luke opens the door and smiles at me but then frowns when he sees Nikki's and I's red eyes from crying so much today.

He quickly hugs Nikki "What happened?" He asks frantically.

I shrug "Let Nikki tell you, I need to go home now, Bye guys." I hug Nikki and Luke then grab the box of my way out.

I try to make the 5 minute walk towards Maddox's and I's home the longest I can but when it starts pouring cats and dogs I have no choice but to hurry up.

When I get to the house, as soon as I get to the house I wash my face so I don't show any signs of being crying.

I slowly walk up to our room and see Maddox coming out of the shower.

"Hey Jayda" Maddox greets giving me a quick peck on the lips.

"Hi" I mumble.

Maddox gets dressed then with a sigh plops down on the bed.

I sit down on the bed next to him, putting the box on my lap.

“How was your day?” I ask.

“Awful, nobody was doing their job correctly and accidentally accepted a request for someone to join the pack” Maddox says, his face twisting in anger.

“Why is that such a bad thing?” I voice my thoughts and start handing him the box but his response stops me.

He runs a hand through his hair “I just don’t like new people joining the pack. We are fine with the amount of people we have”

I frown “So you don’t want no more people?”

He shakes his head “Nope”

“Oh” I mumble hugging the box to my chest.

“What’s on that box?” Maddox asks suddenly.

My eyes widen and I shake my head quickly “Nothing, just nothing” I say.

There’s no way I am telling him about this, call me selfish but I want to have him all to myself before he finds out I have a baby and I have to leave the state.

“You’ve been fidgeting with the damn box since you got here so what is it?” Maddox asks again.

“I saw you were about to give it to me then you stopped, I really want to know” Maddox says, looking at the box.

I giggle nervously “Its just a stupid present I had for you but its not important so I’m just going to throw it away” I start standing up before the box is ripped from my hands.

“Nothing that comes from you is stupid Jayda” Maddox says opening the box and looking through the confetti, ignoring my protests.

“There’s nothing here—wait found it. Is this a pen?” He asks then starts talking it out of the box.

When he sees what it is his eyes widen. His mouth opens and closes.

I look down, this is it. He will tell me to leave.

Suddenly I am tackle into a laying position on the bed and Maddox is on top of me with the biggest smile I have ever seen on him.

“You are giving me a pup?” Maddox asks, kissing me all over my face. His smile still present.

“You are giving me a baby Jayda, I am going to be a dad” The joy I hear in his voice makes me feel stupid for ever doubting him.

Maddox pulls me back to a sitting position and hugs me harder than anyone has ever hugged me before, its almost painful.

“Jayda! We are going to be parents. There’s a baby growing inside of you. My baby! I put him there” Maddox exclaims, his grin not faltering and I giggle.

Maddox lifts up my shirt and starts kissing my stomach.

“I’ve never been this happy” he admits.

“I’ve never been this relieved”

“Why are you relieved?” Maddox asks.

I look at him sheepishly “I kinda thought you wouldn’t want me and that I would have to move to another state”

Maddox looks at me, and blinks. Once, twice, thrice.

Then he bursts out laughing “Are you serious? You thought I would leave you?”

I shrug and rolls his eyes grabbing my head in his hands he looks at me in the eye “I will never leave you. Ever. You are stuck with me until I die”

“What if I die first?” I ask him.

“I won’t allow it”

Maddox’s POV

I stare at a sleeping Jayda beside me.

She looks so beautiful, and now she is carrying a baby.

Our baby.

I still can't believe I will be a father.

The silly grin has yet to leave my face even hours after she gave me the news.

This is definitely the happiest day of my life, I will finally start a family with Jayda.

Jayda stirs in her sleep and her eyes flutter open.

"Maddox" she mumbles.

"Yes?" I answer softly.

Jayda rubs her eyes tiredly "What time is it?"

"3:56am" I answer tracing lazy circles on her back.

She yawns "Come cuddle, I want to sleep"

"Okay" I say, wrapping my arms around her and kissing the top of her head.

"Let's sleep"

So what did you think.

Haha. JK! There's more.

Jayda's POV

I wake up Maddox's hands wrapped around my form.

I smile widely when I see that one of his arms is protectively around my stomach.

I carefully untangle his arms from around me and slowly walk to our bathroom and brush my teeth.

Poor Maddox must be exhausted, he went to sleep extremely late last night.

I decide to make him a good breakfast in bed.

I skip down the steps and finally get to the kitchen.

I decide to make him a tortilla with some bacon, toast and some coffee.

First I put two slices of bread in the toaster.

Then I take, the egg carton, green peppers, onions cheese, ham and bacon out of the fridge.

I take the cutting board and put it on the counter.

Grabbing a knife I start cutting the green peppers in little square pieces. I then start cutting the onions only to hiss a few seconds later when I cut my finger.

I walk to the sink and start rinsing my finger, willing it to stop bleeding. It kind of stung thanks to the onions.

“What are you doing out of bed” Maddox asks with a frown as he walks down the stairs.

“I am making you breakfast” I answer, grabbing a paper towel and wrapping it around my finger.

Maddox sniffs the air and his eyes zero on my bleeding finger.

In seconds he is next to me “What happened?” He asks, his eyes worriedly scanning my finger.

I shrug “I was cutting some onions and I accidentally cut my finger but it’s nothing serious”

“Nothing serious? It’s bleeding!” Maddox exclaims, running his hands over his face.

Okay, he was freaking out.

“Maddox it’s nothing. Its just a small cut” I say waving my finger in front of his face. It wasn’t even bleeding that much.

Maddox scowls “What if it get’s infected? It could harm the baby and-“

“Oh my gosh Maddox calm down. Nothing is wrong. I just need a bandaid or something. I promise you its alright” I say giving him a hug then wrapping my finger around in another paper towel.

“I’m going to get you a bandaid” Maddox huffs and goes upstairs.

Sighing I turn back to my breakfast making. I start cutting the onions again and almost cut myself again when Maddox’s voice startles me.

“What are you doing? You are going to hurt yourself again” He says loudly

“Maddox I am making breakfast, leave me alone” I hiss. This is getting annoying really fast.

“First of all I won’t leave you alone because I have your bandaid and second of all I’ll make breakfast. You go lay down” Maddox says calmly.

I snatch the bandaid from his hands and wrap it around my cut. “Maddox I can make breakfast” I say, annoyed.

“I know you can but you must be tired let me make it. I’ll bring it to you and you can eat in bed” He says, taking the toasts out of the toaster and putting them on a plate.

“No! Maddox I am making you food in bed! I wanted to make you breakfast not the other way around” I say, feeling a sudden anger.

“Jayda, calm down. You are getting stressed and it can hurt the baby” Maddox voice is calm and collected which only makes me angrier.

“Stop it! You are being so overbearing right now! Give me space! I am not freaking handicapped its a baby. Just leave me the hell alone” I yell, and storm up to the room.

He needs to stop. I am expecting a baby, I am not a baby. He needs to let me do what I always do. I refuse to be treated like this.

As soon as I slam the bedroom door my emotions change like a switch and I start crying.

I just wanted to make breakfast, and he was just being protective and I was mean to him.

He probably hates me now, he didn’t run after me.

He probably left the house to be with Anna.

Anna.

I am going to kill her if Maddox went to see her. I will cut her in little tiny square pieces just like I cut the green peppers and the onions.

I don’t care what Ian thinks, killing his sister will be worth it.

I start pacing around the room.

What if Maddox didn’t go see her?

What if he just leaves me and moves to another state. Or worse, what if he sends me to another state.

He is probably in his office buying me the ticket to Alaska right now.

I don't want to go to Alaska. Its cold and I heard some times there's no sunlight.

I hear a knock on the door and Maddox walks in with a tray with scrambled eggs with bacon and toast.

I was planning on making him an omelette not scrambled eggs.

Maddox slowly puts the tray on the bed and looks at me.

"I am just came here to bring you breakfast. I'll be in my office" Maddox tells me carefully and starts turning around when I stop him.

"No!" I yell and run towards him and wrap my arms around his waist tightly.

"I don't want to go to Alaska, Maddox please don't buy my ticket. I am sorry." I beg frantically, tears running down my face.

"Woah" Maddox mumbles "What are you talking about?" He asks while hugging me back.

I shake my head "Nothing, I am just sorry"

He grabs my face in both hands and kisses me. "It's alright Jayda, but you know I am just worried about you right?"

I nod "Yes but you keep treating me like a kid and it pisses me off. I just want you to treat me normally"

"Its hard, you are carrying my pup. All I want to do is protect you and the baby." He sighs.

"Nothing is going to happen to us, besides. Its not like I am doing anything reckless. All I am doing is making you breakfast." I point out.

He rolls his eyes "You cut your finger"

"Maddox don't start" I snap and he sighs muttering a 'whatever'.

"You are awfully moody today" Maddox says with a grin.

I grin back "You're awfully not moody today"

He laughs "I have a reason to not be moody. The woman I love is carrying my pup"

My smile widens "You are going to be a great dad"

Maddox chuckles “I sure hope so”

I giggle then frown “Speaking of dads. I think it’s time I talk to mine”

I guess it’s finally time to hear what he has to say.

“Are you going to tell him about our baby?” Maddox asks and I shrug.

“It depends on how it all goes”

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 44

Jayda’s POV.

“Are you sure you want to do this? You don’t have to. Confrontations might not be good for our baby” Maddox tries to talk me out of it for the hundredth time.

He thinks that if I talk with my father then I will get too stressed and die or something.

I sigh exasperated “Maddox, we will just talk. We won’t argue”

“Jayda, you exploded on me just because I was going to make breakfast instead of you.” He points out.

I ignore him “You were fine with it two minutes ago! Why don’t you want me to talk to him now?”

“Because you have been acting irrational today. Maybe you should do it tomorrow” he suggests and I glare.

“Are you kidding me Maddox? Did you just call me irrational? How dare you!” I hiss.

He takes a deep breath as if to calm himself. “Look, you are driving me crazy. Calm down and just do it tomorrow” His tone is strained as if he wants to snap at me but deciding against it.

I gape at him. How dare he?

I stare at him for a few seconds and he stares back with a blank face, telling me he is not backing out.

I start crying.

“Why do you treat me like that? I just want to have a civilized conversation and can’t even stand to be around me!”

Maddox runs his hand over his face and starts at me in panic “Jayda no I didn’t mean that. It’s just. Ugh fine. I’ll call Leonardo so he comes over.”

I immediately stop crying, wiping my face “Okay”

I give him a quick hug and he stares at me in shock.

“Ummmm...” Maddox trails off and I smile.

“I need to wash my face. Tell my father to meet me at your office. I want to talk to him alone. And please don’t argue with me over this. I need to do this alone” I mumble then walking towards the bathroom.

Maddox follows behind me. “Done, told him to be here in 5 minutes.”

I rinse my face, trying to erase all of the signs I was crying. “I don’t know how you use mind link so much. It gives me a headache.”

He shrugs “You get used to it”

As I was wiping my face with a towel Maddox hugs me from behind “Are you sure you don’t want me to be with you? I won’t talk or anything” he says kissing the top of my head.

“I’m sure, if I need you then I’ll call you.” Say turning around and giving him a tight hug.

He sighs, lifting my shirt up and rubbing my still flat stomach “I love you guys”

I grin “We love you too”

“We need to go to visit Dr. Jenny. She needs to check everything with the baby is going smoothly”

“Yeah we do” I nod.

We hear a knock on the door. And Maddox pulls away.

“Let’s go” I mumble and walk with Maddox towards the front door.

Maddox opens it and my father is standing there.

His brown, short hair was damp and his face was freshly shaved.

He was wearing a dark blue t-shirt and a black pants. When he saw me he smiled.

“Jayda, Alpha Maddox” he greets and Maddox scowls at him.

“Beta” Maddox says, his voice like steel.

I had never seen Maddox be so hostile towards my father.

“What did you want to talk about Alpha is it about the new pack member?” My father asks.

Maddox shakes his head “You aren’t talking to me. Jayda wanted to talk to you”

Leonardo looked surprised but nods “yeah of course” he quickly says.

I stay quiet and Maddox leads all of us towards his office.

When we get to the door Maddox turns to my dad. “Think twice before saying something hurts or disrespectful to Jayda. I will not hesitate to kill you because at the end of the day I can always find myself a new Beta”

My dad stares at Maddox with wide eyes “Okay, I won’t” he bows his head and walks inside.

Maddox kisses my forehead and leaves, leaving me to face my father.

I walk inside and sit on Maddox chair behind his huge desk.

When I am finally sitting I ignore my dad and start searching through Maddox’s draws until I find a packet of peppermint gun.

I take one without offering my dad some.

I finally turn to Leonardo to see him staring back at me.

I clear my throat and he starts talking. “How are you Jayda?” He asks in a soft voice that reminds me of when I was younger, before he left.

I grin sarcastically at him “Never been better”

“I am happy to hear that” he says.

“I’m sure, anyway You aren’t here to catch up. I want to know everything Leonardo” I say coldly.

“About what?” He asks.

I roll my eyes “About everything. About why you left, about why were you with my mom and had me in the first place, about Jayson, about Karen. About how you cheated on my mother with Karen AND had had Jayson while you still played house with my mother and I. I want to know absolutely everything.”

My father sighs running a hand through his hair.

“I didn’t love your mother” is the first thing he says and I feel as if I had been punched in the gut.

I wanted to cry. I wanted to cry and I wanted to kill him. How dare he just say he didn’t love my mom!

I clear my throat once again “what do you mean? Why were you with her then?”

“I had met Karen on my 16th birthday and it was love at first site and I knew I would spend the rest of my life with her. We were perfect for each other, we never argued and we were always together” he starts and I urge him to keep going.

“But then nothing is ever as good as it seems, and even though we had a strong relationship Karen couldn’t get pregnant. And as a Beta I need to have a baby so they could be the next Beta. We were both 22 when I suggested to find a human to have a baby with.

Of course Karen was against it at first but we were both desperate to have a pup so I went ahead and found your mom. She was beautiful just like you. Blonde hair and perfect body I decided I wanted her-” I cut him off.

“You disgusting asshole. How could you do this to her?” I yell, thank the lord the office was sound proof.

“You said you wanted to know everything and that is what I am telling you. I know the only way you can forgive me is if you know the whole truth.” He says calmly .

“Okay keep going” I take a deep breath.

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 45

“As I was saying, your mother was beautiful and even though I had a mate I wanted her. So as soon as I saw her I charmed her. I spent the rest of the day with her. A few months later we started dating but she still wouldn’t have sex with me, she was against sex before marriage.

Karen kept telling me to find someone else to have a baby with but I didn’t want to. The desire I felt for your mother was too much. So Against Karen’s wishes I married your mom.

A year later your mom got pregnant with you and I had never been happier, Karen and I had planned to take you as soon as you were born and keep you as ours but when you were born we didn't have the heart to do it so we decided to wait until you shifted and we would take you with us. Karen allowed me to stay with your mom as long as we didn't have sex. She wanted me to be in your life. Karen saw you as her daughter, I took you to see her a couple times when you were little and you loved her.

You could say I had a double life. I lived with you and your mom and when I told you guys I was at work I visited Karen.

I loved being with two women, both were so different, one I loved and one I desired.

I kept doing exactly what Karen told me not to I slept with your mother and Karen at the same time. It was a disgusting thing to do but I enjoyed it.

Karen finally got pregnant after a lot of treatments and I was so happy, but I still didn't leave your mom.

Jayson was already 1 years old when Karen found out I was sleeping with your mom and was completely heartbroken. She told me if I didn't leave your mom she would never forgive me and since I was the selfish man I have always been I just left without saying goodbye. I decided I wouldn't try to take custody from your mom since I already had Jayson.

I still loved you though and I suffered so much, you have no idea-" I stop him.

"I've had enough. How dare you say you suffered a lot? You practically used my mother as a sex toy and left without taking her feelings into consideration. Did you once stop and think of how she felt? Hell did you even think about how Karen felt?" i growl out.

"I know what I did was wrong but-" I cut him off once again.

"If Maddox ever asks me if he can fuck another woman to have a pup I would rip him a new asshole. You don't put your mate through that. In fact you don't out anyone through that!" i snap.

I am so angry and disgusted at him, I used to just be angry but deep inside I thought he would give me an explanation that would make me forgive him but after hearing how and why things happen alll feel towards him is even more hate. He not only played me and my mother he played Karen and somewhat Jayson too.

"You disgust me" I say, finally letting the tears fall, I just couldn't stop them, and before I know it I am sobbing and Leonardo is hugging me. Saying he is sorry over and over again.

“How can you be so heartless as in to do something like that and then leave without a care in the world.”

“I did care Jayda, i cared for your mom. I may not have loved her but I did care for her, and I do love you. You are my only daughter and I am so proud of the woman you grew up to be.” he says still hugging me.

“You don’t do that to people you care about” I say pushing him away and wiping my eyes.

“All high ranking wolfs are like that, we don’t think things through.” He says looking at me.

I scowl “Maddox has a higher rank than you and he would never do that. I am sure of it.”

“I didn’t have another choice” he tries to excuse himself.

“There is always another choice. You could have adopted or gotten a surrogate instead of using my mother then tossing her away like trash” I snap, tired of his bullshit.

“I didn’t toss her away” He quickly says and I take the pack of gum and throw it at his face, doing the same thing with all of the papers that were on the desk, I also throw a paper weight at him but sadly he dodges it.

“Stop it! Just stop. I am done. I don’t think I will ever be able to forgive you however I will stand you because of Jayson. I do want to have a relationship with him and you will tell him we are siblings as soon as possible.” I say standing up and brushing the imaginary dust of my clothes signaling the end of the conversation.

“Jayda...” My father trails off.

“Goodbye Leonardo, you can show yourself out” I mumble and leave the office.

As soon as I exit the office Maddox is beside me.

“Are you okay?” He asks and I nod, walking up the stairs.

I hear the front door close and sigh in relief. At least he left.

When we get to the room I collapse on the bed, I am emotionally exhausted.

Maddox plops on the bed next to me “Please tell me”

“He never loved mom” I mumble, turning to face him instead of having my face buried in the pillows.

He frowns "What do you mean?"

"He slept with my mom just so he could have a kid. He actually planned to steal me from her. Who the hell does that?" I say with a scowl.

Maddox shakes his head in disbelief. "Getting a new Beta is sounding better and better by the second"

"No, don't. If you do that Jayson won't get to be Beta and he is really looking forward to it." I quickly say, I would never take Away from Jayson the right to become who he was born to be.

Maddox rubs his eyes tiredly "Fine"

"When is the new pack member coming?" I ask with a yawn.

Maddox scowls, clearly unhappy "He is coming tomorrow"

I snort "fun."

He grins "You'll have to greet him with me. You don't have to be nice, you can be rude like me. Maybe take all of your sudden pregnancy anger on him so I don't have to deal with it"

I hit his shoulder "Shut up Maddox, I don't get angry"

"Sure, and I am a nice lovable person" He says sarcastically.

I give him a quick peck on the lips and snuggle closer to the pillow, still laying on my side. "You are nice and lovable"

He snorts "Sure"

"You totally are" I pinch his cheek and instead of swatting me away he grabs my hand in his and kisses my hand then links my hand through his, further proving my point.

"Jayda, I am an asshole."

"You are the sweetest guy I have ever met"

"Your opinion is biased" he points out.

"How is it biased?" I ask with a chuckle.

He smirks "You love me too much"

I raise an eyebrow at him "Is that so?"

He moves to straddle me "mhm" he dips down and kisses me.

And you can all guess how we spent the rest of the day....

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 46

Jayda's POV

Today I woke up extra early, We were meeting the new pack member but before that I wanted to see Ellie and tell her the news and hang out with her for a while.

The new pack member would be arriving at 9am and it was 6 in the morning so I still had time.

I had a quick breakfast with Maddox who decided he would cook for me again then skipped happily to Ellie and Kyle's house.

I knocked loudly multiple times until Kyle opened the door.

"Morning Jayda, Why are you here?" He says rubbing his eyes.

I smile "Good morning and I came here to talk to my best friend."

"Oh well come in, she is sleeping though" Kyle says stepping aside for me to walk in.

"Oh well I'll wait here while you wake her up" I say sitting down on the sofa.

He quickly shakes his head "Hell no, you go wake her up. I learned the hard way not to wake Ellie up, I don't want to be in the dog house again."

I roll my eyes but nod in understanding, nobody gets in between Ellie and her sleep. Except me of course, I get a kick out of waking her up.

"I'm going to eat" Kyle says and leaves me to wake up the beast, AKA his mate and my best friend.

I stand up and slowly tip toe towards Ellie's room.

As soon as I close enough I jump on the bed and push her off, taking a few steps back so she doesn't kill me.

"What the actual fuck? I swear I will kill you Kyle. No more sex for a whole year" Ellie yells from the top of her lungs, still trying to untangle herself from the blankets.

When she is finally free she scowls at me. "I want to hurt you so bad but I don't do it in fear of Maddox brutally killing me"

I grin "Maddox would probably do that"

Rolling her eyes she throws a pillow my way which ends up hitting me square in the face.

I burst out laughing "Are you done?"

She glares "No" then throws me another pillow that I dodge.

"C'mon I need to talk to you about something" I say while laughing down completely on the bed.

She straightens up quickly "I have to tell you something too"

I instantly get excited, is she pregnant too?

"You first" we both say in unison the burst out laughing.

"Let's say it at the same time then?" I suggest, already mentally planning her baby and mine's wedding.

"Yeah, on three" Ellie says, her voice nervous.

I hold my fingers up and on the count of three we both say

"I'm pregnant"

"I'm moving away with Kyle"

We both freeze. A grin takes over Ellie's face while My eyes fill up with tears.

"You are pregnant?" She exclaims at the same time I say "You are leaving?"

She sighs "I am, Kyle has never been one to stay in one place and I want to travel with him. See the world, I want to explore"

I engulf her in a tight hug "I don't want you to go Eli. You are my best friend. My sister" I start sobbing, my tears staining her shirt.

Ellie rubs my back soothingly "We will still talk Jay, plus we can FaceTime or something. I swear we will not loss contact. We will always be the best friends ever, just a little farther away from each other" her voice breaks at the end and she hugs me tighter.

“I will come visit, I will visit a lot. I promise” Ellie adds, between tears.

“Ellie, you’ve always been there. Since I met you, you have been the only one that has always been there. You are the only one that has always been there” I say, pulling away slightly and wiping my runny nose with my sleeve.

“Jayda now you have someone. You have Maddox who would kill anyone who dared to lay a finger on you, you have Nikki who loves you like family, you have a brother, you have the whole pack. You are not alone. And I am one call away since I know you don’t like mind linking” She finished with a grin, her red puffy eyes still had tears running down just like mine.

I take a deep breath “When are you leaving?”

“We were planning on leaving next month but now that I know you are pregnant there is no way I am leaving without meeting my niece or nephew first” She nudges me playfully.

I grin, at least I will have her for a little bit for time even though it’s not that much longer since a werewolf pregnancy last 5 months.

“I am going to be a mother” I mumble touching my stomach.

“And I am going to be an aunt, I am so excited. I will get your baby so many presents from every place I travel to” She says, practically jumping up and down in excitement.

“How about you? Are they any pups coming in the near future?” I ask her.

Ellie shakes her head “I am on the pill and Kyle always uses protection. He wants to show me the world before we start a family”

“That’s nice” I say.

She nods “It is, anyways did you eat? I am starving” She says and stands up.

“I already ate but I want coffee to wake me up or something. I am extremely tired” I say standing up and following behind her.

As soon as I get to the living room the smell of tuna enters my nose and I run towards the bathroom to vomit my breakfast.

Even after emptying my stomach, the smell of tuna was still in the air and I couldn’t stop gagging.

“Are you okay?” Ellie asks frantically.

I was still doubled over the toilet, gagging but since my stomach was already empty nothing came out, I couldn't even speak.

I quickly close the door and gag a few more times until I am finally calmed down.

"That smell...the tuna, uh the smell of fish always upsets my stomach." i say taking a deep breath and washing my mouth with some water from the sink to try and get rid of the after vomit acid taste and smell.

"Oh I am sorry Jay, I'll tell Kyle to put it away or something" she says but I shake my head.

"No, I am leaving. My stomach is upset now so I'd rather just lay down for a bit before I have to go meet the new pack member." I mumble.

"New pack member?" Ellie asks.

I nod "Maddox is pretty mad about it, you know how he dislikes new people"

Ellie snorts "Oh, I know. Remember the first time you guys met?"

I roll my eyes "How could I forget? Anyways I really don't feel well so I am going to head out"

We hug each other "I love you Jayda"

"Love you too Eli"

Holding my breath I quickly open the bathroom door and exit the house.

The first thing I do when I reach mine and Maddox's home is brush my teeth, I make myself some tea to soothe my unsettled stomach then lay down on my bed, deciding against telling Maddox I was back, he would only worry and he does enough of that already.

So after drinking a few sips of the tea I finally fall asleep.
