

Mates with Alpha Maddox Chapter 9

I dry myself and quickly put some underwear on. I sit on the bed with my legs crisscrossed and start applying my make up. I decide on using some matte red lip stick, for my eyes I used eye liner mascara and did a black and red smokey eye. Lastly, I put on a little bit of blush.

I stand up and pad my way towards the walk in closet where I had put my dress and heels earlier.

I put the dress on the bed and look at it. I just love it so much.

In the middle of me admiring the dress, the bedroom door burst open making me shriek and run towards the bed so I can cover my underwear clad body.

I hear someone laughing and I peek to see Nikki with tears in her eyes and laughing like a hyena.

"What the hell? I thought you were a murderer" I screech, untangling myself from the blankets.

She shrugs "I was ready so I came here to help you get ready. You already did your make up so I'll do your hair" she says with a smile.

I smile back "Thanks" I say slipping on my dress and heels.

"No problem, now sit. We need to tell Maddox to get you a vanity" she mutters making me roll my eyes.

Nikki puts my hair on a big braided bun.

I re apply my lipstick and stand in front of the mirror.

My dress, hair, make up and heels looked awesome.

(A/N outfit on the side, I already described it when they were at the store so there is no need to do it again ?)

Nikki and I walked down the stairs and see Maddox and some other guy in the living room.

"Baby!" Nicole squeals running over to the guy Maddox was talking to and hugging him.

Maddox eyes meet mine and he smiles, walking over to me. "You look beautiful, your dress is a little bit too sexy but tonight people will find out you are mine so its okay" he says giving me a sweet kiss on the lips and wrapping his arms around me.

Nicole clears her throat making us pull a part.

“So, this is my mate Luke, Luke this is Jayda our Luna” Nikki says with a smile.

Luke smiles bowing his head. “Nice to meet you Luna”

“Oh, no please just call me Jayda” I say with a smile.

Luke looks at Maddox as if asking him if he can call me by my name And Maddox nods “Luke, you are family. Of course that if Jayda wants you to call her By her name you can” he tells Luke and then turns to me “but, baby other people on the pack will have to call you Luna. Your friends may call you By your name but the rest are to use your tittle” Maddox says pointedly.

I sigh, “okay”

“Can we go party now?” Nikki asks loudly making us all roll our eyes.

“Yes we can” Luke says smiling at her.

We all exit the Alpha house and walk towards the same clearing the teens were training, but now it had a stage, tables, chairs and lots of food and drinks.

The kids were running around playing some kind of game, some of the guys were playing football. Girls were talking and laughing. I saw Caitlin talking with some people who I guess are her friends, she was wearing a dark purple dress that looked like a second skin, black heels and she had her hair pin straight. She had a noticeable amount of make up . Mary on the other hand was sitting in one of the chairs, her shoulders sagging and she looked like if she wanted to be anywhere but here, she was wearing a light blue dress that went to her knee’s. Her glasses and her hair was down in soft waves. Her green eyes looked bored and she wasn’t wearing any make up.

I frowned, why was Mary alone?

I decided to go talk to her for a bit, as I was about to walk towards her Maddox stopped me.

“Where are you going?” He yells over the music.

“I’m going to talk to Mary for a bit” I say with a smile.

“Okay, but don’t take long, I am going to introduce you to the pack soon” he says and I nod walking away.

When I get to where Mary was sitting, she doesn’t notice me. She is just staring ay the distance.

“Hey Mary” I say cheerfully.

That seems to snap her out of whatever trance she was in “hi Jayda, sorry about that. I spaced out” Mary says sheepishly.

I wave it off “It’s alright, now what are you doing here all alone?” I ask her.

“Well, since I don’t have any friends then I have to be alone, also my mom dragged me here because this thing” she says, motioning all of our surroundings “is mandatory”

I frown “Don’t say that, I bet you have many friends and if you don’t then it’s their loss” I say with a small smile.

“Yeah I do, in school but they are humans. One of the reasons I get picked on is because I am friends with the humans” she says with irritation in her voice.

“Technically, all of you guys are humans until you shift, the only thing that is different is that you heal faster” I say.

“That’s what I say” she exclaims.

I was about to answer but Maddox appears out of nowhere.

“Mary, forgive me but I need to steal Jayda for a second” Maddox says politely, it’s like it’s hard for him to not be the cold person he is with people who aren’t close to him.

I am going to have to work on that.

“See you later Mary” I say waving at her. I lock eyes with Caitlin and she scowls at me. I really don’t know why that girl dislikes me so much. Well Mary did say she thinks I am trying to take their Luna’s place, I guess I can’t really be mad at her for being loyal.

Maddox steps on the stage and whistles loudly. All eyes snap to the stage as soon as he does that. The kids, teens and everyone stops what they were doing to listen to their Alpha.

“Hello everyone” Maddox’s voice booms.

In return I hear lots of “hey” “hi” or “hello”

“I gathered all of you here today to celebrate something or well someone who is very important to me, some of you may already know, and if you don’t then you will find out now” he says and almost everyone looks on edge.

“I found my mate, and your Luna, her name is Jayda Donovan, and before you ask yes she is Beta Leonardo’s daughter, come up here babe” Maddox says waving me over.

But I can't move, I feel frozen. Well at least I couldn't move until some one or should I say Nikki pushed me towards the stage, i heard some of the adults chuckle making me blush.

Once I was standing on the stage beside Maddox he wrapped an arm around my waist. I looked around and saw Mary with a huge on her face and Caitlin looked pale and scared shitless, why is she scared? I am not going to hurt her.

"Now, I will only say this once. If any male tries anything with my mate I will drag him towards the cellar and torture him more than I have to any rogue because nobody touches what is mine" Maddox says as if he were talking about the weather, many males gulped while nodding in understanding.

"I expect all of you to show the respect that she is entitled to, and to treat her well, welcome her into the pack. If I find out someone is treating her badly there will be consequences" He says seriously.

"Do you want to say something baby?" He whispers in my ear.

I nod. "I just want to say that I hope we get along fine and that if you guys ever need something don't hesitate to contact me, I know I am new here but I know that with your help I will become a great Luna" I say smiling at them. Everyone started cheering making me smile.

At least I know they accept me.

Maddox cleared his throat and everyone shut up.

"Thank you for your time, enjoy the party and if guys want to ask us something we'll be walking around" Maddox says politely making everyone grin and go back to what they were doing before they introduced me.

The rest of the night was spent talking and laughing with my new pack.
