Alex's POV

I felt my eyes snap open. I was definitely not in control, but how in the world was I not? James had given me the potion!

"Where is she?"-Ayla snarled. Standing up from the bed.

"Ayla you don't want this!"-James said.

"James I am very pissed right now. Be a very good Gamma and tell me where is she?"- She said with gritted teeth.

"I have no idea who are you talking about. Now calm down Ayla you don't want this."

"Ayla please let me be in control!"-I said.

"No Alex, I am done letting these sorry excuses of mates ruin me. I will kick his balls so hard I will send him flying to pluto!"-She said.

Ayla walked towards the door but James stood in front of her.

"Ayla please, give Alex back control!"-James begged. No wait... his eyes were glowing. Oliver was in control.

"I. Will. Not. Now move Oliver I don't want to hurt you!"-Ayla growled.

I was fighting her so hard for control but she wasn't budging. She shoved James to the side and using our speed she ran following Gabriel's scent. It led us to Uncle Stefano's office.

"Ayla stop this right now!"- I said and she completely ignored me. I felt James holding her from the back. Big mistake...

"Let me go James!"-She threw her head back hard and James instantly released his hold.

She abruptly opened the doors of Uncle Stefano's office, and they all looked at us with wide eyes.

"Ayla please don't!"-James said standing in front. Ayla pushed him a little to hard and he went flying against the wall.

"I will fucking kill her for touching what's mine! Where is that fucking whore?"-Ayla yelled. Oh goddess she did not just say that.

"You!"-She snapped her head towards Gabriel.

"Alexandra?"-Gabriel said.

"Oh you wish this was her but no dear mate. This is Ayla."

"Calm down. Please let explain!"-Gabriel said holding his hands up in surrender.

"Explain?! You want to explain why a whore launched herself to your arms and you didn't push her off instantly! You are just like Archer!"- She snarled storming towards him.

"James now!"- I said through mind-link and using his wolf speed ran towards me and injected me another dose. We fell to our knees, I felt very dizzy.

She weaken and I took the chance to take over.

"I'm so sorry Alex, I just can't let him hurt us. I can't take anymore pain. One rejection was already enough, I don't think I can survive another one"- Ayla whimpered.

"Hey it's okay calm down Ayla. I understand you, we are one remember? You got me, I got you. Everything will be okay."

Gabriel instantly wrapped his arms around me and lifted me up, the electric current that traveled through my body from our contact was incredibly strong that it made me flinch. I was lost in the color of his beautiful eyes, the bond was twice as strong than what it was towards Archer. How is that possible?

But I wasn't going to fall for that again. I tried to push him but I felt like a kitten pushing against a wall. I tried again and again but nope nada...

"Hey, hey look at me Alex. Please look at me."-He said tightening his hold around me intensifying the sparks.

"Let. Me. Go!"-I said struggling.

"I will once you calm down!"- He said pressing my head against his chest, his scent instantly invaded my senses and I felt my muscles relax.

"Mother... Father. Would you please give us a minute alone?"-Gabriel said.

"Of course son"- They said and walked out. Oh goddess how I'm I going to face them after Ayla went Psycho!

"Gamma James can you step out?"

"Alex?"-James asked me.

"It's okay James. I will meet with you in a few minutes. If anything I will mindlink you."-I said and he walked out.

"Are you okay?"- Gabriel asked.

"Yes, could you please let go of me?"- I had to keep my distance having him so close and his scent surrounding me was affecting me.

"Is that what you want?"-He asked.

"Yes"

"No"- Ayla said.

"Bro you're bipolar!"

He released his hold and I took a step back.

"Whatever you want to say, you have 5 minutes."- I growled.

"Listen Alex. What you saw down there is definitely not what it looked like. I won't lie to you and say we didn't get sexually involved because we did!"- He said and I growled.

"Calm down. It was just twice Alex and it meant nothing to me. Other than that we had only been good friends, I've known her since we were kids. I am 25 years old, and believe me when I say I waited for you. Everyone finds their mate by 18 the latest is 20 and honestly I thought I was never going to find anyone, I always had this feeling about us being Crescent mates but I thought you were dead. It was my mistake and I regret it horribly but please believe me, she means nothing to me. Alex give me one more chance to make this right. Please let me hold you."-Gabriel said almost begging.

"Bullshit!"- I growled.

"Do you think if I knew you were still alive I would have been a man whore? God Alex, I was going to be crown as King and I had to pick a chosen mate. I thought I was never going to have a mate at all Alex. I'm sorry, I'm really sorry. Please understand me"- He said. I hated it, I hated that I did. It's not like I was a saint after what almost happened with Luke. I bet he will find out eventually but now I'm definitely not the moment.

I do understand!"-I mumbled angrily.

"God I thought you were dead. I can't believe you're here and you're my mate, you're all mine. I'm so stupid how did I not think of the connection I had with you!"- Gabriel said.

"What did you mean by Crescent mates?"- I asked confused, pushing him slightly to look at his breathtaking eyes.

"Remember how possessive I felt over you when we were kids. Or when my mother said I would cry because they would try to take you away from me. Alex that was the bond between us. It's very rare, it has only happened a handful of times. We are Crescent mates."- Gabriel said.

It makes sense now. But how? What about Archer... I don't get it.

"Gabriel I had a mate before you."- I said. Might as well take the bull by the horns.

"What?!"-He asked angrily.

"Now is my turn to explain. When my parents died, I made it to Golden Moon. A wonderful man found me and adopted me despite what the Alpha said. My father Carl he was the best warrior of the pack, he trained me and taught me how to use all kinds of weapons. He raised me as his own until I was 16. Rogues killed him. The Alpha made me an Omega instead of a warrior like my father. I instantly became the packhouse slave, they would bully me and the some of the girls used to beat me. I couldn't fight them because one of them was the girlfriend of the next Alpha in line, Archer my first mate. When I turned 18 he found me in the laundry room and basically rejected me instantly because I was an Omega. Nobody knew exactly who I was until I ran away and used my title to accept his rejection. Either way we did it wrong he never used my real name so our bond never broke. Fast forward to the meeting with the council a few days ago. He found out I am Alpha Moon from Moonlight Pack, after the meeting was over he went after me to my pack and I rejected him on the spot and I blacked out from the pain. While I was out Selene came to me and told me a few things... one of them was you. She also talked to Archer. 2 days later he accepted my rejection. Archer was just the push I needed to get out of Golden Moon and find my destiny, Selene knew he would reject me. So I don't know what to believe now."- I said looking at him.

"Wow... That is just crazy... I'm so sorry you had to go through that!"- Gabriel said stunned.

"I know"

"This idiot Archer was just that Alex, a push. You were always mine and I was always yours. I don't care if he came before me, you are here now and I won't let you go. Do you understand?"- He said and I only nodded.

"Goddess you are so beautiful. I'm one lucky bastard."- He said cupping my face with his large hands, I blushed fiercely! Ayla was drooling.

"I want to tell you what Selene said when she came to me."

"What is it?"

"Can you please mindlink Uncle Stefano and Aunt Stella and ask them to come here?"- Their about to know I let out the marking and powers issue. Oh Goddess please help me, you caused this!

"Of course" He said and his eyes clouded.

Well this is about to get a lot more intense...
