Gabriel's POV

I walked out of the bathroom after taking a shower, and the first thing I did was look for Alex but she wasn't in the room. I got out of the room, maybe she is in the living room or in the kitchen... but she wasn't and I started to freak out.

"I love you Gabriel!" I stopped on my track and froze. Her voice sounded more like a whisper, it wasn't her melodic happy voice.

"Alex where are you?" I said but she never replied.

"Gabriel we need to go! They took her. Leslie is severely injured in the pack hospital." James said as he ran out of the elevator. 𐄂

"What do you mean James? Where's Alex?!" I growled.

"We don't know. Let's go! She disappeared on the north border. That's where Leslie was found. "

We ran outside the packhouse and into the woods, as soon as we reached the woods I shifted into my pure white wolf and ran as fast as I could. As I got closer I could smell blood and my senses went crazy thinking the worst. I quickly shifted not caring that I was naked. 𐄂

"Where is she?" I said to the border patrol and trackers.

"We can't find her Prince Gabriel. This is where her scent ends. Whoever took her must have masked their scents." One of the trackers said.

"Why is there blood on the floor?" I growled.

"It's Leslie's, she was stabbed in the stomach. We think that someone must have lured her here to get to Alex." James said.

"In the packhouse hospital. Mark is with her. He already contacted all the Alphas from the neighbor packs, they are ready to look for Alex. We'll except for Alpha Richard" James said and I growled. The bastard just signed his death warrant. 𐄂

"I need to talk to Leslie now" I said and shifted into my wolf. I ran towards the pack hospital. 𐄂

"I need a shirt and shorts" I told one of the nurses and she quickly came back with what I asked. James came running a few minutes later.

"What room is Leslie Jacobs in?" I asked coldly. I was going crazy not knowing where my mate was. Alexander snarling and growling because he couldn't connect with Ayla. 𐄂

"Room 205, your majesty"

I walked towards the room trying to call myself, I didn't want to scare Leslie but I couldn't control my aura. I knocked twice and heard Mark say come in. I entered the room and Leslie was awake, but she looked very pale. 𐄂

"How are you Leslie?" I asked.

"I'm not fine Gabriel, they took her because of me" She said sobbing.

"No don't say that, you are a victim just as she is. You got injured Leslie, thank goodness the knife wasn't close to the baby." Mark said. 𐄂

"He's right Leslie. This is not your fault but I can assure you I will find whoever did this and they will pay." I growled. "I need you to tell me what happened." 𐄂

"Well, I was walking home back from a doctor check-up when an Elite mind linked me saying he couldn't get a hold of Mark and there was someone in the north border asking for permission to enter the pack lands. I knew Mark was in a meeting with the Alphas so I went there myself, thinking it was maybe another Alpha that couldn't make it on time to the meeting. How stupid of me." She said sobbing. "When I got there I saw all the warriors and Elites dead, I panicked and out of nowhere a man came from behind me and placed a knife in my throat, he said I had to mindlink Alex and tell her to meet me here alone or else he would kill me, he discovered I am pregnant he said if she didn't come alone he would kill my baby, I got scared and I mindlinked Alex. She arrived at the border a few minutes later and he told her she had to take my place or he would kill me so she did and he injected her with something, I saw how her body fell limp in his arms, he placed her on the floor facing me and then he stabbed me. I feel so fucking stupid, I will never forgive myself for this" Leslie sobbed. 𐄂

"Mark I need your best trackers, I need you to prepare your troops and inform the Alphas. As soon as we have a clue of where she can be we are attacking" I said.

"On it" He said.

I walked out of the room and head towards the packhouse to get my phone.

"Father"

"Son is everything okay?" He said.

"No, Alex has been kidnapped. I need you to send our best royal trackers to Moonlight"

"I will go to Moonlight as well. I will help you find her son. We will bring her back safe." My father said.

"Thank you" I ended the call and threw my phone against the wall.

"We need to find her as soon as possible" Alexander whimpered.

"Where are you Alex?" I murmured. 𐄂

Alex's POV

I woke up in a dark cell, it smelled like death and dry blood, I instantly felt my stomach churning and ran towards a corner to throw up. 𐄂

I tried to orb but it was useless I kept ending up in the same cell. There must be some kind of magic stopping me from getting out of here.

"Ayla where are we?" I said.

"I don't know Alex but this is not good. I need you to be brave, we can make it out of here."

"Ayla listen to me on the first chance we get we are fighting our way out" I said.

"Hello?" A soft voice said from the cell in front of mine.

"Who's there?" I growled walking towards the bars of the cell.

"Who are you?" She growled back coming closer to the bars where there was a little bit more of light. I could clearly see her. Her hair was the same color as mine, but her eyes were a beautiful tone of blue. If someone would have seen us together they would have thought we were related. 𐄂

"Tell me who are you?" I demanded.

"My name is Aadhira Silver. Who are you?" She said and I gasped. No this couldn't be. 𐄂

"Alexandra... Silver" I said and she gasped.

"You are the last female Silver wolf, the Alpha of Alphas. You are the last descendant of my mother." She said in shock. 𐄂

"Your mother?!" Oh fuck no! This must be a nightmare.

"I am the daughter of Selene Silver and Demetrius Verlice, a hybrid and an abomination. That's why I am here, I've spent my whole life in this cell because my father is too ashamed of having a daughter half-wolf, half-vampire. Nobody knows about me. Only my father, brother, and a few other vampires close to my father." She said. 𐄂

"H-how old are you?" I whispered.

"753 years old." She said lowering her head. 𐄂

"This must be a nightmare, this can't be happening" I said gripping my hair walking back and forth in my cell.

"I know everything about you, Alexandra. Everything about Silver wolfs, we can get out of here using your powers" Aadhira said. 𐄂

"I don't even know how to control them!"

"I can help you, please trust me." She said. 𐄂

"We need a plan" I said.

"I think I may have one" 𐄂

"I'm listening..." I said walking closer to the bars. 𐄂
