

Alex's POV

↻

It's been 5 weeks since I got here. They have been hell! But thankfully I have Aadhira here with me. About 4 weeks ago I found out about my pregnancy and I honestly never felt scared as I was that day for the life of my little pup. My little bundle of joy is what keeps Ayla and me sane.

↻

I have been working on controlling my powers and thankfully I did with Aadhira's help. I'm able to orb from cell to cell easily, I can also move things with my hands.

↻

I also met 3 other vampires here that are prisoners. Jamie, Dylan and Noah, they all have agreed to help us escape.

↻

Kade has been here a few times but the bastard is scared of me even though he tries to hide it. He has tortured me twice and threaten to kill everyone in my pack if I don't mate with him and let him mark me, which I know he's blinding he's not stupid to go against my pack and the royals. His stupid ass Vampire brain doesn't realize I'm already marked, he can't mark me and he can't see it because he's not a werewolf.

↻

The 2 times he has tortured me, he has injected me with wolfsbane. To say it was painful is the least, he whipped me until I was unconscious, thankfully Ayla was numb with so much wolfsbane, she or Gabriel wouldn't feel the pain.

He isn't stupid he never comes alone, the first time he came here alone thinking I was a weak she-wolf, I shied and almost killed him but his stupid minions came to rescue his ass.

Our plan is finally in motion now that I completely have control over my powers. We will wait until the guard comes with our food, I am going to orb out the cell, kill him and take the keys to open the cells. We are going to leave the dungeons and get out of here. That fucking bastard and his father will pay. Aadhira and I will make sure of it. I will make him regret hurting my family.

"Ready?"-Aadhira asked

"I was born ready"-I said. We could hear the guard walking towards us. I waited until he was in front of my cell and quickly orb behind him sticking my hand through his body and pulling out his heart.

↻

"Oh my fucking goddess it worked"-I said in shock.

"Are you cursing my mother? "-Aadhira raised a brow and laughed."Hurry open my cell before they come!"

↻

I quickly opened her cell and the others.

"Okay, now we need to get out of here. We will go through that door"-I said pointing to the door on the end of the hallway." and our only option is to kill whoever comes across us. Aadhira, you and I will go find your stupid father and brother and put an end to all this. We can't let them live, they won't stop coming after us."

"I know Alex, I want them dead as much as you do. I don't care if they are my blood, they will pay for what they did to my mother and I."-Aadhira said.

↻

"Okay, everybody understood?"-I said looking at them and they nodded

We silently walked towards the door. I slowly twisted the knob and peeked, there were 2 guards. I turned to look at Aadhira and the 3 Vampires and signaled with my finger about the guards.

↻

I abruptly pushed the door and pulled their attention towards me, I lied my hand imagining their necks between them, and did a twist motion snapping their necks. Jamie and Noah rapidly got to them and ripped their hearts out.

↻

"That was fucking cool!"-Jamie said.

"Okay now we have to follow those stairs up. I can only take 2 at a time, so if there's more you will all have to fight"-I whispered and they nodded.

↻

We made our way up the stairs and like before, I slowly opened the door and peeked. There was no one. They are literally stupid... I don't hate vampires anymore but boy I swear these were a superior level of dumb.

"Why is the castle alone?"-I whispered.

"They're not stupid Alex, too many people would be suspicious and your mate would have found you."-Aadhira said.

"That's still stupid to me. Do you know where they could be?"-I asked.

"They must be in my father's office. I know the way."-Aadhira said.

↻

"Okay. Jamie, Dylan, and Noah I will need you three to guard the door of the office. If anyone comes near, kill them."-I said and they nodded.

We walked through the long hallway and we were about to turn left when Aadhira spotted 2 more guards. She instantly signaled us to stop and whispered about the guards. I took a few steps forward until I could see them and snapped their necks, Dylan and Noah ran towards them using their vampire speed and ripped their hearts out.

We silently walked towards the office doors and we could hear Kade and Demetrius talking.

"You need to mark her Kade, stop wasting time"

"She's a fucking beast! she almost killed me and you know that"

"She's strong. Imagine the type of powerful heirs you can produce? We would be able to reign the werewolves!"

↻

Over my fucking dead body!

I turned to look at Aadhira silently asking her if she was ready and she nodded. We kicked the door at the same time and the doors flew open.

"You will never reign the werewolves! Today is the day you both die"-I growled releasing my aura. A powerful thunderstorm erupted in the sky, the thunders rumbling loudly making the glass of the windows shake. A bolt of powerful lightning broke all the glass from the windows.

"I am the last silver wolf, Daughter of Alpha Blake Silver, and descendant of Selene. Alpha of Alphas, and today you will pay for all the damage you have caused to me and my ancestors!"-I roared, my voice sounded animalistic.

↻

I could see the fear in their eyes. They were frozen in their spots

"Today is the day you die!"-Aadhira roared.

I launched at Kade extending my claws but he was quick and moved.

"You're stupid if you think you can kill me"-Kade hissed.

"I almost killed you once you fucking blood-sucking whore leech!"-I growled and he launched at me I quickly dodged his punch and punched him in the nose in return making him fall a few feet from me. I could hear Aadhira and her father fighting but I was too busy to be distracted.

↻

"ENOUGH! Stop testing my patience"- He hissed trying to stand up.

"I want you dead and my own patience is as small as your dick"- I growled.

"Alex the fire in the torch, use it to burn him and take advantage of it"-Ayla said.

I lied my arm and quickly pulled the fire towards my hand and threw it at his burning face. I launched towards him making him fall to the ground, I got on top of him when I was about to pull his heart out he pulled a needle out of his jeans and injected it in my left thigh. I instantly started feeling dizzy and he pushed me taking the chance to stand and binding me by my neck.

"You will be the one dying today you fucking beast. If I can't have you then no one will! I will fucking cut your chest open and rip your heart out slowly"-He hissed and took a knife out. I started struggling to breathe, I felt weak and I couldn't feel Ayla.

I felt how he plunged the knife in my chest and a blink of an eye, Aadhira tackled him off me. I felt my body hit the floor and with my right hand I pulled the knife out.

I snapped my head towards Kade and Aadhira. Kade was onto of her choking her to death, with the little strength I had left I ran towards them, I plunged my hand inside Kade's body as hard as I could, and ripped his heart out. His lifeless body fell on top of Aadhira and she instantly pushed him off.

↻

I collapsed to my knees not being able to hold myself anymore, I was losing blood dramatically. Ayla was numb, she couldn't heal me. Aadhira came rapidly to my side and held me between her arms.

"Come on Alex you can do this, we need to get out of here. You can orb, leave me here. Save yourself. Go to your mate I taught you how to do it"-She said.

"No! you're coming with me. Mindlink Jamie, Noah, and Dylan tell them to find Moonlight and give me your hand"-I said.

I took her hand and weakly stood up. I closed my eyes and tapped into our mate bond feeling Gabriel, I imagined myself in front of him.

↻

I opened my eyes and saw him about to walk out with Mark but he stopped and snapped his head towards me.

"Gabriel"-I tried to scream, but I was so weak it came out like a whisper.

"Oh my Goddess Alex!"-Mark yelled

I felt my body collapse but it never hit the floor, the last thing I remember is feeling the sparks from his touch...

We are finally safe little pup.
