"Sure"- He said opening one and I saw his jaw almost drop to the floor. "Holy motherfucking shit!"-Luke said in shock. "What is it?" "These are all banking accounts under your name Alex! You are filthy fucking rich"- He said and everyone's jaw dropped including mine." And this one is your birth certificate and a few other documents about your identity." "I'm hungryyyyy"-Carlos said again. "Fine let's pack all the money in our backpacks and find a motel where we can stay and find something to eat."-I said. We packed the money and le Silver Blood. We walked miles until we got to a small town and found a decent motel to stay in for a few days. Carlos and James had gone to buy some pizzas and we were all waiting for them in my room. "So ummm Alex Why did you leave your pack?"-Luke asked curiously. "So ummm Alex Why did you leave your pack?"-Luke asked curiously. "I found my mate"- I said while everyone looked at me in shock. "He is the Alpha of Golden Moon Pack. He rejected me because he said he needed a stronger Luna. He was already engaged to the Gamma's daughter so he had to reject me. Everyone thought I was an Omega. When my father Carl found me, he convinced the Alpha to let him keep me. He raised me and loved me like his own child. He also trained me and taught me all I know about combat and weapons When he died the Alpha demoted me as an Omega and not a warrior like my father. They treated me like a slave, they insulted me and the fiancee of my so-called mate used to be at me up in front of everyone. So I accepted his rejection before I stepped out of the pack territory. I used my real name to accept it and when I did he said Wait. But of course, I didn't I ran out of there and well I found a bunch of rouges and beat one up and y'all know the rest."-I said trying to hold my tears.
