

Alex's POV

* Play the song while you read if you want. This chapter is so good!

Dinner with Luke went amazing.

My nerves were driving me insane, I know I needed someone to talk to and I know the perfect pair that can help me.

"Steph, Les I need both of you in my o ices now"

"On our way Alpha"-They replied almost instantly.

I paced in my o ices nervous, I want everything to be perfect with Luke tonight but I am completely naive when it comes to sex and seduction techniques.

knock. knock

"Come in"

"Hey Alex"-They said at the same time.

"Hey girls... I need your help with um something."

"What is it?"-Les asked and Steph raised one brow.

"Well um... How do I say this with out sounding dumb?..."

"You're having sex with Luke aren't you?"-Steph asked smirking and I nodded stupidly not knowing what to say.

"And if I'm right you're still a virgin"-Steph said.

"Oh my goddes Alex are you?"-Les asked surprised.

"I-i am"

"Aww babe everything will be fine!

Your first time needs to be special Alex, I won't lie and tell you it's all going to be unicorns and rainbows because at first it's not. It will be painful and you will bleed just a little but a er, it will feel amazing. Trust Luke, let him guide you. He won't make you do anything you don't want. They'll be things new to you that you won't like, and if they happen just say no Alex don't feel pressured to do them. Sex is the best part of being a werewolf"

"Okay"

"Do you still have the lingerie we bought a few months ago from VS?"- Leslie asked

"Yeah it's still new"-I said chuckling.

"Alex is your monkey shaved?"-Leslie asked and I stared at her confused.

"My what?"

"Down there Alex, have you ever shaved?"-Steph asked.

"I've never shaved but I always use Nair so yes my monkeys bald"- They looked at each other and started laughing.

"Perfect! What time are you going to meet him and where?"-Steph asked.

"Well I told him at 10 but we actually never decided where..."

"It's 8 now. You need to get going Alex, take a nice hot bath and get that sexy lingerie on that goddess body of yours and remember what I said about the rainbows and unicorns"-Leslie said.

"Okay now go! You need to get ready."-Steph said and I ran to my room and took a long warm bath to ease my nerves and anxiety.

I stepped out of the bathtub and wrapped my hair in a towel and dried my body, I slipped my robe on and walked into my closet to get my lingerie.

Once I was done, I went to my vanity, I dried and straighten my long silver hair.

I looked at the clock at it was 9:35 pm.

25 more minutes... Should I go to him? Should I wait for him here? What if he's waiting for me in his room? I was bloody nervous and on the verge of an anxiety attack.

I can't wait anymore my anxiety is going to kill me. So I decided to go to his room before I started double thinking everything. I put my robe on and walked to his floor.

As I was getting closer to his room I could clearly hear talking coming from his room. Maybe Mark is there? I thought but as I got closer I could hear clearer what they were saying.

"We can't do this again Laura, I love Alex"

"I am your mate Luke for gods sake!"

My heart sank a er I heard this. He's been lying to me. Oh God he found his mate and they mated, their bond is half complete. How stupid am I?

"I know, I know and I'm sorry"

"You're not sorry Luke! Why would you pick her over me? Your mate! Is it because she is our Alpha? I will kill her I don't care who she is."

Ayla and I took that as a challenge. No Alpha likes being challenged.

"No Laura, I have loved Alex since I met her. But meeting you complicated everything the pull towards you is strong."

"Then don't fight it Luke"- I could hear them kissing. I put a hand over my mouth to mu le my sobs, I could hear Ayla whimpering.

I wiped my tears and controlled my breathing. He was never mine and I knew that.

"Ayla I need you for this"

"I got you Alex"

I kicked the door open and walked inside, my aura coming out of me in waves, it felt dangerous and murderous. I could hear the thunder starting to rumble in the sky and the lighting striking powerfully.

Luke pushed her away and stared at me in shock.

"Sweetheart"

"Don't you fucking dare to call me that again!"-I yelled, my voice sounded more animalistic and I'm sure my eyes were glowing silver. Ayla was on the edge.

"Alex pleas-"

"Why?"-I cut him o

"Alex I am so sorry. I didn't know I was going to find my mate"

"Since when?"-I asked. My face nor my voice held any emotion. I was a blank canvas to them.

"Alex..."

"I ASKED SINCE WHEN BETA!"-I commanded in my Alpha tone.

"3 weeks ago"-He said hanging his head. The girl was in a corner of the room shaking like a leaf.

"Funny didn't she say she would kill us?"-Ayla said smirking.

"So your telling me we have dated for a month, and you had your mate all this time?"- He didn't respond.

"You know what's funny Luke? You hate Archer so much... but you are just like him"

"Alex don't say that"

"Actually your worst... you mated with her. We're you planning to keep her here as your mistress? Did you think I wouldn't know? I AM YOUR ALPHA, THIS IS MY PACK"-I yelled the last part letting my aura completely out, making them submit.

"Did you ever really love me?"-I tear rolled down my face.

"I've never stopped loving you Alex, please don't do this. I know what I did was fucked up but I have never lied about my feelings towards you."-Luke said trying to search for my eyes.

"I understand Luke, I understand how you feel the mate bond and the pull towards her"-I paused trying to keep my emotions under control.

"But I didn't deserve this. You played with me, and don't even bother saying otherwise. I can't say you cheated on me because you basically cheated on her, she's your mate"

"Alex please"

"SHUT UP BETA, YOUR ALPHA IS NOT DONE TALKING"-He flinched at my animalistic tone.

"I did love you, so much that it hurts, and I forgive you"-I felt every part of my heart breaking. I had to go through this once more, Ayla was whining and whimpering.

"You do?"-He cut me o and I growled.

"I forgive but never forget Luke. Other Alphas in my place wouldn't even doubt about making you a rouge... but I know better. I owe you alot to condemn you to that life. You will step down as my Beta until I consider you are worth the position. A Beta never betrays his Alpha, and you've done more than that Luke."

"Im so sorry Alex"-Luke said with tears rolling down his face.

"You sure are."-I said coldly. I turned to look at his mate who was staring at me scared and I felt Ayla's anger bubble up. She took over and stormed towards her.

She grabbed her by her throat and li ed her slamming her against the wall.

"Alex, Ayla please don't"-Luke said and that pissed us o even more.

"YOU DARED TO SAY YOU WOULD KILL US? LOOK AT YOUR ALPHA WHEN IM TALKING TO YOU OMEGA!"-I know bitchy of me to pull the Alpha and Omega cards but she has to know her position in my pack and never challenge me again.

"I-im s-sorry Alpha"-She said struggling to breathe.

"Never challenge me again because next time I won't hesitate to snap your neck and feed you to the pigs"-Ayla said and that took me by surprise but I couldn't blame her. I let go of her neck and she fell to the floor.

"Gather your stu , you're moving to one of the new houses on the south side of the pack. You won't be going with me to the next council meeting either."

"Alex please I understand protect you don't want me here but please let me go with you I need to protect you"-Luke said almost begging.

"I need to protect myself from you"-I said but it came out like a whisper. I walked out of his room and ran back to mine slamming the door behind me.

This will not break me. I am the Alpha of one of the strongest packs in the US. I am the last descendant of Blake Silver, the last silver wolf. I am stronger and I won't fold I am the Alpha of Alphas. I said trying to stop myself from crying. The storm outside matched my feelings perfectly.

"You are special bebe"- The voice of my father sounded in my head.

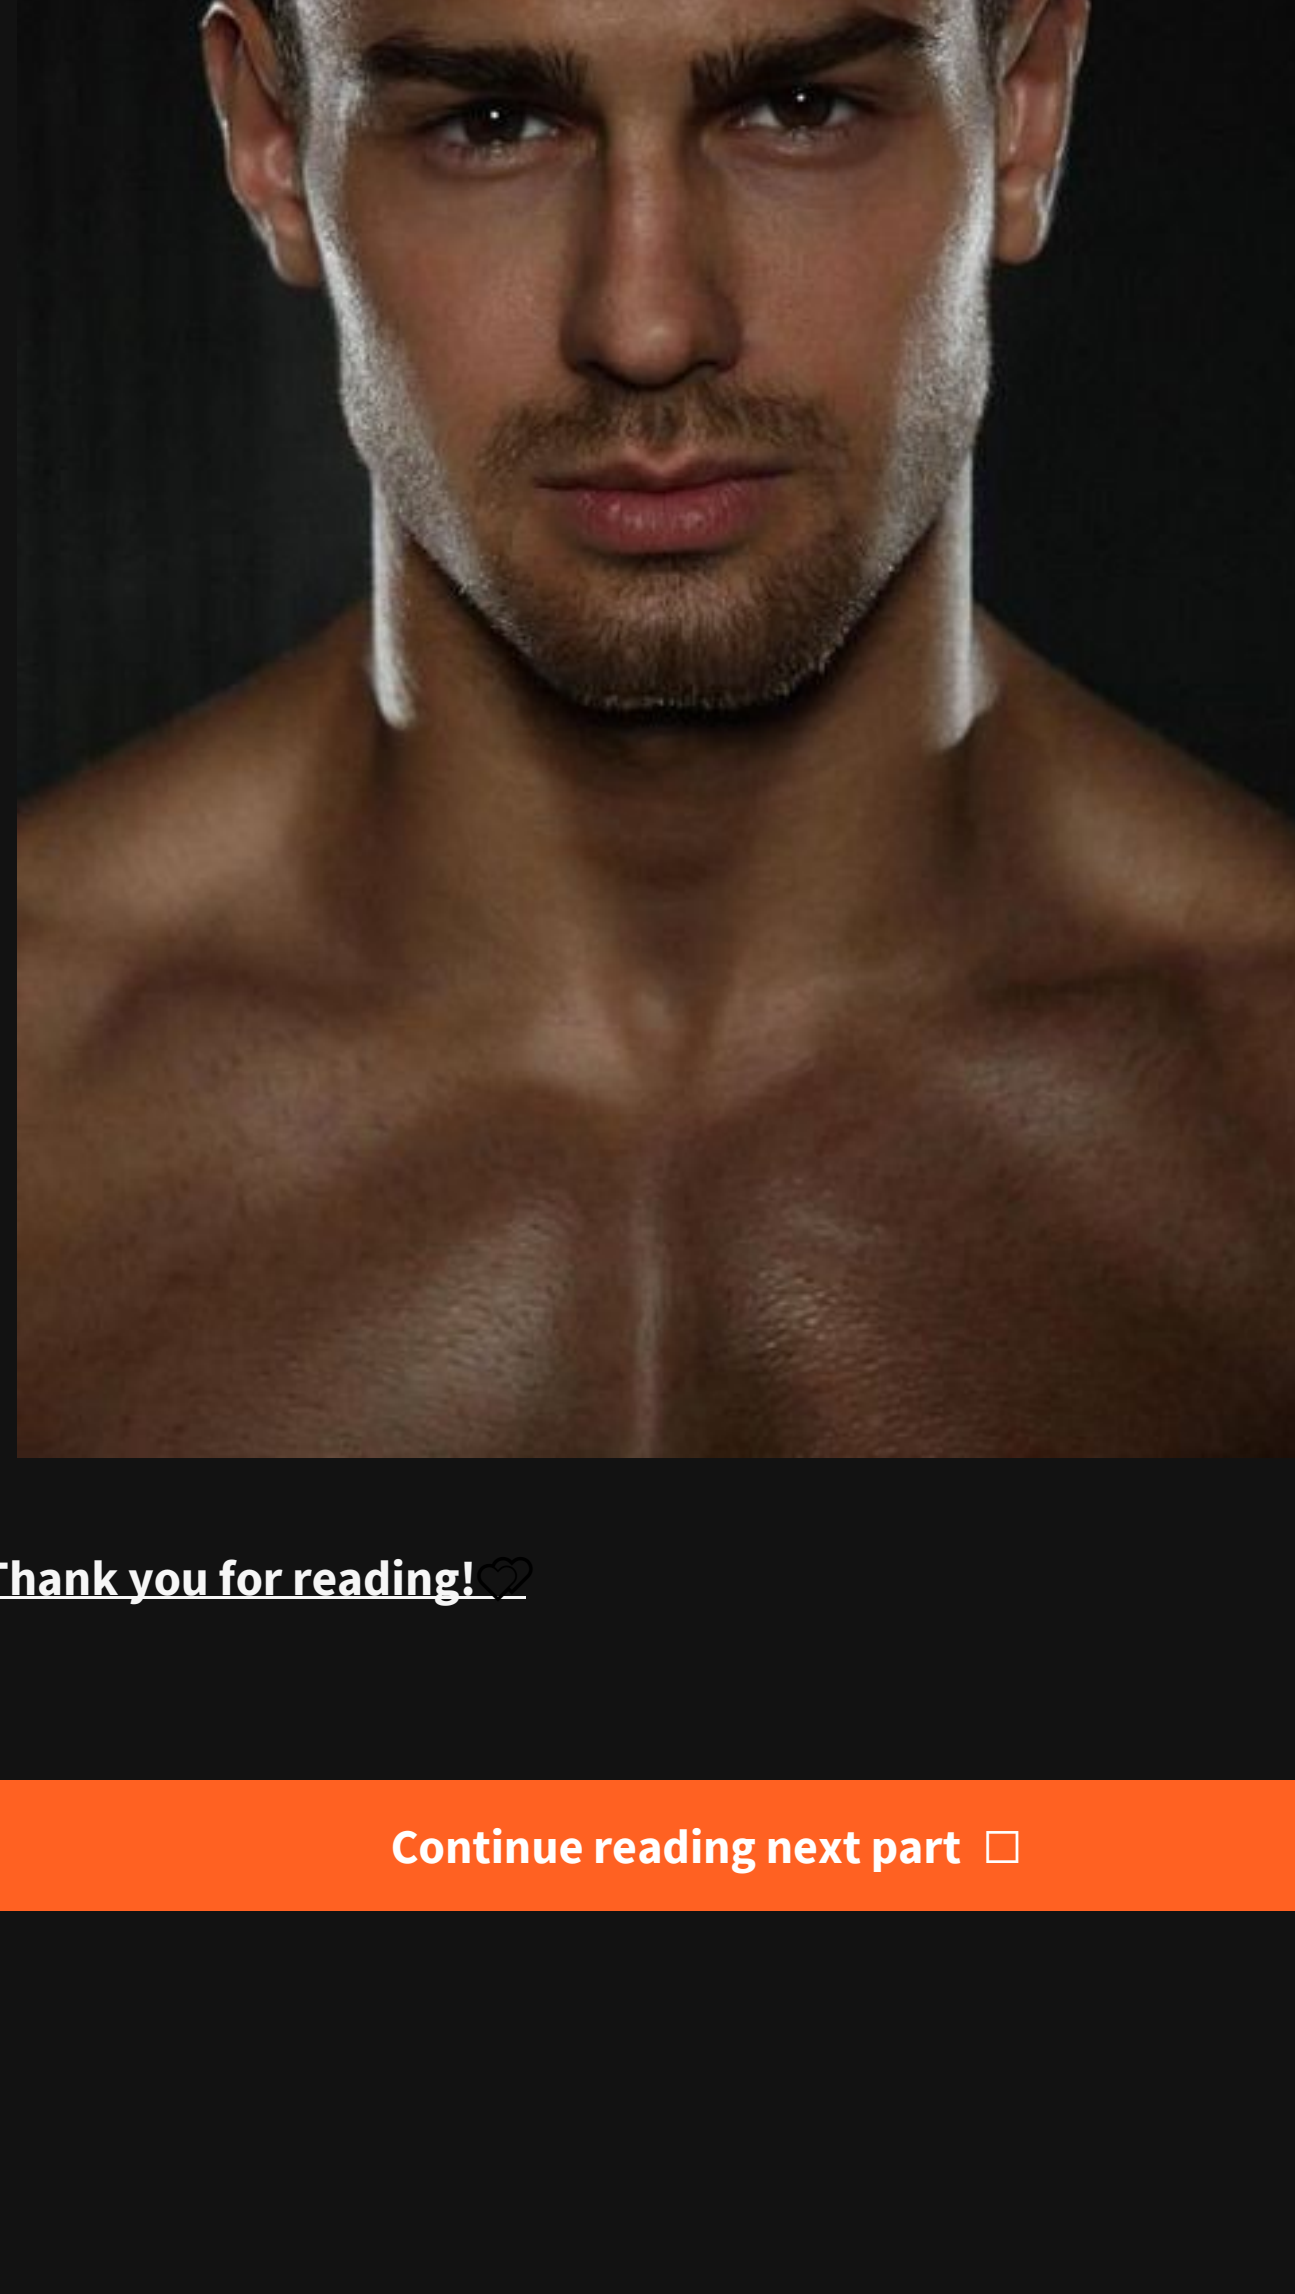

"Gammas and Deltas to my o ices now"-I mind-linked them and stormed out my room.

I am done letting people walk over me. They want to meet the evil and dark side of me and they will."- I said turning o the last bit of good I had in me and an evil smirk crept to my face.

ahemmm... what do you think?

What do you think of her reaction to Luke finding his mate?
