The Alpha's throne Chapter 1

Chapter 1: The starting point : Lona

A thunderstorm arise ~

A dark night where a full moon shine's brightly , a pack of people fighting each other . A fittest survival that only the strongest can rule . With a strongest wind and pour down of rain ; the lightning strikes at the branch of a tree .

In a middle of nowhere there's a man holding a child wearing a red hood , as he tried to escape from the enemies . The man stops for a while and tilt his head above as his red eyes reflecting the moonlight . He can hear the voices of his people fighting each other . He can feel their agony , anger and displeasure . He flinch and jump towards the tree branch when he feel that someone targeting him . He looked below and saw some of his men fighting the enemies . He jump below and look around , one of his men nod at each other and surround him as they are ready to die for the sake of the child .

All of them stop for a while and look above the sky's ; as the moon starting to change its color – a red moon . A red moon which indicates that their true power will unleash , as they started to shape shifting into a werewolf . Their eyes become wide as they change into a pack of wolf .

A man holding a child suddenly change into a big wolf with a golden fur while some of the wolf change into a black and a white fur . All of them have the same eyes – red as blood as their canine sharp teeth clenching each other . All of them howl as they look at the moon .

The man who become a wolf , slowly approach the baby whose crying so loud . He bite the corner of its clothes as he look at his men and nod each other . He turn around as he wave his tails and started running faster .

He can feel that someone was chasing him . He looked around to find a safe place for the child as he tried so hard to escape and avoid the enemies attack . He looked above and saw a birds nest , he jump higher while looking around as he gently put the child at the bird's nest .

He jump below and started running towards his men . With his claw that was sharp as blade , he attack the black fur wolf as he howl so loud . He look around and saw one of his men bleeding , he run towards his men and attack those enemies . The man can identify his allies from the pack of wolf as all of his men have a tattoo from their back and all of them was wearing a golden pendant – the only identity that they belong to the Monsieur Family's .

He howl and look at the enemies as some of them step back and look at him . The difference between their size which grows the enemies to back down . He flinch and jump at the side when he saw one of them attacking him .

He clench his canine teeth and looked furiously at them as his red eyes shines brightly . He run and jump towards the enemies as he slash his claws . Some of the enemies started to retreat as they can fight him on one on one . One of his allies with a black fur started to shape shift into a human form and ask him " where's the child ? " . He look at him for a while and howl then started to shape shift into his human form and say " in a safe place " .

Another allies with a white fur shape shift into a human form as he cough and say " we still have an enemies here " . Both of them look at him and say " but some are backing down " . Some of the enemies started to shape shift into their human form as they're started to step back without saying a single word .

" The moon shine's brightly , as if it gives a favor on us " says the man while looking at the moon . As he started to reminiscing where this fight was started . One of his allies replied " I hope they're fine " as he referring to their master .

He look below as he started thinking that this war was started a week ago when a black witch announce about the book of prophecy that was found on the deepest enchanted forest . As the prophecy say " A new ruler's will born with a greatest power to unleash and change the world " thus the war between the werewolf started .

A thousand year's have passed since the last King died . The werewolf pack have no ruler since then and some of them want to lead the pack and thus the fight between the werewolf started , as they want to become a new ruler of their clan . They want to become a new ruler who can lead the pack of werewolf and who was looked up by the others but there are some of the werewolf who doesn't care as they are enjoying their life but all of it was change when a black witch announce about the book that they found on the deepest enchanted forest ; and thus the war between the wolf begin .

A conflict between the families emerged when some of the werewolf interpret the books as ' only the new ruler can unleash the greatest power ' . A bloody war between a werewolf started – which to determined the rightful ruler of the clan , as they interpret that the wolf who have a blood line as the previous King can become the ruler of the clan thus they started fighting each other , even if you're a commoner whose ancestor have a blood line of a previous king can become a new ruler of the clan as long as you have the King's blood run in your veins .

A families that split into three group was known since a thousand of years with a grace of the goddess deity's and the King , they are known as the strongest families as they are a pack of Alpha with a beta and omega's servant . The Alpha wolf who have known with their golden fur and the Beta wolf who have known with their black fur and lastly the omega wolf who goes into heat during the first quarter red moon which only happens twice a year – as for their fur it is white as snow .

He snapped back when he feel pain at his back . He didn't feel the presence of this person . He tilt his head and look above and their he saw the red eyes werewolf with a golden fur .

” An alpha wolf , I wonder which family they belong ? ” he asked himself

He look at his blood as he smirk at the enemy's . He smile and look at the red moon as he started to shape shift into a wolf . He clench his canine teeth and howl louder as he jump higher and bite the enemy's ear . Both of them started fighting when his allies howl and as they point at the back .

He step back and nod at them as they started running fast . The golden fur enemy started chasing him but he look at his men and nod at them . All of them nod each other as they fully attack the golden fur enemy .

He run faster until no one can catch him . He look around and jump higher towards the bird's nest . He look at the child and howl then shape shift into a human form . He slowly and gently pick the child and jump from above while holding a child to the ground and started to whistle on his men .

He look above the sky and saw the red moon starting to fade and saw the thunder strike to the bird nest . He run faster while trying to catch his breath and covering his wound . You can hear the child's crying voice and the pack of wolf's howling each other , as he run faster trying to escape the baby .
