The Alpha's throne Chapter 18

Chapter 18 : Large Howl

Ryga took a deep sigh while looking at her. He surrender with Clona's stubbornness. He know what happen if he won't give her what she wanted. He knows that she wont stop bugging him.

Clona smile from ear to ear while looking at him as she plead her hands with a puppy eyes.

Ryga took his wallet and give her some coins "after this let's go to the shipyard. I heard they caught a lot of fishes". She nod and jump happily then run towards the stall to buy flowers.

Ryga look around and saw some people wearing a black suit. He knows that these people are not an ordinary people. As much as he want to avoid a conflict he remains silence while secretly looked around.

He won't put his guard down cause any moment someone will attack them from behind.

He look at Clona's side and saw a three people wearing a mask while looking around. He alert himself and hurriedly pull Clona's shoulder "let's go".

Clona happily nod and raised her flowers as she feel proud of herself. Ryga on the other side was sp serious as he feel that someone was looking at them. He didn't let his guard down for a minute.

"the shipyard was on that area. I heard that an old man caught a large fish. Let's see and buy it for us" he exclaimed while pulling her shoulders. Clona must stay close with him cause he can't protect her if something happen.

Clona shrug as she feel weird looking at him. She want to say something but she can't utter a single word. 'It's best to keep quiet and follow him' that's what she think.

They arrive at the shipyard. A lot of big can was serve at the stall. A lot of fish and vegetables was at the stall.

"Listen, stay close at me" he exclaimed and look at her with a serious face. Clona gulp for a minute and nod her head.

They walk from stall to stall while looking for some vegetables and fish for their dinner. Clona saw an old man with a red hat, pulling a big fish at the net. She smiled and pulled Ryga's arm and run towards the old man.

"hurry! "

They hurriedly run towards the old man. Ryga feel amazed with how big the fish the old man caught. 'It's good for tommorow's breakfast and lunch' Ryga thought while looking at the big fish.

The old man smile while looking at them as he feel honored with the fish he caught. Ryga took out his wallet and pay the old man. "Thank you for buying" the old man say while wrapping the big fish.

"I can't wait to eat this" Clona happily look at thw big fish then look at Ryga with a big smile.

"Let's go"

They bid a farewell to the old man and starting to walk again. They need to hurry, its almost night time.

Silently while walking, they heard a large howl at one of the large ship. Ryga stop and pulled Clona's shoulder then look around.

It's full of silence. They heard nothing but a night time bird's chirping.

A moment of silence until they heard the large howl again and this time they feel a cracking voice like it almost cry from pain.

"let's go" he pulled Clona's hand to run but Clona's eyes turning red "I can't leave them behind".

"What? are you insane? "

"I'm sorry but I can't. Theres something force that pulled me" and pulled her hands then run towards the ship.
