Just so you know the witch mana will be taken from the moon and it will directly given to the wolf. The wolf and witch maybe fighting because of that but there’s some organization whose peers compose of witch, wolf and even vampire. I have no information about this organization but the best possible answer to your question was maybe those guys who save you are from the organization”.

Ryga nod as he understood something and continue to ask “why bother making an organization, isn’t the witch and the werewolf are not in good terms?”. Mr. Tom paused for a while, he don’t know what to answer because even himself have no idea why the organization was formed.

Ryga understood his silence so he continued asking a different question “are they a bad or good organization? “

Mr. Tom have no idea what to answer but something came up on his mind “I don’t know what’s their purpose but all I can say is next time you meet them, don’t bother interact with them. We don’t know what’s inside their head”

“As far as I remember there’s three organization on this world. This organization was create recently but I guess they started moving after the incidents of royal families” Mr. Tom exclaimed while explaining “ families? “ Ryga blink for a while. ‘what does royal families he mean? ‘ he thought while looking at him

Mr. Tom clear his throat as if he was trying to avoid the question but his actions made Ryga curious more.

He lean his palm at the table and lean closer to Mr. Tom and asked repeatedly “families ? What do you mean? I want to know”

He took a deep breath and look at him with a serious face “long time ago there’s a royal families that was blessed by the powers but these families are already vanish on this world”

His eyes was full of saddened. Ryga could not help but shut his mouth. He can feel that this is a sensitive topic.

“but I have no idea if our young master was still alive or not”□
