

Carrying the Alpha's Heir Chapter 2 –

Chapter 2: PROLOGUE

I keep running.

My limbs felt heavy, my legs were sore but I have to keep running.

I can feel it from behind me... I am panting.

Tears came falling on my cheeks and to the ground everytime I stop running to breath. I can't run anymore.

The loud howling sound coming from the beast that I have never seen before covered my senses. The wind blew wild as my breathing hitched and my lips bleed from cold.

"Help..HELP!" I shouted.

When my legs couldn't take it anymore, I tripped on the ground making me fall.

Before ever losing my sanity, I had a glimpse... I had a glimpse of the terrifying beast who took my innocence.

I felt it kneel before me. I tried opening my eyes, but I wonder if I saw it right...

Why does the beast looks like someone familiar to me?
