

Alpha's Surrogate by POOJA Chapter 66

Chapter 66

66. What would happen now?

In the afternoon, big luxurious cars began to depart from the Sirius Bright Pack one by one. The Blue Moon's Pack members had to leave first due to Alpha Harvey's command, but Petra had to wait in order to accompany her brother.

Finally, she had been given the opportunity to enter the pack house. Everything had changed over the two years she'd been gone. Her gaze was drawn up the stairs to her ex's bedroom. He used to call her his queen, he had loved her, but now he called her a we. She chuckled a bit as she touched her neck, but still she could feel eyes following her which made her smirk. She relished the effect that she had on Xavier. Her presence in his pack house had caused uneasiness and possibly fear in his heart. Her adversary was terrified of her. What else could she ask for?

But then she clenched her jaw and glanced down at her watch. The time they had set to leave to go shopping had been 1200p.m., yet the new love birds had been quite active in their room, which enraged her. The blonde had spent two hours getting ready in a stunning dress and sunglasses, but her brother couldn't seem to keep his dook in his pants until tomorrow.

Even though the sibling bond between her and her brother was weak, she could tell that Harvey had been banging Iris in her bedroom for sometime now. What had surprised Petra was that the twins had agreed to let Harvey stay with their sister before the official wedding and marking ceremony. It was obvious that if a mated man and woman were left alone in a bedroom, then they would not be able to keep their hands or any other body parts to themselves. The finest example of that was Petra herself in the past she craved Xavier's monster inside her every night. Even now she felt horny whenever she thought about him. Petra was bothered by the fact that Iris had been having sex with her Harvey in their bedroom in broad daylight and Xavier and Zander did not complain. Did they have the right to call her w e when their sister was doing the same thing? That's when she glared at her brother, who was walking down the stairs holding Iris' hand.

He was soon to be her Alpha, yet he had totally ignored her mind-links as he joined everyone after having a very good time with his mate.

"I wonder if the night was too short for you," she snapped, throwing her purse over her shoulder.

“How did you know?” Harvey smirked, irritating his sister further. Petra gazed between the little ware and her brother, putting on her sunglasses before storming out of the pack house with huge clomping steps. It was already two o'clock in the afternoon! She needed to get back to work as soon as possible after this wedding dress nonsense. She needed to work on her plan.

“Let's go.” Harvey hooked his arm through Iris', who was looking back over her shoulder. “Yes, I am looking for Kiara and Lena. They will be accompanying me.” “I am right here, beautiful,” Lena walked down the stairs with a grin. “You two look perfect together,” Lena gave a hug to the soon-to-be bride and smiled at the

“I know.” Harvey ran his fingers through his hair in a cool way that made women laugh. Even though he possessed a powerful aura that anyone could tell belonged to a dominant Alpha, Harvey was a love-sick puppy when it came to his mate.

“Where is Kiara?” Iris wondered .

“She will be coming in Kaiden's car. Now, let's go otherwise that b...h might bite us.” Lena gestured towards Petra, who was waiting in the car for them That was when Petra noticed Harvey, who did not react even though he had clearly heard her calling his sibling abush.

A little while later, Xavier and Kiara entered the living room, holding hands as they watched everyone's car drive away The Alpha got closer to his male, placing his arms around her waist.

“Take care of yourself. Stay with Kaiden at all times and the most important thing is stay away from Petra,” he instructed one more time

“I know You have told me thousands of times already,” the young Luna rolled her eyes

“I keep reminding you because you don't listen to me! I swear if something happened to you then

“I promise I will follow your orders,” Kiara kissed Xavier on the lips so that he couldn't continue It worked like magic as usual, their kiss deepened until Kiaden cleared his throat to indicate his arrival with Jennifer

“Make sure to take care of Meow Feed her on time,” Kiara requested. *Me?”

“Yes, I can only trust you, Xavier. You will do it, right?” Kiara blinked up at him too many times, earning Xavier’s narrow eyes. She was already cute in his eyes, so why was she trying to be cuter? fk! It had actually worked on him

“Okay,” he accepted defeat with a sigh. She had once again played with his heart! Where was that dominating Alpha that used to be so hard to handle?!

“Bye,” Kiara smiled as she slowly let go of Xavier’s hand. His heart felt a little heavy because this was the first time, he was the first time that they would be apart. But he believed she could handle anything. He and Jennifer stood at the door, watching their car disappear.

“Now what are we going to do Alpha?” Tyler asked, as he joined Xavier and Jennifer. “Search the entire pack!” he ordered.

“It’s already 5 p.m. Zander,” Adira informed her mate. They had left the pack house at midday. but had yet to arrive at the location where the Alpha had been driving to They were running out of time

“We are here, Adira lifted her eyes to find that he had pulled the car over in front of a hospital.

“This place?” She asked, getting out of the car. “I thought we were going to see Frida, right?”

“Yes, that’s because we are here,” he said, holding her hand as they walked inside. The young woman’s eyes roamed everywhere as she tried to stay away from the patients that had been giving scary look to them.

Where is she?” The Alpha inquired of one of the nurses ‘Room number 102

Zander, this is not a normal hospital, is it? When they were standing in front of the room where Frida was staying, Adira inquired “Yes, it’s a mental asylum’he answered casually, then kicked the door open Adira was stunned Wall’ Had they come to meet Frida al an asylum?!

‘Zander!’ Frida was startled to encounter a familiar face The man she couldn’t stop thinking about Yet seeing the other woman’s situation Adira was terrified Frida had been tied to a chair, and there was a machine-like device that had been implanted into her head, which was connected to the machine by far too many wires Her condition appeared to be awful, as if she had received many electric shocks

“Comfortable? Zander smiled at her, sitting in a chair in front of her

“So you’re the one who spread rumors about me being insane? I’m just a she-wolf wandering about the city, and I’m really a danger to others? She murmured, her voice trembling. She should have understood that her kidnapper would be a powerful man with the authority to abduct her among hundreds of people! No one had reported her kidnapping to the police, everyone had turned a blind eye despite the fact that it had taken place in a train station!

“I believe we have some business to take care of “Really? Aren’t you the one who kicked me out of your life and pack? So, what’s the point of kidnapping me? You have put me in a mental hospital despite knowing that I am not insane.”

“You’ve paid it all this time to yourself. I let you go and chose not to kill you, but you took advantage of my kindness. You screwed with my business again,” he stated calmly, concealing his true rage. Frida’s throat became dry as she gazed into his wolf’s eyes.

What are you talking about? I don’t understand, please let me go, Zander,” she tried to look

“Don’t try to act innocent, bitch!” Zander roared, gripping her cheeks with his large hand and digging sharp long claws deeper into her flesh, causing her to bleed. He didn’t care that she was in pain.

“I have no tolerance left for your games, Frida. Whether you believe me or not, once I press this button, I will leave it on until after your soul has left your body.” he promised while placing his thumb on the button that was used to transmit the current to her brain.

“No, please no! Don’t kill me, Zander!!” She cried. His wolves had already tormented her enough and if the Alpha hit the button again, then she was absolutely going to die.

Then start speaking. Who did you meet after leaving my pack? What did you tell him? Tell me everything you know,” he asked sternly. She nodded and tried to act obedient.

“A man was already waiting for me when I exited the Sirius Bright Pack. I had nowhere to stay and was afraid of living among humans, so when he offered me membership in his pack and his undivided attention, I couldn’t say no. On the way, he asked me about everything that had transpired in the Sirius Bright Pack over the previous two years. I intended to exact my revenge on you, so I told him everything, even the truth about Luna Kiara. I believed I was doing everything correctly until I discovered that the man had been taking me to the Blue Moon Pack

"I became convinced Yes, I despised you, but Pelia would be even worse She was a bitch That man had been sent by her and I realized I had fallen into his trap When I tried to flee, he beat me close to death. I was imprisoned in a Blue Moon Pack for days, if not a month Finally, I was able to attack one of the wolves guarding me and fled. They had taken all of my stuff, and I had no money in my possession So I hurried into town, convinced that no wolf could harm me, but I was completely wrong You abducted me 'She had spoken everything slowly, while tears streamed down her face The Blue Moon Pack had assaulted her very badly

Adira, who had been standing in the distance listening to Frida's story was moved by her suffering Yes, Frida was a nasty bitch who had put herself in this horrible situation, but the wounds on her body were horrific The Luna also suspected that she had been raped She smelled like multiple men, so her suspicions were true Any woman's heart would have sunk when she saw her in that state Especially Adira who had experienced rape herself

The young woman looked at her mate, who had no pity in his eyes and was completely ignoring Frida's cries He had stated that he would do whatever it took to give her a terrible death He appeared to be a callous man revealing to Adira a different side of her mate that she had never witnessed Cruel and merciless Buliheni snickered as she watched him toss the machine-like device away from Frida's head that was causing her so much anguish Zander had felt Adira's emotions fluctuating as she witnessed the other woman's condition and crying, and he couldn't help but do everything within his power to comfort her Even though he had not looked back at his woman, he knew she was suffering and that was what he had wanted A smile on her face. For that, he was ready to go easy on Frida

"He is so handsome!!" Isha screamed into Adira's mind, making her bite her lip. Yes! He was so f...g hot when he did that'

What does this man look like?' Zander continued, with his interrogation.

"I don't know,' the Alpha growled in response to her answer She had to be joking with him?!

"I honestly don't know.Zander I know you won't believe me when I say that I forgot his face as soon as I escaped from the Blue Moon Pack. I tried to recall so many times, but my memory seems to have been erased' she explained hastily before he killed her.

I don't think she is lying,'Adira mind-linked to her mate without moving from her spot.

'The spy is a hybrid, so he could have easily placed a spell on her. Maybe he believed she'd escape one day and use his magic to obliterate her memories.'

'She has only forgotten his face but I am sure she knows other details,' she added. The Alpha nodded, taking his mate's advice

'Other than his face, what more did you notice?' he asked Frida.

"He was rather tall. He had broad shoulders, a big face, and a deep voice. He always wore t-shirts. And for some reason, he had masked his scent from me,' she clarified

That implies that your theory is correct. That the spy is someone you have known for years, He disguised his scent because Frida could have recognized him by his scent She also lived in the pack for years, the Luna pointed out Zander returned his gaze to Adira as he rose from his seat. Frida cautiously raised her head to study the women who had arrived with Zander She had avoided looking at her because of the pain, but now she was intrigued Zander had never been seen with any woman, so who was she?

"You!" Looking at Adira's face, she exclaimed The Alpha and Luna relined their gaze to the surprised woman What did she mean by 'you'? Zander looked between Adira's perplexed gaze and Frida's widening eyes

What happened? Do you know each other?' He wondered "I don't know her.' Adira slated calmly "You are Zander's mate? Frida asked, looking at her marked neck "I dare you to speak ill words to my mate again," Zander warned with a growl "No, it is not about that she shook her head

Then what is it?"

"When I fled from the Blue Moon Pack and reached the city, a scary man appeared in front of me with a photograph of this woman," she began to talk

"Yes"

"Why did he have Adira's photo with him?" Zander questioned, moving closer to Frida She didn't seem to be lying, and she had no motive to continue acting

'I am sure it was your mate's photo, Zander But when he showed it to me, I was mistaken and that the man was asking me about Luna Kiara But I had also overheard a conversation among the Blue Moon Pack kidnapper wolves they had been talking about the Luna's older sister Now I understand that scary man had Adira's photo, not Kiara's Both of the sisters look like twins That photograph that he was holding was from years ago She looked around 15 or 16 years old in that picture," she explained with a small cough

Who was that man?' Zander frowned Why would he have such an old photo with him? "I had never seen him before but he was not a werewolf,' she added "What? A fr.g human is so bold to have my mate's photo?!" "He was not a human either,' she exclaimed.

Then how the f.k was he?

'I don't know I was too weak to get a read on his existence but his aura was very strong and he looked like a royal, she consumed.

"Do you remember anything else about that man?"

"I pretended I didn't know the woman in the photo because I no longer wanted to be involved with the Sirius Bright Pack But the man could tell I was lying I feared he'd also beat me, then I'd be dead, but then he gave me the most wicked smile and asked whether there were two women. I lost my set when he asked me that. I remained silent, but he questioned. "Are they sisters?" was terrified of dying Because I knew Luna Kiara had a sister, I said yes. They were sisters That man's eyes shone with delight, and he laughed for at least two minutes in front of me before he walked away. He was the scariest person I had ever met in my life,' she added. When she glanced back and forth between the couple, her eyes were filled with shame Not even meaning to she had once again forded with their business. Zander looked at Adira, who looked quite nervous

"Adira, are you okay? Werewolf or not, any female would be nervous if she found out that a mysterious man was roaming across the world with her photograph in his pocket It sounded like a thieft!

"Come here," he gently drew her into a loving embrace They continued to hold one other while ignoring the other woman in the room Adira had closed her eyes and buried her face into his chest. His warmth was amazing I usually offered her loom to breathe Zander refused to let her go until he believed she was feeling better than she had before This type of incident was creepy, and it reminded her of her past He understood her completely, despite the fact that she did not say it out loud

"I am okay," she pulled away a little bit but continued holding his hand "Are you sure, baby?" Cupping her face, he kissed her forehead.

"Yes, I am okay Let's focus on our major problem," she smiled, brushing off the additional information of the unknown creepy individual for the moment

"Okay let's go." the Alpha decided to go with the flow.choosing to disregard it until the spy situation was settled However, the way that man had talked about the sisters and laughed indicates that he was after both of them Kiara was also in unknown danger

Zander, let me go! Don't leave me here alone I am not crazy!!! Tell them to free me!" Frida shrieked as she watched the Alpha couple leave the room. He never looked back, she was completely ignored. Only her yelling, wailing and sobbing were audible in the room.

Keeping his hand on Adira's hip, Zander began to walk down the hallway. It was filled with the chatter of multiple patients' voices but his mind was focused on everything that Frida had said. He had not been able to make her talk, the spy, as usual had been a step ahead of them. That fucker had already put a spell on Frida! Fuck! They still could not figure out who the spy was! They had run out of time as it was already past 9 pm.

Frida's cries were falling on his deaf ears, but Adira had been glancing over her shoulder in worry at hearing the other woman's cries. She couldn't take it any longer as she gazed up at her husband.

"Zander, I think she has already gone through enough. You don't need to make her life any worse. She has gone through rape.."

"I know she was raped by Pelia's wolves," he cut her off, stopping near the car. "You knew?"

"Yes, I also knew you were going to ask me to let her go. So I have asked my wolves to let her go after she has received proper treatment. Even though she is a bitch, I'll provide her with the necessary things and enough money to start a new life away from danger as now she is a rogue, he explained casually.

"Really?! Thank you, Zander. You have a big heart!" The young she-wolf leaped on him with a hug. As she wrapped her legs around him, Zander grinned and shook his head. How could she be so pleased with aiding an enemy? Had she forgotten how many rude things Frida had said to her before? Maybe she had, but the Alpha hadn't.

"I'm not sure that I have a big heart, Adira. I never forgive my enemies. And Frida has received punishment for her part in all of this, which is why I am releasing her. He opened the car door and placed her on the passenger seat.

"What do you mean?" She was confused.

"Frida lost her wolf, so she could only tell that the man she met in the city with your picture was neither werewolf nor human, but she couldn't figure out anything else about him. If she had her wolf, she would have been able to discover the true identity of that man. That man also hadn't murdered her because he discovered she had lost her wolf. She had wanted to keep her ego intact, so she hadn't told us about her wolf, but I could sense that she was empty inside. She is now a normal human being," he explained, kissing her. Surprised, Adira just nodded and watched him close the door.

"No one can escape from Karma" she inuimured sadly she had to lose too much "Yes, that's True' le ieplied as he started to dirve

"Still, sometimes I doubt that Kaima actually works I wonder why the Moon Goddess has not punished Petra?" She took a deep breath, leaning against the back of the car seal.

"That slutlias formed with our lives so much that the Moon Goddess has given us the chance to deal with her ourselves. Zander replied He also admitted that it would be no easy task She had returned with a fully realized plan

"If you ask nie, she is the most idiotic she-woll on the planet She was maled 10 a wonderful man like Xavier, and she belayed him for a Bela?! I'm curious how good he was in bed

"Yes, it was our fo...g Beta! Thal day is still fresh in my mind 11 was the day my brother bruke down. He turned into a ruthless monster that despised all women That bitch and betrayer disguised as our closest friends wiecked everything in our lives," Zander sneered venomously

"I can understand where you are coming from It seems like she always hid behind ugly things, leaving precious ones The Beta would be one example of it." Adina shook her head with a laugh

"Hmm ugly. Not really, but he was obviously not better than Xavier Let me see I don't make il a habit to delete the photos, so I'm sure I have Orion's photo somewhere," he said, handing his phone over to Adira.

"You kept your enemy's pictures?" she asked

"Going back and deleting pholos from years ago is a waste of time I'm sure there are thousands of pictures on my phone that I haven't looked at in years. I don't have time to delete them like an insot simply because I want to relieve my frustration by doing so. That's not my style. Nothing would change the situation if I still had the photos on my phone I have a lot of other more pressing concerns on my mind that I need to deal with than deleting those pictures," he explained casually. Adira nodded as she started to scroll through each picture slowly. She had forgotten about other things while she admired their wedding photos for a long time.

"I had sent photographs of our wedding to my Mom. She was overjoyed when I married my mate," Adira smiled at Zander who was already admiring her

"I promise I will continue to make you just as happy as I did that say for the rest of our lives, he replied, running his hand over her lips fok! If he was not driving, then he would have tasted them.

'I can see Cole! I thought he was new to the pack' she said, looking at an old photo of pack members

"Who? That Omega?"

"Yes. Cole looks tall and handsome as usual." "Let me see," Zander took his phone

'Yes, you are correct I never noticed that he somehow looked like an Alpha He is Kiara's classmate, so he should be 18 but he looks older

"Well, Cole is not 18 but 20 He missed two years for some reason, the young Luna explained

'Really? Why?' "I don't know "Oh, I have not seen these pictures before," she exclaimed

"Yeah, there is Orion" her male pointed out in one of the photos where they were at the beach the picture was not that clear but she managed to find her male Zander and Xavier were Together as usual Orion and Kiaden were arguing about passing by a gorgeous bikini-clad girl One of them had taken this picture and shared it with everyone at the time They were well and had just come from surfing

"You look so young Zander!" Adira blurted, oblivious to everyone else It was a photograph of him when he was sixteen Isha began to get filthy ideas when she saw him half naked He had been even more attractive when he was younger Her lips remained wide while her gaze was fixed on her mate's picture.

"Handsome, right?" Even though Zander's eyes were fixed on the road, the proud Alpha smirked. He could feel her heart beating fast, which he had caused

"I'm not sure but the Beta looks quite attractive,' she bit her lower lip to stop herself from giggling. Despite the fact that she couldn't see Orion's face properly. she decided to poke at Zander a bit. The Alpha narrowed his gaze at her. How could she praise his previous Beta for being attractive?!

Then return my phone to me. If I am not handsome, you do not need to look at other attractive men'he grumbled, attempting to reclaim his phone, but Adira concealed it by her side, giggling. It was so easy to make him jealous.

"Let me see him properly in another photo if you have one." "I said give it to me, Adira!" he growled.

"Okay, okay I was just joking," she stopped him by placing her hand on his chest. He'd already pulled over to teach her a lesson She had no desire to continue playing this dangerous game. He appeared to be about ready to spank her or something.

“No, how can you joke about this kind of thing? Now, I will not let you go until you tell me how frig hot, handsome, and panty droppingly gorgeous your mate is,” he grabbed her waist and began tickling her. She then started to laugh hysterically. Her whole face was red and teary Her breathing was uneven and she felt pain in her belly from laughing so hard As his tickling continued, the phone slid from her grasp

“Oh my god! I am sorry I will die. Please let me see the photos, then I will be able to tell you,” she promised, which got him to stop

‘Then do it quickly. Tell me who the foek is more attractive, his voice was stern when he gave her phone. This male was really something! He had really refused to let her go until she told him how fast-g hot he was! She nodded with a chuckle, then began to go through the pictures but, like all the previous photos, they were blurry until Adira’s hand stopped on one of them 11 was another group photo of the pack members ‘Didn’t Frida say that the spy was tall and handsome? That he had broad shoulders, a big face, and a deep voice?’

“Yes. What’s wrong?” Zander questioned He sat there staring at her, puzzled.

‘Zander, I think I know why the spy is trying to kill me! She looked at him with her big eyes

What?! Tell me why he wants to kill you?’ “Because I have seen the spy in the past. I have seen his face!” She exclaimed “Who is he?” “He.. he is the spy!” She pointed to the man standing next to Zander and Xavier

‘That’s impossible,” Zander’s eyes were wide when he saw which man she was pointing out The young woman felt his furiousness in his eyes as the Alpha once again felt the bitter sting of betrayal

Are you sure?” He growled, clenching his fist tightly in anger.

“Yes, I admit it took me time to recognize him, but he is the one,” she assured him, watching his expression turning dark.

‘He is f... g living among us. That’s when Zander laughed bitterly. He rested his head on the back of the seat, laughing louder. Adira panicked at seeing her mate becoming unhinged like that. She was scared to think about the outcome of this revelation. What would happen now?

Chapter 67

67. That is impossible!

The most expensive restaurant in town was busier than usual tonight. The manager was having difficulty denying the patrons who had come to this prestigious restaurant in search of a delicious meal. Even though there were a few empty available tables, the staff had to refuse everyone entry, despite the fact that they were all wealthy individuals. There was only one explanation, Luna Kiara. She had reserved the entire restaurant for the evening's meal, where the members of the Blue Moon Pack and the Sirius Bright Pack had been having a good time.

After a long shopping trip, they were all tired. Harvey had been quite demanding when he had been choosing a ring for his mate. He had also bought a beautiful necklace for her. Choosing a wedding gown had not been Lisa's cup of tea. She had tried on at least 20 dresses before deciding on her dream wedding gown. It had taken her 100 long. Lena had taken just as much time in choosing her dress. Kiaia had made a rapid decision on her dress, but of course the baby bump made her options somewhat limited. Then they arrived at this restaurant.

The other pack members, all wangs, had chosen various tables around the room, but the ranking wolves had taken seats on the other side of a large table. Bela, Kaiden, and Gamma Lena had surrounded Kiara. While Petra had sat across from her, fully ignoring Lisa and Harvey's cute couple talk. They had taken seats next to her.

None of them had allowed themselves to be uncomfortable and allow the mood to become uneasy because of Petra's presence among them. Everyone had a good time poking fun at Lisa and Harvey. They were all interested in how they had met. Harvey's Bela proved to be his most obedient dog, especially now that there was no tension between the two packs. He was quite open, talking, laughing, and joking with Kaiden. Only Petra's loyal wolves had been ignoring the Sirius Bright Pack and had frigid expressions on their faces. They looked restless, which hadn't gone unnoticed by Kiara. They wanted to leave but she was not going to let that happen.

If there was anything out of the ordinary, it was Petra. She had embraced stillness and was more interested in playing with her food than eating it. Her eagle-like brown eyes had become fixed on a smiling Kiara at the moment. The young woman had been taking note of her for the last 20 minutes, she had reached her limit and stared back at her.

'It seems you have something to say.' 'Yes, don't you feel like something is odd?' Petra raised her brows. 'Yes, it's you,' Kiara gave her a sweet smile before returning to finish her food.

"I will take that as a compliment," the other woman chuckled, turning her insult into a joke.

"Good for you," the young Luna tried to ignore her, but Petra began to speak again. She was unwilling to let go of the conversation she had initiated.

"Why do I feel like you are just passing the time and that you don't want us to return the pack?" The blonde placed her elbows on the table resting chin on her palm while giving an all mighty smile to the other woman. Kiara's ears perked up and her heartbeat look a sudden increase in pace

"You have been keeping us busy shopping for wedding allire and rings it is already past 10 pm but you ale keeping us busy with dinner? I wonder why?" She grinned as she continued Kiara's eyes were fixed on her but she did not let her panic show on her face fok! This benih was smart. She already doubled their inlenlions

"For your information. Alpha Harvey spent three hours in the jewelry shop He is the one who did not like his suit and kept changing it over and over again Then your pack members tried to provoke ny people whicli took alniost two hours to sort out I should be the one who is shouling and accusing you of wasting my precious time," Kiara took a deep calming breath without breaking eye contact with the other woman

"Despite your people's wild behavior, I am treating them 10 a meal, and trying to make peace with you Yet you are blaming me for being kind I can tell you're a piece of work. Petra." Kiara smiled taking a sip of water The young she-wolf had left the other woman speechless

Kiara had advised Ins to be extremely picky and waste as much time as she wanted while shopping The twin's younger sister did whatever her sister-in-law asked because liis had sensed something was going on in the pack that her brothers weren't discussing, but she knew what they were doing was for the good of the pack So she did what she was told As predicted. she excelled al pouting and acting in front of Harvey Inis acled like a spoiled bral over her wedding gown, the rings, even on Harvey's suit. The Alpha who was head over heels in love with his mate, couldn't tell that she was acting and had done everything he could to make her happy

Something smells fishy.' Petra let out a little laugh

"You were the one snapping at me, your mate was insulling us, he wouldn't even let us inside the pack house But now Xavier's Luna is offering us food? It doesn't make sense, does it?" She continued Kiaia laughed softly as she wiped her lips

"If I had known that your stomach could be filled with insults and offense then you should have told me in advance Trust me I have so much to say to you." the young luna laughed. That was when Petra's patience broke down but she managed to hide it behind her bitter snule as she examined Kiara until her eyes fell down 10 her belly that was quite big They say it was only her first month but seeing her pregnancy had been shortened 10 4 months, her bump was bigger than anyone had expected.

What are you looking at?" When Kiara saw Petra's filthy eyes on her unborn pup, she spoke sternly. She had witnessed her vile gaze directed towards her child.

"They said your pup had been blessed by the Moon Goddess. Poor thing. Are you sure he is not a demon or something? After all, who is born after only four months?' She chuckled, sipping her drink but Kiara had clutched her hand digging her nails under the table. Kiaden, who was sitting next to the Luna, grabbed the Luna's hand tightly He wanted to snap Petra's neck for causing the pup a demon But it was not the time to lose their mind and go wild. He had been acting like he was not paying attention to their conversation but his ears had been focused on his Luna. Kiara tapped her other hand on her Bela's so that he would let her go. She knew what she needed to do There was no way she was going to lose this battle with the blonde b-h! She was intentionally provoking her so that she could go back to the pack

"Demon or bless of the Moon Goddess, this is Xavier and my child," the young Luna roamed

her hand over her belly admuing one of the best things in her life then looked back to Petra

This baby is a sign of our love," she added, burning the other woman's mind and heart completely What? A sign of love?!

"So I don't need to hear that my pup is a demon or bless Outsiders like you who will no longer be a part of our lives after the wedding tomorrow, don't affect our points of view so please excuse me for being rude," Kiara grinned, trying to get up from the seat to go to the washroom That was when Petra also got up and blocked her path

"You seem very proud of your child and my ex male I wonder what will happen when you have neither of them?"

"What do you mean?!" Kiara growled, wanting to yank her eyes out

"See you tomorrow at the wedding Luna Kiara, Pelia replied before returning to her seat Kiara's mind was agitated by Petra's comment What did she mean by that? It seemed like she wanted to say something but had stopped Her eyes went to the clock hanging on the wall, it was 10 30 PM She needed to buy more lime for Xavier but now it was time for the young Luna 10 Tetuin her pack as well. She needed to alert her mate about this unknown threat that she felt was coming

Lena and Kiaden, who had heard the exchange, watched Kiara's face. She had been openly challenged by Petra. That was when the young woman brought a smile back to her lips and turned to see everyone. Lena was stunned to see how she did not react to Pelia's words.

"I hope everyone enjoyed their dinner. I have also booked the pub for tonight so that we can celebrate Harvey's bachelor party," she announced. Everyone shouted in excitement, especially the Sirius Bright pack, but Pelia was stunned. She wanted to go back to the pack, but at every turn her path was blocked. Without Kiara's permission, she could not return!

"Luna, you look tired," Kiaden walked closer to her.

"Oh yes. It has been a long day," she smiled, noticing Petra's eyes on her. She was watching them closely.

"Please take your medicine, Luna," Kiaden suggested worriedly.

"Oh no. I forgot to bring it with me," the young woman slapped her hand as she faked searching for it in her purse. It was a good excuse to return to the pack!

That is a big problem, Luna. The Alpha will kill me if you don't take them, the Beta said a little louder so that it was enough for everyone to hear. They had an idea of what game their Luna was playing.

"I think I can manage for tonight," Kiara said while faking laughter.

"No, Luna! I would drive you back to the pack. You need to rest as well. We will continue our party late into the night. Please don't worry about us. What do you say, boys?" Kiaden asked, earning everyone sympathy for his dedicated Luna who did everything for others and had gotten herself so tired. They all said that Kiara should return so that she could rest.

"Okay, if everyone wishes it then I will leave," Kiara played the sympathy card so that she could leave the restaurant. Petra frowned.

"I also need to return," she grabbed her purse to leave as well. f-k! That was not right! She could not return now, Kiara had no idea what exactly Xavier was doing and he still had not given her the okay to let anyone return.

"Harvey, why does your sister seem so desperate to leave? Is she not enjoying the party? Are you sure she is not opposed to our marriage?" Luis pouted, running her hand over her mate's chest to seduce him. Her green eyes showed sadness.

“No one is opposed to our marriage, Iris! Petra will stay with me as long as we are here. Don’t worry, the Alpha promised, mind linking his şışlei lo stay. He glared at her for breaking his male’s heart. Petra slammed her purse down on the table in frustration as she sat back. Her brother was asking for death. But she needed to obey his aider as he was soon to be Alpha.

She lifted her eyes to find her substilule surrounded by the red headed woman and the new Bela. The care and attention that Kiara was enjoying used to be Pelia’s. The wealth, power, position even Xavier. Xavier had been only hers! His body, his existence had been hers, but now it was Kiara’s. That was something that Pelia could not tolerate.

She could not bear the thought of letting that she wolf return the pack. Thinking about them alone in the bedroom where they would be f...g each other made her sick. So sick that she wanted to kill Kiara right now. Rejected or not, she had always desired Xavier. Just thinking about him made her horny as hell. She closed her legs, there was no way she was going to let Kiara have Xavier!!

‘If my leaving is counted as opposition to the marriage, Iris. Then we will take Luna. Kiara’s departure as an offense,’ Petra smiled at the Sirius Bright Pack’s sly Gamma, Bela, and Xavier’s little were of a sister. The game that they had been playing was played by her years ago.

“The Luna invited us to this diriner but is leaving without attending the bachelor party? I see it as highly disrespectful towards Alpha Harvey,’ she added, earning the Blue Moon pack member’s support even from Harvey’s Beta’s.

“If you agree then I will send one of my people to fetch your medicine from the pack, Luna. Kiara. Petra’s eagle eyes gaze was filled with surprising tenderness and concern, making her feel like puke. Kiara was willing to eal poison, but not the medication and kindness she had been offering.

“Oh, thank you for your care and kindness, Pelia. I will take them when I return after the bachelor party. I do not want to disrupt anyone’s enjoyment this evening. “When she learned that Xavier’s comments about Petra had come true, the young she-wolf had to accept staying at the bachelor party. If Kiara chose to return, Petra would be quite suspicious and would send one of her men to the pack. She was already dying to go back.

Later, everyone was having a great time at the pub, with loud music, lights, drinks, and dancing. Everyone needed to act normal, according to Kiara, therefore the warriors, including Karden and Lena, were on the dance floor. Tyler had joined them a little while ago. Kiara smiled when she learned that Xavier had sent her medication with Tyler. Lena, Kiaden, and Tyler were dancing together, but their attention was always focused on their Luna, who was sitting on one of the sofas with her phone.

She had called Xavier more than 20 times, but he had not returned her calls Kiara was concerned since she had no idea what was going on in the pack. Not once had he responded to her texts or phone calls. She was getting more concerned the longer she was apart from him Was he all right? All she cared about was her male's for safety.

'Luna, where are you going?' Kaiden mind linked to his Luna when he witnessed her walking to the other side of the room

'Don't worry. I am just going to the washroom I will reluin in a few minutes.'

Kiara puslied the restroom door open Her sandal heels clicked on the tiles as she made her way towards the minior but then stopped when she heard moans coming from one of the stalls

Her nose caught the distinct smell of sex, as the moaning became louder, alerting her to the fact thal a mian and woman were having intense sex in the last stall But wasn't this a ladies' restroom? Who were those bold man and woman having sex in public?

Kiara was truly disgusted She grabbed her purse, having made the decision to leave She then heard the last stall door open Revealing a familiar face

"You are leaving so soon? I thought you wanted to join us, so you followed me to the restroom," Petra licked her com drenched lips as she walked closer, just wearing her trashy bra and panties

"I was just passing through the luna made a disgusted lace watching her move She was nothing more than a strpper or a woman who worked in a brothel. The strange thing was that the man that she had been fg with was still in the stall

"Ohh, then I will offer you to join us Don't you feel bored only fomg the same nian everyday and night? It is so liring Trust me every d-k taste different and my man is a fork machine." Petra winked, sliding down her short skirt, which did virtually nothing to cover her ass Kiara frowned Her man? Did that imply. That was when Kiara realized why she hadn't smielt the man's scent. He had it covered so that she couldn't smell him! The spy was the man hiding in the stall! Did that mean the spy had been shopping, dining, and dancing with them?! Who was he?

Kiara considered shoving the blonde aside for a moment before sprinting over to expose the spy. It was going to be the end of this game of hide and seek, but it had to be a stupid move She was in the bathroom by hersell, with a nasty beruh and her pet dog. They could easily harm her and she was more concerned about her child, who would be in danger as a result of this action, so she simply smiled at the other woman.

"Using a substitute is not my style when I have a real man in my life. My mate. You can keep your toy for your hole exclusively. I don't need him." Kiara sneered, reaching for the bathroom door handle, but Petra kept her hand on it, obstructing her path.

Then I believe I need to show you a demo of how good my man was and still is better than Xavier, Kiara The reason why I chose him and not Xavier,” Petra smirked, looking over her shoulder at the bathroom stall where that man was supposed to be. Kiara followed her gaze, anxious for that man to come out, but that was when she noticed that the window in the bathroom was open st! He had fled while Petra kept Kiara busy!

Shoving Petra’s hand away, the young woman immediately stormed out of the bathroom in search of the man who would be missing from the pub. Her eyes searched everywhere in the pub lights It was quite disturbing for her eyes but she was looking for any missing Sirius Bright Pack members The missing man was going to be the spy! Yes! He was the one if she could find him but wait! Soot! There were so many missing! There was a possibility that they went to use the restroom. But still, Cole was missing. Lance, Tyler Kaiden too!

“No!” Kiara gritted her teeth in frustration. It had been the perfect chance to catch that man but now everything was ruined That was when Petia’s words clicked in Kiara’s mind

‘Had she said; how good her man was and that he was still better than Xavier? And that was the reason why she had chosen him over Xavier?’

That is impossible!” The realization hit her so hard that she felt her heart dropping into her stomach. How could he be the spy?

‘Xavier,’ Kiara closed her eyes, trying to mind-link her mate Even though they were 100 far apart, she wanted to give it a try She had clutched her dress lightly at her sides

“Xavier, I think I know who the spy is ‘she tried again, pushing her mate bond to the limit.

‘I know,’ Xavier replied, making Kiara snap open her eyes. She could mind-link him! He had heard her!

‘I also figured it out,’ he added with an unexpected laugh that stunned the young woman. It had not been one voice. It sounded like Zander was also laughing That was when Kiara realized that she was connected to a group mind-link Adila was also there listening to both of the twins laugh like lunatics

fk! I bet you dug up his grave, brother.’ Zander laughed.

‘Yeah,’ Xavier cackled as Jennifer watched her insane Alpha rolling on the ground near the grave that was empty. The body was gone!

“Orion, never died! Xavier sat up on the ground with a growl. His laughter had vanished. He sat there in the dirt as his rage crashed over him!

'That filthy betrayer has been living among us by changing his appearance!'
