

Chapter: 1238

At the moment when he left Huacheng, Lin Ziming's mood was still very agitated.

For him, Hwaseong is his base camp and his real home.

And he is also a native of Hwaseong. He has too many concerns and has stayed in Hwaseong. I don't know what happened to Wang Shougui, Han Jinlong, and the clown?

Is it okay? Is there hope in my heart, waiting for him to return?

And most importantly, Chu Fei, how is she in her state?

After swallowing the heaven and earth spirit fruit, now Chu Fei has already broken through to the innate realm, right?

For ordinary people like Chu Fei, with such a character, would he be so scared that he has such a great power all at once?

In Lin Ziming's mind, Chu Fei suddenly found that she was so powerful that she could knock people into the air with a single punch, and she became extremely flustered, which made him very funny.

With Chu Fei's calm and gentle personality, she would be very uncomfortable with such a huge power all at once, right?

Now that Chu Fei has reached the innate realm, I believe that no one will be able to bully her.

Also, if he goes back now, Chu Fei will surely jump up with joy when she sees herself!

Lin Ziming's heart was full when he thought of that picture, and the corners of his mouth rose involuntarily.

In his mind, the person who cared the most was Chu Fei.

In fact, he and Chu Fei had experienced too many things before, and unknowingly, Chu Fei's name had been deeply integrated into his vitality and could no longer be separated!

With excitement and excitement, Lin Ziming's pace was much faster.

It is said that close to hometown is more timid, Lin Ziming can be considered to have realized that these days, he has wanted to return to Hwaseong countless times, telling everyone that he has returned!

With his current strength, he has enough self-protection ability, even if the sword descends like frost, he is not in the slightest.

As for the others, he is even less concerned.

"Just stop here."

When he arrived at Yulong Bay, Lin Ziming said lightly.

"Yes, Lin Dong."

Standing in front of the Yulong Bay villa area again, Lin Ziming looked at the familiar place, still very excited. It was only half a month later, but for him, it seemed like a long time.

Lin Ziming couldn't wait to see Chu Fei, and imagined Chu Fei's agitated reaction more than a hundred times!

Taking a deep breath, Lin Ziming tried his best to calm his mood, and then began to walk inside in strides.

Finally, when he returned to his big villa, Lin Ziming discovered something weird!

The style around the villa has changed, even the color of the wall has changed, and there is no flower bed on the right. It is a flower bed that Chu Fei likes very much, and he will water it almost every day.

what's going on?

Lin Ziming frowned immediately. He let out his consciousness, only to find that the people living in the villa were no longer Chu Fei and his father-in-law!
