

Chapter: 1261

Moreover, in a sense, the original Chu Fei had disappeared and was replaced by the now non-human fireworks' forgetting'.

Lin Ziming suddenly felt very ridiculed. He had spent endless efforts at the beginning, after all the hardships, nine deaths, just to save Chu Fei's life. But in the end, God made a big joke on him. Chu Fei's life was saved, but it was not the Chu Fei he was familiar with.

There was silence for a long time. After that, Lin Ziming said, "Master Forget, do you remember me at all?"

There was a slight pause in the rhythm of Chu Fei's beating Muyu, which was not obvious. If it weren't for Lin Ziming's keenness, she would not be able to hear it.

This slight change gave Lin Ziming a feeling of despair, which raised hope! It shows that Chu Fei still has some impression of him.

It's a pity that this pause only lasted once and then returned to normal. Then Chu Fei said indifferently, "I don't remember."

Lin Ziming also didn't have the extreme reaction as before. It seemed that he was used to Chu Fei's appearance. He thought for a while, and simply chose to kneel next to Chu Fei.

His move made Chu Fei frowned slightly and felt discomfort. It seemed to be repelling Lin Ziming from being so close to her and polluting her pure body.

After bowing down to the Buddha and kowtowing a few heads, Lin Ziming said, "Master Forget, can I tell you a story?"

Chu Fei knocked on the wooden fish, closed her eyes, and did not respond, as if she had entered a mysterious state.

Lin Ziming continued: "Once upon a time, there was a man who was an amazingly talented genius. He was very fast in learning everything. Whether in martial arts, medicine, finance or various fields, he has made considerable achievements."

"This man lived happily before he was twenty-three years old. He came from a big family and he was carefree. He once thought that the happiest life in the world was nothing more than that. But soon, reality gave him A heavy blow. His parents had a sudden accident and left him forever. For a long time, even the grandfather, who loved him so much, was conspired to become a vegetable, and everyone in the family framed that he did it for one night. In time, he became a sinner, was kicked out of the family, and had nothing."

"When this man was so desperate that there was nowhere to go, a woman appeared. This was a beautiful woman who was so beautiful to the bone. The man was moved when he saw her, but the man didn't dare to look at him. Knowing that in his current situation, he was not worthy of the other party at all, and he didn't even dare to look at it. But when he was embarrassed, the woman took the initiative to speak to him and made an incredible request, which turned out to be Invite him to be a woman's son-in-law."

"The man was dumbfounded at the time and couldn't believe it was true. There are such ridiculous things in this world."

"Later, after the woman explained to him, he knew why a woman did this. This was out of obedience to the woman's family."

"The man agreed, and since then he has become a woman's son-in-law..."

Lin Ziming spoke in a whisper, speaking very calmly and with great care. Following his words, he slowly fell into the memory.

When talking about being humiliated, he will show embarrassment and emotion, and when talking about the sweet moments between husband and wife, he will show a happy smile on his face.

As he spoke, he even reddened his eyes in the end.

"When the man has done everything, went through all the difficulties, and returned to the woman, he found that the woman had become another personality under extreme grief and turned a blind eye to him..."

Lin Ziming looked at Chu Fei with a more serious and profound look than ever before, "Master Forget, I want to ask you, if you were this man, what would you do?"

Chu Fei's breathing became a lot faster, she no longer had the indifference in her eyes, and there was pain on her face. She knocked the wooden fish faster and faster...

She couldn't calm down.
