

Chapter: 1296

These two days Lin Ziming had a very leisurely life, and his life was back on the original track, but he did not relax his vigilance because of this. He knew that this was just the tranquility before the storm, and there will be many challenges waiting for him. .

He has now stabilized his realm in the innate realm, Dzogchen, and the life source of the heaven and earth spirit fruit in his body has also been digested by 80%. As long as these two are also digested, he will be an invincible cultivation base under the impervious King Kong. Even if Jian Rushuang comes to him, he can fight Jian Rushuang, and even defeat Jian Rushuang! Shame before a snowfall!

Now he has handed over all the power, headed by Jiang Liqun, Wang Shougui and Han Jinlong, operating his business empire, like a huge machine, running fast in the dark.

It is no exaggeration to say that Lin Ziming's wealth is now the richest man in G province, and his assets are still increasing. Over time, he can become the richest man in China. It is not impossible.

Of course, for him now, wealth is nothing more than a number. What he wants more is to have greater ability to protect the people around him.

Now Lin Ziming has returned strongly, especially by defeating the four masters of Zhong Tao and Fang Xingping with his own power. It can be described as terrifying countless people, and I also know that he has reached the terrifying realm of Innate Realm Dzogchen, looking at the whole g Province, no one dared to fight him anymore.

There are already countless people who want to flatter him.

Moreover, Lin Ziming is not as simple as a simple martial artist. Now Lin Ziming's business empire is also a behemoth. No one dares to provoke Lin Ziming, and even the three cadres around Lin Ziming are also big men among the big men.

Now I don't know how many people regret that they didn't return to Lin Ziming and became Lin Ziming's capable cadres, so they were soaring into the sky!

It's a pity that there are no regrets in this world. Now I can only please Lin Ziming as much as possible. It is impossible to send charcoal in the snow, but it is also a bit useful to add some flowers.

It's strange that even if Lin Ziming has become the number one in G province, he still lives very plainly. He never wears a famous brand, doesn't like to drive a luxury car when going out, and never wears a bodyguard. Anyone who doesn't know him will I never thought that he would be a big man who can save an earthquake by stomping his feet.

It's not that he deliberately pretends to be a pig and eats a tiger, but he is used to simplicity, which is his most comfortable state.

Both Wang Shougui and Han Jinlong strongly suggested that in his capacity, he should wear the most expensive brand in the world, drive the most expensive car, and should not drive a battery car. This is too inconsistent with his status. .

However, Lin Ziming refused without hesitation. For him, he didn't need to show off in this way. On the contrary, it would cause him unnecessary trouble. The most important thing for him is to live comfortably.

“Oh, Lin Dong is really unpredictable!” In Ziqiong Media, Wang Shougui and Han Jinlong sighed helplessly as they watched Lin Ziming leave on a small electric donkey. He really didn't understand. Lin Ziming's thoughts.

According to normal people's thinking, the reason why people struggle is to live a better life and enrich their material life. How do you feel that Lin Ziming has money and does not have money, and there is no difference between living.

Han Jinlong said: “Dong Lin is a fairy-like figure, which is beyond our mortal man's ability to speculate, maybe this is also a way of cultivation of Lin Dong!”

Wang Shougui smiled bitterly: “The key is that Lin Dong is so simple, and we are not embarrassed to be too arrogant. I originally wanted to change Leslie. As a result, Lin Dong and his elders all opened small eDonkeys. I am embarrassed to change it. I was embarrassed to open the Bentley before, and I am going to sell it for a small BMW.”

Han Jinlong was taken aback, and said, “According to that, I should change the car too.”

“It's better to change it.” Wang Shougui said solemnly.
