

Chapter: 1324

With the passage of time, Lin Ziming and the army god have become more and more fierce to kill, and they have reached the white-hot stage. Everyone present can play Go, and naturally they can feel the tragedy.

Go can be said to be the most difficult chess game in the world, and there is a huge gap between people of different levels.

As for the chess game of Jun Shen and Lin Ziming, even the world's No. 1 Go master would be ashamed to see them.

Their brain's computing power, to some extent, has surpassed that of computers.

After more than an hour, Lin Ziming only felt that 90% of his stamina had been consumed, and the amount of sweat he did not know was evaporated by the high temperature on his surface.

Although the military god is not as unbearable as him, he is not much better. He also sweats a lot, and it takes a lot of time to take each step.

Since he stepped into the King Kong is not bad, no one has forced him to do so, and Lin Ziming was the first one.

As the military god of the Chinese nation, he sits on the luck of a country. He deliberately used the chess game to make the world and press on Lin Ziming with the force of a country. It can be said that Lin Ziming is resisting the luck of a country. , This is extremely difficult!

The master of the fourth stage of the Innate Realm had to collapse directly, and it would be difficult to recover for a year or a half.

And Lin Ziming not only did not collapse, but insisted on it all the time. This is no longer a rare thing, but an absolute evildoer, which made Huangpu Dao treat him more highly. It was the first time he saw a young man like Lin Ziming.

In his chess game, Lin Ziming is a grassroots, waving his arms high, issuing unwillingness to the order, and starting an uprising, and it is getting bigger and bigger, and he has the strength to resist the country!

After another hour, on the chessboard, black and white are densely packed. You have me in you, and you in me. All kinds of fighting and all kinds of dangers, even if others see it, they can't help but feel shocked.

In the end, when Lin Ziming put down his son, the body of the army god trembled slightly, and there was horror in his eyes, and he raised his head and looked at Lin Ziming.

There is a huge wave in his heart now, because he actually lost!

Lin Ziming's fall was to seal all his back roads. The peasant uprising succeeded in overthrowing his dynasty, and a new order was to be established!

You know, the Whampo Road chess game has been horizontally and horizontally for decades, and there has never been a loss before, but today, he actually lost to the young man in front of him.

“Senior Military God, you are here.” Lin Ziming said with a smile.

Huangpudao shook his head and said, “No, I have already lost.”

He said this sentence with infinite emotion, and the people around him were dumbfounded and shocked after hearing this. Under what circumstances did the military god actually lose? !

Shangguan Wei’an also widened his eyes. He looked at the chess game vigorously, but he did not find out how the army god had lost. It was obviously the advantage of the army god. Bai Zi was already surrounded by black sons, and there was no way out!

Lin Ziming said: “Senior Military God, how do you know that you have lost?”

The military god was taken aback for a moment, does he still have a chance to live?

He hurriedly settled down and looked at it and found that there was no way to survive. However, Lin Ziming still needed a few steps to kill the chess game. He thought about it and decided to continue.

He fell again.

This time, it showed his unyielding as the king of a country.
