

Chapter: 1374

As the so-called concern is chaos, now Lin Ziming is Chu Fei's heaven, she can't tolerate Lin Ziming's problem, especially nervous.

Lin Ziming felt her care, took her hand, smiled and said, "Don't worry, I will win."

"but....."

"No, but we have been together for so many years, don't you still believe me?"

Chu Fei swallowed the words in her mouth. She met Lin Ziming's eyes, nodded gently, and chose to believe in Lin Ziming.

Then, Lin Ziming saw many relatives and friends, all cheering for him, with concern and worry, and expectation.

This was the first time Lin Ziming felt that he was originally expected by so many people, but before he knew it, he was no longer alone. He not only became a family, but also became the leader of many people.

This is an honor and a responsibility.

If he changed before, Lin Ziming would feel pressure, but now, after so many experiences, he is already calm.

He was in a hurry to go to Junlin Mountain, but returned home, took a bath, ate a meal, and took a nap before setting off to Junlin Mountain.

He looked particularly relaxed, without a little pressure, and even less panicked, as if he was just going to work, and he didn't ask what a big deal.

It is precisely because of his calmness that he has infected the people around him, and his original nervous and worried mood slowly relaxes.

Junlin Mountain, not in Hwaseong City, but in Fengcheng, the name is well named. Junlin Mountain, which means Junlin Mountain, is actually a relatively ordinary mountain. Apart from being tall, there is no big deal.

Lei Zhen and Lin Ziming will fight to the death in this place. It is true that when they can play as much as they want, there will be no worries.

When Lin Ziming felt that King Linshan had arrived, many people had already arrived, and they were all first-class people in society.

"Look, Lin Ziming is here!"

"He is finally here, I thought he would not be here anymore."

"How is this possible? Lin Ziming is the number one expert in Province G, and now he is also an expert at Dzogchen in the Innate Realm. How could he not come?"

"Huh, what's going on when he comes? He will die if he comes! Is he also worthy of the No. 1 expert in G province? If Lei Zhen had retired five years ago, would it be Lin Ziming's turn now?"

"You are too courageous. If you dare to say this, you won't be afraid of being heard by Lin Ziming and trouble you?"

"I...I'm just kidding."

Lin Ziming got out of the car and looked around. He saw a lot of acquaintances. Most of them had met him. There were business predators, martial arts masters, and some people on the white road.

This battle is indeed eye-catching.

In terms of scale, it was many times higher than the duel with Wu Meizi.

Soon, Lin Ziming felt a familiar look. He looked over, and in a secret corner, he saw a red figure. It was not someone, it was neon clothes.
