

Chapter: 1432

“Yeah.” Lin Ziming nodded.

“Okay, pay attention to your safety.” Chu Fei paused, and said, she knew Lin Ziming, and it must be her mother-in-law who was in danger. Lin Ziming would take such a risk. As a wife, she would not want to and can't be there anymore. In this case, discourage Lin Ziming, so as not to increase Lin Ziming's troubles.

Lin Ziming's lips moved lightly, why didn't he understand what Chu Fei meant, everything was for his consideration.

He had to hug Chu Fei and said deeply: “I will come back safely.”

“Yeah! I believe you!” Chu Fei nodded vigorously, revealing a sweet smile.

Lin Ziming also smiled, and the two hugged each other to sleep.

The next day, when Chu Fei woke up, she found that Lin Ziming was no longer by her side. She stretched out lazily. Then, from Lin Ziming's pillow, she touched a piece of paper that said: Feifei, go this time Luo Tian headquarters, nine deaths, if I can't come back within a week, then it means I may never come back, you take the Chu family up and down, leave Hwaseong, find a place far away, and survive. Sorry to worry you again.

Pen, Ziming.

Seeing this note, Chu Fei was stunned for an instant, and then two lines of tears shed from the corner of her eyes...

Lin Ziming got up early and set off.

Luo Tian headquarters, he had long wanted to go, saving his mother out, for him, was an obsession.

It is also the great motivation for him to fight forward.

Once, he thought that as long as he broke through to the innate realm, then he would have the strength and the qualifications to save his mother.

But later he discovered that even in the Innate Realm, it was still not enough, because as his strength improved, he increasingly discovered that Luo Tian's organization was not simple.

Later, he thought that as long as he reached the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, he could go.

The reality still gave him a slap in the face, even in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm, going to the Luo Tian organization would still hit the stone with an egg.

Just a few months ago, he thought that after reaching the congenital realm of Dzogchen, at least he could go to the Luo Tian organization to make a breakthrough. However, Jian Rushuang's appearance also dispelled his thoughts.

Especially on Junlin Mountain, the appearance of Holy King Luo Tian shattered all his hopes. At that moment, even if he defeated Lei Zhen, he was not happy at all. Because this means that even if he is in the indestructible body of King Kong, he may not be able to resist Luo Tian's organization.

This way day after day, year after year, when will we be headed?

According to his knowledge, his mother has been imprisoned in Luotian headquarters for six full years!

He originally thought that he still had time. With his talent and diligence, in two years, he would break through to the King Kong not bad Dzogchen. Even if he was not the opponent of the Holy King Luo Tian, he still had a chance of winning in conjunction with the military god Huangpu Dao. But now, he has no time, a text message from Nishang dispelled his idea, and he had to go.

He didn't have any doubts about the authenticity of this newsletter, but it might be a trap.

But he had no choice. His mother was too important to him. He had only this choice.

He didn't even have any time to prepare. After explaining the funeral, he left at dawn.

From the clown, he knew the location of Luo Tian's headquarters, which was in a remote mountain forest in the Central Plains. By noon, Lin Ziming had arrived in this mountain forest.

He could perceive that there is a mountain city deep in the forest, that is, Luo Tian's headquarters.
