

Chapter: 1438

She is Lin Ziming's biological mother, Qin Yuehua.

"I, what's the crime?" Qin Yuehua raised her head with difficulty, looking squarely at Jian Rushuang, and because Jian Rushuang was the number one master under King Kong, she felt afraid and flinched.

Jian Rushuang snorted coldly, "I don't know how to repent!"

After he finished speaking, he didn't directly beat Qin Yuehua. He had a patterned snare drum in his hand. He began to beat. With each beat, Qin Yuehua's body trembled violently, her expression was extremely hideous, and she seemed to be suffering from great pain.

咚咚咚...

After another, Jian Rushuang was beating faster and faster, and the worse Qin Yuehua's body was, she seemed to be unable to hold on, but she also did not shout out, extremely tough.

There were at least a thousand people present. Seeing this scene, no one dared to speak, but only a few people couldn't bear it.

Qin Yuehua was a saint of the previous generation, and she was perfect in terms of talent, personality, or handling. With the special status of the saint, she once surpassed the four heavenly kings in the Luotian organization.

Almost everyone respected her, thinking that the saint would definitely be able to smoothly cultivate with the saint king, become a virgin, and even step into the incorruptible body of the vajra, becoming the second powerhouse in the Luotian organization!

God-passing state, this is the true peak of existence in the world today.

Asking the world, how many masters of the realm of gods have been produced in the thousands of years of human civilization?

But in today's world, people in the realm of gods, all add up to no more than five.

What a detached existence this is.

If the saint can become the second master of the realm of divinity, then the Luo Tian organization can definitely become the largest power in the world, and it is not impossible to rule the world in another way!

However, 30 years ago, Qin Yuehua did something that humiliated the Luo Tian organization. She actually left the Luo Tian organization without authorization, eloped with a lowly mortal, got married, and gave birth to a wild species!

For Luo Tian organization, this is absolutely unforgivable!

Had it not been for the saint king to keep the saint at the last moment, the saint would have already turned into a cup of loess.

Now that the Holy King has been in retreat for many years, Luo Tian's organization has been greatly injured, and it has lost its former glory. A large part of the reason is that Qin Yuehua has done a good job! Therefore, the vast majority of people have a favorable impression of Qin Yuehua. Originally, they also endured Qin Yuehua and let her die alone here, but some time ago, that wild species actually provoke the Luo Tian organization and killed the Southern Territory King Lei Zhen. This is simply unforgivable!

By now, Qin Yuehua was dying, and it seemed that as long as she knocked it again, she would die.

Jian Rushuang stopped playing the drums at this moment, and he said again: "Qin Yuehua, I will ask you one last time, you are convicted!"

The sword sounded like frost, and it was so loud that he used true energy, and for Qin Yuehua, it was a huge blow to the spirit. Her body, which was originally weak, has now begun to appear mentally psychedelic.

She subconsciously wanted to speak, saying that she had been convicted of guilt, but when she was about to speak, she still woke up and changed her words: "I am not guilty."

The audience suddenly calmed down, Jian Rushuang's face became even more ugly...
