

Chapter: 1488

“Li Dao, you have lost all of our Yandu’s face this time!”

In the Yandu camp, many people began to complain and inquired about Li Dao.

Although Li Dao was seriously injured, he was at least a strong man in the fourth stage of the Innate Realm. His physical strength was far beyond that of ordinary people. In addition, Lin Ziming did not have a killer just now, so his injury did not seem to him. Too heavy, after this short-answer bandage, you can move normally without going to the hospital.

Li Dao looked at Lin Ziming deeply, his face was still pale, and he felt lingering in his heart. He took a deep breath and said, “The latest rumors are not hype. This surnamed Lin really has a congenital perfection. His strength! Even, his strength is even higher than that of Little Valkyrie!”

“what?!”

“Really, it’s impossible!”

“Yeah, who is the Little Valkyrie? We are the number one master in Yandu. Even the military god and his elders have said that the Little Valkyrie is a rare martial arts wizard in a century. Within ten years, he is expected to break through to the realm of mastery. of!”

“Li Dao, you shouldn’t have been beaten stupid.”

Several people expressed doubts and disagreement. Indeed, the little warrior was so famous in Yandu, and to them, he was like an idol and was also a sign of Yandu.

Now suddenly there is a third place in Xuanyuan, whose strength is even more than that of Little Warrior. Who believes this?

This is similar to the martial arts leader who has been in the world for many years. Now suddenly he does not know from which corner a kid popped up. Just because he defeated a master, he said he was the number one master and compared the martial arts leader.

Li Dao snorted and said, “If you don’t believe me, don’t worry, how strong is my strength, don’t you still know? The punch just now, if not for the other side’s mercy, I would be dead!”

Although he was very reluctant to admit this fact, he had to say it, otherwise it would appear that he was too incompetent.

Everyone knew something about Li Dao. Knowing that Li Dao was lying, they were now more jealous and awe of Lin Ziming. They couldn’t help but turned their heads, looked at Lin Ziming, and found that Lin Ziming was eating and drinking in a low-key manner. He looked very gentle, like an elegant university professor, and formed a huge contrast with the domineering posture just now.

Just at this moment, Lin Ziming realized that they were looking at him, suddenly turned his head, smiled intriguingly at them, and shocked them all, just like a primary school student was doing it or being discovered by the head teacher, he turned his face hastily. I dare not look at Lin Ziming again. The other people in the third place of Xuanyuan also saw this scene, and laughed involuntarily, with pride on their faces. Lin Ziming was a person from the third place of Xuanyuan, and being so powerful was the pride of their third place of Xuanyuan.

Because of Lin Ziming's town, the conversation between Xuanyuan three places and General Qin became more normal, and General Qin also put away his contempt.

The other people who came from Yandu did not dare to look down on the three places of Xuanyuan anymore, and their impressions had changed a lot. This society is just talking about fists. Whoever has a big fist will be respected.

In the three places of Xuanyuan, in the battle a few years ago, too many masters fell, and their strength plummeted. Slowly, they were looked down upon by many colleagues. Therefore, the important task of this Kung Fu Cup fell on the three places of Xuanyuan. Many people were not convinced. of. But now, because of Lin Ziming's existence, they put away the unconvinced.

After chatting for a while, General Qin and Peng Zhuo were almost talking about it. When they were about to leave, General Qin took the initiative to walk towards Lin Ziming, "Instructor Lin, is it convenient for you to talk to me?"
