

Chapter: 1549

“I was wrong, I was wrong... Don't throw me to feed the sharks, I don't want to die, woaaa...” Leyton was so scared that he started crying, howling. At this moment, where did he have the arrogance just now, he was already scared.

He struggled desperately, but he was such a dude who had already hollowed out his body, where was the opponent of these sturdy guys, just like chickens, and in a short while, he was tied up by the sturdy guy.

In this case, he was so scared that he was peeing his pants, and he fell ticking.

Lin Ziming suddenly laughed disdainfully when he saw his wimpy look, so careless.

With such courage, he dared to oppose him, and he didn't know how to live or die.

The others present saw the embarrassment of Leyton, and none of them dared to laugh at them, and all of them were shivering, panicking, for fear that Lin Ziming would focus on them.

Because they didn't ridicule Lin Ziming less just now!

If Lin Ziming really took them with the knife, then they would be completely finished.

Even people like Leyton are ants in front of Lin Ziming, not to mention them. Just then Lin Ziming's gaze was over, and they were immediately scared to death. They all knelt down and begged for mercy, “Chairman, I was wrong. It was our fault just now, because our dogs didn't know Mount Tai. , I offended the chairman. I beg the chairman to have a lot, just treat us as a fart...”

“I beg the chairman to let it go, oh oh...”

In less than a moment, the second generation ancestors all knelt down, slapped their heads, slapped their heads, and slapped their heads. The scene was so spectacular.

For these little people, Lin Ziming didn't have any intentions to embarrass them.

Soon, his gaze turned to the only person standing still, Murong Xue.

To say that Murong Xue is still standing is not to say that she is already stupid, the whole person is absolutely demented.

She stood there, like a puppet with no soul, her eyes were absolutely demented, and she stared at Lin Ziming blankly.

Lin Ziming didn't bother to care about her when he saw her like this.

In any case, Murongxue was considered his childhood sweetheart, and had a relationship with each other before. If it weren't for the incident five years ago, there is a high probability that they were married.

The current situation can only be said to be good luck.

Lin Ziming sighed inwardly. In fact, he was quite happy to meet Murongxue this time. If Murongxue was the same as before, he would help Murongxue's family.

But now it seems that there is absolutely no need for this. He and Murong Xue are already a stranger.

He winked at Ding Fengmao, and then left here without hesitation.

Ding Fengmao understood Lin Ziming's meaning, and while he was relieved, he also had to sigh Lin Ziming's magnanimity, and he actually let Leyton go.

In terms of Lin Ziming's current status and ability, killing a Layton would be like killing a chicken.

He kicked Leighton violently, and cursed: "For your destiny, the chairman has Dalian patriots, and you don't have the same knowledge as you! Next time you dare not know Taishan and offend the director. Elder, I will kill you directly!"

Leyton suffered this kick, his whole body bends like a prawn, and the pain makes him breathless.

But he did not dare to have any resentment or hatred, because he knew that Ding Fengmao was right. As the chairman of the Lin Group, it was indeed very simple to really kill him.

After a while, after Lin Ziming, Ding Fengmao and others had left, the audience was still strangely quiet.

Everyone was stunned, unable to make a sound.
