

Chapter: 1597

Hei Mamba's attitude was very firm, and he raked back, staring sharply at Li Dao and General Qin.

His posture is extremely arrogant.

General Qin immediately turned gloomy, and said coldly: "Hei Mamba, you are a strong man of Dzogchen in the Innate Realm. Are you trying to rip your face and fight against China?"

Hei Mamba is not afraid of General Qin's threats. He even has a smile on his face, saying disapprovingly: "I'm just seeking truth from facts. But I can look at your face, your China's rudeness, I'm not going to Investigated."

General Qin was very angry, but for a while, he didn't know what to do. You must know that behind the black mamba, not only his own, but also a country's power. If it is not handled well, it is easy to suffer.

At this moment, a voice came from the audience.

"We Hua Guo is rude?"

When everyone heard this voice, they immediately cheered up. Looking back, they immediately saw Lin Ziming. He walked over without any haste. Everyone next to him would keep aside and look at him with admiring eyes. General Qin saw Lin Ziming, and he was also relieved.

The pressure suddenly became much smaller.

Even he himself was not aware of this change. Before he knew it, Lin Ziming had become the backbone of this Kung Fu Cup. As long as Lin Ziming was there, all the troubles would be solved.

Lin Ziming actually arrived just now, but he didn't have the first time to come up. Instead, he was hiding in the crowd, because he wanted to see if he was not present and whether General Qin and Peng Zhuo could solve the problem.

But he was still disappointed. It wasn't that General Qin and Peng Zhuo were not strong enough, but that they were not strong enough. And this group of foreigners came over with evil intentions from the beginning, and was full of hostility towards China. Without absolute deterrence by force, it is difficult to solve the problem.

No wonder the above will choose him to be the security officer of this Kung Fu Cup, but this is already expected.

He is almost certain that the incident that was killed just now was signaled by the Black Mamba, and the Black Mamba may be the result of negotiations with other Innate Realm Great Perfection powerhouses.

Even if he defeated Zhongjing Junichiro just now, is Liwei not enough?

Lin Ziming couldn't help but shook his head. Some sneers appeared in his heart. If this is the case, let's be more prestigious!

Hei Mamba saw Lin Ziming, his eyes narrowed slightly, but he was not too afraid, and he quickly returned to his natural expression.

“Lin Ziming, I admit that you are good at fighting, but what just happened was the official failure of your Chinese government. There are no warriors who have taught you Chinese warriors. You should use eagle language to communicate. It has nothing to do with my clan. This Chinese warrior has to die, you should be responsible for it!” Hei Mamba said loudly.

He spoke very fluently and seemed to be ready for it a long time ago, just to deal with Lin Ziming.

Others also looked at Lin Ziming, wondering what Lin Ziming would do.

Lin Ziming did not follow what he said. Instead, he said: “Is it because China has been low-key internationally over the years, which is giving you the illusion that China is very weak and is a soft persimmon. Do you knead?”

When he said this, he looked straight at the black mamba, his eyes were very deep, like a bottomless pool, making the black mamba panic for no reason, avoiding his eyes. He snorted heavily and said, “Lin Ziming, are you threatening me? Anyone with a discerning eye knows what happened just now that it was your Hua Guo’s failure to do so!”

His eyes are clearly saying, I’m not afraid of your threats. If there is a kind of thing, you can touch my people and take a look.
