

Chapter: 1606

When Shangguan Shuyao saw a few friends like this, she shook her head. She hadn't known how many times she had fought, and she had no feeling for this level.

After a while, she suddenly felt something, her face suddenly changed, and she said, "No!"

Soon, there were more than 20 sturdy men who came over aggressively and surrounded the place.

Among them, walking in the forefront was a tall and burly man with a scar on his face, fierce and wicked.

"Boss, these are these bitches! They were very arrogant just now, not only did they say a lot of bad things about you, but they also beat us!"

"Boss, you must not let them go easily!"

As soon as they walked over, the wicked person immediately complained.

When other women saw so many people, they finally showed panic on their faces. Although they had practiced martial arts, they could never beat so many tall men!

The fierce boss, after walking over, saw the appearance of these women, especially the beauty of Shangguan Shuyao, which made him shine and swallowed heavily.

"It was you who beat me just now? What a courage!" As soon as the boss arrived, he directly accused them of the crime.

"You're done, now our boss is here, let's see how you dance!"

The women immediately looked at Shangguan Shuyao. At this time, they could only count on Shangguan Shuyao.

They know that Shangguan Shuyao's offerings and services are not on the same level as them.

It is precisely because they believe in Shangguan Shuyao that they all let their bodyguards wait outside the bar, otherwise they don't have to panic.

Shangguan Shuyao stood up and said: "Why hit them, you know it in your own heart. I don't bother to talk nonsense with you, we are from Yandu, you can't afford to be offended by such a small person, and you can honestly give it to me. Get out of the way, otherwise, I can wipe you out with just one phone call."

Shangguan Shuyao's words were very domineering, which immediately aroused the praise of those women.

But it fell in the ears of the other party, but it turned into a bragging performance. They immediately laughed out loud, and the boss said in a weird manner: "Oh, I'm so scared, it's also a big man from Yandu. Tsk tusk! But, in Meng Long's life, my favorite is to conquer big people, especially those who are beautiful! It seems that your tone is not good, and it falls into my Meng Long's hands!"

Shangguan Shuyao's face became more gloomy, and the other women began to panic somewhat.

"I advise you not to mess around!" Shangguan Shuyao said with clenched fists.

Although she is a master at the pinnacle of the day after tomorrow, it is absolutely impossible for her to beat more than 20 people alone, not to mention that she drank alcohol, and her strength was reduced a lot.

The boss looked at her with a squint, and said lividly, "Chaos? I will have more chaos later! Hehehe..."

The other gangsters also started to smirk, their eyes looking so wretched and wretched.

"Give me all!" The boss gave an order, and more than 20 gangsters immediately began to do it.

Shangguan Shuyao's face changed at the moment. She didn't have time to think about it. She concentrated on responding to the enemy while asking her companion behind her to call the bodyguard.

But she still overestimates her own strength. Faced with so many people, she is not an opponent at all, and her companions do not have the opportunity to call. It will not take long for her to be subdued and she will be humiliated. At this moment, from the door Hearing a loud noise, everyone looked over.
