

Chapter: 1619

When Lin Ziming came to Yandu this time, he was already ready to play, but he didn't expect that the military god's techniques would be flawed and would enter a period of decline after a period of time, and this period of decline is not very good anymore. Far.

In the Chinese state, another master in the realm of the gods, Luo Tiansheng, is also his own master who occupies the mountain as the king. In the strict sense, he is not a Chinese. It is true that Hua Guo has been targeted internationally, and this Saint King Luo Tian will not necessarily make a move.

So in this way, the situation can be said to be very serious.

Originally, if it weren't for this Kung Fu Cup, the championship reward was so high, China could still drag it.

But in this situation, China already has no time to delay.

Once the champion really falls aside, and then other powers have masters of the realm of God, then this relationship of checks and balances will be broken immediately.

And this situation is not what China wants to see.

Lin Ziming nodded, and he readily agreed, with no excuses, and no request for subsidies.

It was not easy for Shangguan Wei'an and Shangguan to see that he agreed so readily, and he was relieved, and at the same time they admired Lin Ziming more and more. There are indeed not many young people like this. Not only are they talented, they have such strength at a young age, and their key thoughts are still high. It's really not easy.

At this time, Shangguan hardly even had a thought, if Lin Ziming hadn't already had a family, then he would be an excellent candidate to be his son-in-law.

It's a pity that there is no such thing as Lin Ziming is indeed married.

Next, they discussed some details, mainly asking Lin Ziming whether he was confident, after all, there are not many people in China who can meet the conditions to play.

Speaking of this, Lin Ziming asked, "I am the only one who can meet the conditions of the Congenital Realm Dzogchen in China this time in the Kung Fu Cup?"

Lin Ziming wanted to ask this question a long time ago, but it is a pity that Peng Zhuo and General Qin are not clear about it.

Shangguan Wei'an and Shangguan are not easy to father and son. After hearing these words, their faces showed a look of regret and helplessness. They sighed and said, "In fact, besides you, there is still another person who meets the conditions. This one. Man is also a great genius."

"Oh? I don't know who this person is?" Lin Ziming became curious when he heard these words. He is considered a relatively well-known person in China, and now he is not low in status and can know a lot of secrets, but He didn't know that besides him, there were people who had masters of Dzogchen in the Innate Realm who were eligible to participate in this Kung Fu Cup.

Shangguan Wei'an sighed and said, "This person is called Ouyang Manyue. He is an extraordinary genius like you. He is only thirty-five years old this year, and he broke through the innate realm and achieved great perfection five years ago."

Lin Ziming was even more shocked when he heard these words. He stepped into the congenital realm of Dzogchen at the age of 30. That is a super genius. Although it is still two years behind him, it is also very remarkable. Up!

And such a super genius, Lin Ziming has not even heard of it? It's incredible.

Lin Ziming immediately became interested and said: "There is such a person? It's a bit interesting. I don't know where he is now. If he participates in the Kung Fu Cup together, he will be above the quarter-finals and I will join hands with him. The probability of winning is much greater."

Lin Ziming is not joking. If there is another person fighting with him, he can share part of the pressure, then his certainty will increase a lot.

After all, in the quarter-finals, he will be asked to play seven people alone. This is too difficult and difficult. Even if he claims to be invincible under the gods, he is not sure.
