

Chapter: 1634

It was their arrogance for so many years that gave them the illusion that they really thought they could walk sideways, but finally hit the iron plate today! Seeing Lin Ziming's passing, they yelled in fear, "You can't kill us! We are members of the princelings. If you kill us, you won't be able to leave Yandu!"

"If you dare to kill us, our family will never die with you!"

Lin Ziming sneered, "Dare to threaten me when I die? It seems that you really didn't take my words to heart. Originally, I was only planning to teach you a profound lesson, leaving you one. Dog life, but you still dare to threaten me now. This makes me very angry."

Just when Lin Ziming was about to do it, an emotion came from outside the door, "Instructor Lin, I have to forgive others and forgive others. Let them go."

Lin Ziming sighed for this sudden emotion, and didn't have much surprise. He just raised his eyebrows slightly and looked at the middle-aged man who walked in by the door, wearing a suit.

This man looked like a farmer, with dark skin and a slightly curved waist. However, when Lin Ziming saw this person, some light flashed in his eyes, and at the same time, his breathing was also a little quicker in that instant. Others can't see that this person is terrifying, but he can immediately see that the strength of this old farmer is not simple!

In his spiritual strength, this old farmer is like a huge hoe with a heavy breath on his body. Seeing this old farmer is like seeing a large piece of land! Moreover, the body of the old peasant contains endless energy, and Bi Jian Rushuang does not fall!

This really surprised Lin Ziming.

In fact, he felt the existence of this old farmer just now, and there was a powerful Innate Realm Dzogchen expert approaching here.

But he did not expect that the opponent's strength is so terrifying, it is actually on the same level as Jian Rushuang!

You know, before Jian Rushuang was defeated by him, he was known as the first person in the realm of the gods!

Now there is a person who is at the level of Jian Rushuang, how can this make Lin Ziming not surprised?

And Master Wu, who was still pretending to be dead, saw this old farmer, and his eyes suddenly burst into great surprise and excitement, and he blurted out: "Little Valkyrie! It's the Little Valkyrie to save us!"

When the others saw the three words 'Little Valkyrie', they were slightly stunned, and then they started to get excited.

The name Xiaowushen is so famous in Yandu, it is completely thunderous. How many times stronger than Master Wu!

Because not only in the circle of the princelings, but also many warriors know the little warrior, and have heard his legend, the little warrior almost broke through to the terrifying existence of the god-passing realm! It's just that there was a little luck in the back, and he was stuck in the congenital realm.

But even so, the strength of the Little Valkyrie does not need to be questioned.

If nothing else, just use the three words 'Little Valkyrie', the weight is already heavy enough!

Lin Ziming narrowed his eyes slightly, both surprised and not surprised.
