

Chapter: 1654

They don't have to kill Lin Ziming, they just need to wound Lin Ziming. And they absolutely didn't believe that Lin Ziming could resist it with the four of them making a move together! This is absolutely impossible.

When so many Chinese martial artists saw this scene, they were full of indignation and outrage. Lin Ziming was their hero and their only hope. It is so hateful to be framed by an adulterer now!

Unfortunately, they can't do much to help, they can only watch.

"Instructor Lin! Must hold on!"

"Instructor Lin, our country relies on you!"

They had a huge emotion, and the aura on them was condensed to the extreme at this moment.

If each of them is an oil lamp, and the aura is their burning flame, then at this moment, their flames are exuberant to the extreme, burning out all their energy at this moment and igniting Lin Ziming.

It also made Lin Ziming feel a stronger momentum and resonance in an instant.

Let his mind shook up!

If his mental power was originally like a small stream, flowing slowly, then just now he entered a mysterious realm under a blunder, and began to brew the 'big trend' into a small river, then he is now directly Become a big river!

Let his 'general trend' be brewed in advance at this moment.

It's a lot to say, but in fact, it's just a moment.

Just when these four Innate Realm Dzogchen masters were about to hit Lin Ziming with their fists.

Lin Ziming suddenly widened his eyes.

A powerful mental power radiated from his body.

It was like a storm, piercing the minds of these four innate realm Dzogchen masters like a needle, making them instantly feel the pain. It was originally a fierce and fierce offensive that was reduced by half at this moment, but it also collectively Hit Lin Ziming.

However, before Lin Ziming was hit, he made a revolving posture to minimize the damage caused by these four punches.

"Not good! Instructor Lin was attacked!" Peng Zhuo's expression changed drastically.

The other warriors were also worried, and their hearts sank.

Although they have absolute confidence in Lin Ziming, they believe that Lin Ziming is the strongest person in the entire Kung Fu Cup. But after all, Lin Ziming still didn't step into the realm of Communism. Now he was attacked jointly by four top masters of the same level, and he was hit at the same time.

Even if Lin Ziming's physique is too good, he must be seriously injured!

When other foreign warriors saw this scene, they had completely different reactions, and they all began to get excited and happy.

However, before they were happy for long, Lin Ziming was seriously injured as they thought. He just frowned slightly, and then shot at the same time to counterattack these four innate realm Great Perfection powerhouses! Bang bang bang...

Four consecutive punches were punched out of Lin Ziming's hands, obviously in four directions, but to him, it was like having four hands, punching out from four directions at the same time!

At the same time, these four Innate Realm Dzogchen masters were beaten back!

At the same time, Lin Ziming's absorption of the 'general trend' stopped.

"Just your group of ants, want to stop me?"

Lin Ziming stood with his hands in his hands, and said lightly, at this moment, he is the only protagonist in the world, a martial artist in the world.
