

Chapter: 1707

Everyone was very confident in Xiao Cangmang, thinking that Xiao Cangmang would surely be able to easily take down his opponent and give Hua Guo a good wave of momentum.

In fact, Xiao Cangmang himself thinks so too. After all, he himself is a master of fame. As the instructor of Xuanyuan's three dragon blood team, his realm is already at the edge of the third stage of the Innate Realm, and he can reach the Inborn Realm just half a step. The fourth stage.

Moreover, during this time, he had accepted Lin Ziming's guidance, and his strength had increased a lot compared to before.

The main opponent this time is a little-known opponent who has no reputation in the world, so Xiao Cangmang's self-confidence is not arrogant, but has a basis.

He smiled brightly and said: "Don't worry, everyone, I will disappoint everyone."

After that, he was about to enter the ring.

Lin Ziming looked at the big screen, Xiao Cang's opponent, Danielle's photos, he always had a bad premonition.

When Xiao Cangmang was about to enter the ring, he stopped Xiao Cangmang, and said in a deep voice: "Instructor Xiao, second in the game, life first."

Xiao Cangmang is a wise man. Why would he not understand the meaning of Lin Ziming's words, he was still moved, nodded, and said, "Instructor Lin, don't worry, I will be fine."

Since Xiao Cangmang had said this, Lin Ziming couldn't say anything more, and nodded.

Soon, Xiao Cangmang stepped onto the ring under the attention of all the Chinese warriors on the scene.

Because this Kung Fu Cup was presented to the whole world in a live broadcast, at the same time, martial artists from all over the world can watch this game through their unique accounts. Many Chinese martial artists who are not on the scene can watch this game. , Also secretly cheering for Xiao Cangmang.

Although Yao Wei was killed yesterday, everyone still had confidence in Xiao Cangmang. After all, Xiao Cangmang was not a newcomer, and he was relatively well-known in the world.

Finally, Xiao Cangmang stepped onto the ring.

In that moment, he felt the attention of everyone in the audience, which brought him a lot of pressure.

Although he had played before, at that time because the Kung Fu Cup was still in the early stage and there were more than one matches being played at the same time, the attention he received at that time was not as high as it is now.

Now that the Kung Fu Cup is held at this time, there are not many games left. It is a routine of playing one game before proceeding to the next one.

That's why Xiao Cangmang felt so much pressure.

But after all, he was a person who had experienced strong winds and waves, and soon released the pressure and restored his composure.

After he went up, not long after, he saw a handsome mixed-race man slowly walking into the ring.

This man is a relatively new face, and his breath is not weak, but he is only as strong as the third stage of the Innate Realm. Of course, Xiao Cangmang has no underestimation. At this point, He can only succeed, not fail.

If it fails again, the blow to China will be too great!

When Lin Ziming in the spectator stand saw Danielt ascending to the ring, his brows jumped fiercely in an instant, and he called out in surprise, "No! This is a master of Innate Realm Dzogchen. Instructor Xiao is not his opponent!"

He stood up quickly, shocking Peng Zhuo, General Qin and others next to him.
