

Chapter: 1735

Someone took out the camera and filmed this scene as an eternity.

Until a long, long time later, some people still remember that everything that happened today, in the dark day of the warriors of China, was a man named Lin Ziming who stood up and won the first victory for China, and it was also for China. The country brought the first light of hope.

From that moment on, there was something awakened in the hearts of all warriors in China! !

At this moment, everyone deeply remembered a person's name, Lin Ziming. Not limited to these people at the Kung Fu Cup scene, but also everyone who watched the live broadcast in front of the TV.

Not limited to Chinese warriors, there are countless warriors from all over the world and other countries who have also deeply remembered Lin Ziming. This one looks shameless, but has endless charm and unlimited ability.

Lin Ziming listened to the cheers and shouts of so many compatriots, and he also felt immense power.

At this moment, it seems that he is connected with the hearts of thousands of compatriots. He will never be alone. At the same time, he has completely become a symbol, a symbol representing Chinese warriors. From this moment on, he no longer just represents himself, he also represents thousands of Chinese warriors.

“This, it's impossible...”

In the other spectator seats, he was full of confidence, thinking that Lin Ziming must have fallen below his realm, and he was optimistic about Johnson. Now his whole body is stiff. He originally held the goblet easily. Uncontrollable trembling.

It's not that he is timid, but that Lin Ziming's performance just now was too horrified, too terrifying, and has completely surpassed his level!

He could clearly see that Johnson's punch just now hit Lin Ziming's face firmly, but Lin Ziming had no injuries at all, and it was so easy to kill Johnson with no effort.

That kind of scene is like him torturing an acquired pinnacle warrior, without the strength to fight back!

This also shows that Lin Ziming is not only in the state of falling, but he has digested this general trend!

But how is this possible?

If measured by a scientific method, the general trend is like a huge amount of data. Only a supercomputer can accommodate such a huge amount of data, and Lin Ziming is in the realm of psychic and his brain development is not enough, how could it be possible? Can you digest this huge amount of data? !

I definitely don't know where the problem occurred, and it must be so.

Not only him, but other people, such as Junichiro Zhongjing, Hei Mamba, etc., were also frightened, and at exactly this time, Lin Ziming looked at them.

Suddenly, their bodies couldn't help trembling all over, their complexions turned pale, and they couldn't help being terrified, and they all lowered their heads quickly, not daring to face Lin Ziming's gaze.

At this moment, so many of their innate realm Great Perfection masters were all surrendered to the majesty of Lin Ziming.

The corner of Lin Ziming's mouth raised slightly, revealing a disdainful smile. He knew that these people were no longer qualified to be his opponents. This time the Kung Fu Cup champion was none other than him. However, he had no initial excitement and anticipation in his heart, because this time the Kung Fu Cup, too many people died, it was comparable to a war.

It can be said that he can become the champion of the Kung Fu Cup by stepping on the corpses of countless people.
