

Chapter: 1758

He aroused cheers, a large part of the people began to shout his name, and the atmosphere of the audience reached a new peak again.

The Black Mamba didn't have the same aura as Zhongjing Junichiro did, but the way he played just now made people feel that his strength was not below Zhongjing Junichiro.

In other words, during this period of time, Black Mamba's strength has also improved.

The way he progressed is different from that of Junichiro Zhongjing. Under the tremendous pressure of Lin Ziming, he started to stimulate his potential, broke through the bottleneck, and made progress again.

And he can feel that once he can kill Lin Ziming today, even if he can't win the championship, then he will be transformed. In time, it is not impossible to have the opportunity to reach the realm of the gods.

Therefore, today he is going to defeat Lin Ziming no matter what.

In a sense, Lin Ziming now has become his demon. Only if Lin Ziming is defeated can he be liberated.

This time, the black mamba didn't have the beginning to provoke Lin Ziming. He just looked at Lin Ziming deeply, and from his eyes, there was a fierce war.

In the following, there will be three Innate Realm masters. These three masters, although they are weaker than Zhongjing Junichiro, Black Mamba and Levsky in terms of momentum, they are also not to be underestimated. .

There are six of them, standing in six different directions.

When six people stood on the ring, the aura from them radiated, and it shocked the audience.

You know, this is the six innate realm Dzogchen masters, this is not for fun.

“The next one is, King of Assassins, Romer!”

The host's voice fell, and the spotlight of the audience began to aim at Romer in the spectator stand.

His appearance looks too handsome, giving people a very young feeling. When his appearance appeared on the big screen, it caused cheers from many people at the scene, especially for the female warriors, Romeo. People like Er are even more charming.

There was a wicked and handsome smile on Romer's face.

The rise of the corners of his mouth is very beautiful, making him look like he is not a super strong, but a super star.

“Romer!”

“Romer!”

“Romer!”

More and more people began to cheer. It can be said that, except for the warriors of China, everyone is still calling Romer's name, making this scene become like Romer's concert.

And Romer began to enter the ring under such a crowd's attention.

His way of playing was different from the previous ones. I saw that he just took a step forward. When he appeared the next moment, he was already at a distance of more than a dozen meters, and again, it was more than a dozen meters.

Because his speed was too fast, it seemed that he was teleporting, that is, in the blink of an eye, he had already reached the ring.

Moreover, he closed his eyes and opened his arms, as if he was enjoying the scene very much, took a deep breath, and then cried out in intoxication: "Ah, that's how it feels, the championship, I'm here!"

Then, he stood in another direction and formed an encirclement with the other six Innate Realm Dzogchen masters. It could be said that he formed an encirclement circle. The momentum was also extremely huge, and it was not enough to describe it with the stormy sea.

And soon, their gazes turned to Lin Ziming at the same time, showing the greatest hostility.

In that situation, it was like seven warriors who wanted to slay the dragon.

And Lin Ziming is the evil dragon.
