

Chapter: 1780

In an instant, when Lin Ziming's figure appeared again, he was already in front of Zhongjing Junichiro.

Zhongjing Junichiro's brows throbbed, and his heart stopped beating too! At the same time, an unprecedented danger appeared in his heart, causing his goose bumps all over his body to stand up and his scalp numb!

He knew that Lin Ziming was going to attack him, and it was an absolutely severe blow. If he couldn't stop it, then he would be beaten to death alive.

Before he could think about it, it was completely a conditional launch action. He roared, and instantly gathered all the power of his whole body together to resist Lin Ziming's punch.

However, he still underestimated Lin Ziming's strength, or he overestimated his strength. Lin Ziming's punch directly broke his arms and hit his chest heavily, banging. Scream!

The sound of fist to meat spread throughout the audience, and was accompanied by the sound of ribs being broken.

Then, Zhongjing Junichiro's feet lifted off the ground and he was directly beaten into the air.

Lin Ziming severely wounded Zhongjing Junichiro with a punch, flew more than 20 meters, and fell heavily to the ground. After Zhongjing Junichiro landed, he vomited blood. Especially, a blood hole was punched in his chest!!!

There was a brief silence in the audience, and then there were cheers and applause.

The strength that Lin Ziming showed now was really terrifying, and he defeated such a powerful Zhongjing Junichiro with just one punch.

Now the camera is aimed at Junichiro Junichiro, and you can clearly see the painful expression on his face, as well as fear, regret...

He wanted to struggle to stand up, but his injury was too serious, and there was blood on his face, and he couldn't get up.

For all the warriors of the Sun Nation, the defeat of Junichiro Nakake was like a heavy hammer, hitting their hearts fiercely, causing them to lose their color all at once, and their spiritual beliefs collapsed, more than half of the time. People even started to cry.

Lin Ziming didn't stop, and continued to pounce at a Dzogchen master next to him, and he was still talking, "This is the third one, and there are four more."

Because of Lin Ziming's hand, the remaining four people were scared to death. They knew that Lin Ziming was amazing, but Wan Wanwan had imagined that Lin Ziming was already so amazing.

This is no longer something they can resist, and even if they join hands, they are not opponents at all.

Even Rommel, who was determined, was shocked at this moment, his pupils suddenly widened and his whole body was cold.

“This...” Romer swallowed heavily.

As for the other three people, they were even more frightened.

However, Lin Ziming didn't have a chance to give them a reaction. Now that he had taken action, he wanted to kill them in one fell swoop and sacrifice to the dead Chinese heroic souls!

Immediately, Lin Ziming, after solving Zhongjing Junichiro, immediately looked at another Innate Realm Dzogchen master, and showed a grim smile, “It's your next turn, are you ready?”

This innate realm Dzogchen master is also well-known internationally. He is a legend in his life. He was also written in the book by his country and became a eulogized hero. But now, facing the threat of Lin Ziming, he is frightened. I was guilty, and I no longer had the mentality of resistance, so I screamed, turned and ran!
